

Ragged Edges

BY GRACE SMITH AND BARR TURK.

The fatal hour has arrived when the first six weeks are over, and last semester's grades are out. Happy or sad, this is going to be a relaxing weekend for all.

What is this that we hear about Bob "Fearless" Reed's new attraction to Alice Christianson? We would say that old Fearless is stepping into some very cute and delicate territory. Then there's the new deal between lover Lee Levan and Mary Kay May. The luck of some women, and pretty good at that . . .

Tired of It All.

Tiring of the same old campus routines, Jan Engle leaves for Seattle, Wash., on March 20 to spend two weeks with fiancee Louis Kramer. While there, she will take in the Sigma Nu annual Pig Dinner. Weekend plans for Leo Sullivan run along this same line. He plans a trip to Kansas City with main objective to patch up current love life . . . What is Shirle Cumming's point of view on this situation?

Another weekend of parties and play is rolling around, and we might add that anyone included is in for some extra special entertainment. The Alpha Xi Delta formal dance tonight will be the center attraction for Barb Boyd with Russ Minnier; Claire Wodder with Wes Rounds; Mary Hope Hamilton with Bill Thorton; and Lynn Hazelton with Chuck Peake. Taking in the Phi Psi party will be Jack Wilson with Sally Stuht; Bud Brown with home town flame, Irene Filmer; and Dick Knutsen with Virginia De Forrest. Van Ketzler will be there with Betty Ann Taylor.

Another?

Ah yes—another pinning. This time Dana Rasmussen and Mary Fran Irwin are doing the honors. Mustn't forget to mention the steady deal between Dale Hanway and Joyce Smith. Best of luck to all of you.

Pike dates for the weekend will be Meredith Bowhay with Johnny Blumer, and Bill Levine with Marge Benson. Other dates include Lee Decker with Ray Grossman; Mary Margaret Loisel with Ralph Reeves; and Billie Trombla with Bob Nickerson. Ellie Detweiler will also be seen with Jack Dickey while Paulie Martz has attracted Dick Buck into a date—bears watching.

The happy expression on Dick Batscheider's face as of late is accounted for only by the return of

Phi Chi Theta Adds Fifteen New Members

At an initiation ceremony following a banquet Wednesday night, 15 coeds became active members of Phi Chi Theta, national honorary business administration sorority.

The banquet honored the new initiates and Miss Edna Lange, past national officer of Phi Chi Theta, who visited the local chapter on an inspection tour.

Bizad Guests.

Also present at the banquet were Prof. and Mrs. G. M. Darlington and Prof. and Mrs. R. M. Bourne, members of the business administration faculty.

Laurine Hansen, president of Phi Chi Theta, introduced the guests and conducted the initiation ceremony.

Those initiated were: Barbara Bischof, Arlene Carpenter, Margaret Finley, Virginia Foltz, Doris Frahm, Joanne Jenkinson, Jo Anne Johnston, Joyce Keckley, Mary Margaret Long, Shirley Schnittker, Phyllis Snyder, Marilyn Stevens, Joan Thomas, Pat Winter and Marguerite Wolsleger.

pinmate and former beauty queen Dorothy Black of New York. Oh these happy reunions—By the way, what is this we hear about Shirley Crosby going home with "Curly" Elwood to spend spring vacation? Must be something, or is it fascination?

The Sigma Kappas are planning what amounts to a mass exodus to Kearney during spring vacation, when and if the final date is arranged; however, at least two of them aren't too sure about whether they'd feel at home as Duane Mattson's girl is coming out from Pennsylvania that week.

Finishing up with one last word—without love, life is a match that doesn't strike . . . might as well be a freshman's creed what with spring near and nine o'clock seeming earlier and earlier . . .
