

HUSKER HIGHLIGHTS

By George Miller

Word from the East-West basketball committee informs us that Charlie Black, agile Kansas university cager, is one of the ten western squad members selected to play against an eastern all-star team in Madison Square Garden on March 30.

The smooth working Jayhawk was probably the outstanding performer in the Big Six this season, and will get a chance to parade his talent before the critical eyes of the New York fans. With the Kansas quintet out of the NCAA meet after their defeat by Oklahoma A. & M., Black's opportunity comes as a fitting reward to a fine season.

W. H. Browne, Husker basketball coach and end coach on the football squad, has been re-elected first vice president of the National Basketball Coaches' association which is now meeting in New York.

Blair Gullion of Connecticut is president of the group, now occupied with deliberations on the question of the altitudinous players now so common in the game. The majority of the coaches are of the opinion that some rules changes must be made to halt the big men from making a farce of the game. Among the suggested remedies for the problem is the plan to enlarge the free throw lane and thus make the big men stay further away from the basket. The present rules state that no offensive player may remain in the free throw lane for more than three seconds.

The problem is a thorn in the side of many of the nation's foremost cage mentors, and many more suggestions may be expected.

Phi Gamma Delta Wallops Navyites Boys for Crown

To the tune of a 52-25 walk-away over the Demolition Boys, the Phi Gamma Delta quintet Thursday night clinched top place in the all-university basketball "tournament of champions."

Jim Myers and Bob and Dick Schleiger potted 18, 14 and 10 points, respectively, to put the Fijis way out in front from the very start. The score read 27-4 at the half. What there was of the Demos' offense came in the second half, when Huxley began to hit and sank 15 points for the navy men.

The Phi Gams had defeated the 520 Club, independent tourney winner, previously, and with two wins and no losses were undisputed all-university champions. Therefore the third game of the series between the independent and navy champs was forfeited by the Demolition Boys to the 520 Club.

Golf Hopefuls Shoot Opening Tryout Round

First action on the varsity golf front will get underway this morning at 10 a. m. when 41 candidates for places on the Nebraska golf team tee off in a preliminary qualifying round at the Pioneer course.

Coach Bud Williamson will weed out the 15 lowest scorers and these men will shoot another round on April 5. After this second round of medal play the eight squad members will be named. The second round date has been set for after spring vacation so that golfers left in the running may sharpen their game for the final elimination.

This match is the first of the Huskers' seven appearances. Williamson named the following threesomes for today's qualifying play:

Rod Monismith, C. H. Johnson and Richard Knudson.
William Gard, Jeff Segar and Preston Tucker, Jr.
Phil Fredrickson, Lou Howard and Tom Gillaspie.
Ted Vrana, Roy Snyder and Earl Auvinen.
Rollin Bailey, Mac Graham and Ray Wallosky.
Rex Gribble, Karl Barkenhagen and Don Stroh.
Phil Sackbauer, Ted Valentine and Dick Klopp.
Fred Huax, Ted Waechter and Rex Mehmon.
D. W. Silver, Jack Bailey and Don Spomer.
L. Sage, George Bosma and Johnny Church.
Scott Greenwood, T. W. Stegeman and Charles Gleason.
Bus Whitehead, J. W. Nevitt and Jim Liggert.
Eddie McElligott, Dale Ralitt and George Dalley.
Kenny Adams and Bob Scoville.

NATIONAL BOXING MEET.
Harold Boker and Ed Cople, only two Cornhusker entries at the N.C.A.A. boxing meet being held this weekend in Stillwater, Okl., were put out of competition in the preliminary matches.
Cople lost Friday afternoon to Richard Ditsworth, Iowa State, 6 to 2. In the semi-finals Boker gave way to George Walker of Oklahoma A. & M.
