

Ragged Edges

BY PAT TOOF.

Delving into the tidbits of the weekend brings many interesting morsels to light . . . will proceed . . .

The triple Deltas outdid themselves on their Cabaret party last night . . . featuring the "face on the ballroom floor" with the main floor strictly dark and interesting . . . and reserved for dancing. Yes, I said DANCING. All very much appreciated by Bobbie Sewell who came down from Sioux City to attend with fiancée Pat Hodges. Then there was Lynn O'Dell, seeking this seclusion with popular Jan Wilson. Stepping out from his usual hermitage, Bill Monroe appeared with "Cookie" Fredrickson . . . quite a contrast . . .

Love Life.

Reviewing love life in various stages . . . starting on the platonic basis, we mention Tommy Noble seen Friday night with Shirlee Wallace . . . then as a surprise to some of us, the pinning of Don Ashford, Beta, and key girl, Jo Fankhauser. Also seems as if we have failed to enlighten our readers (forgetfulness, not ignorance!) of the placement of Dale Hanway's Sigma Nu pin beside the Alpha Chi pin of sweet Joyce Smith. Now as an example of the cemented stage, we bring to print the marriage of Mary Forman and William Glass, former AST on campus, which occurred during vacation.

Humor Unappreciated.

The SAE's are laughing constantly about "Fearless" Reed taking so many showers lately . . . everybody but Fear, that is. What's the joke, boys? Why does Fear keep saying, "I believe her, I believe her." (Twice, that is.)

Labeled "Embarrassing situation" or "Life's little tribulations" . . . when Nancy Mines and Dick Hartly walked into the Crib last week to meet face to face with brother and old steady, Jim Moore, coking with Nancy Watkins.

Making up for the confusion of Friday night, cute Marilyn Duffec and Dick Fuller turned to Omaha Saturday for fun and excitement. Not a steady twosome, but occupying much of each other's time.

Close Attentions.

Also receiving attentions from Sig Nu house . . . this time speaking of Mery Ann Korb and "Face" Mayborn. Together during week and weekend . . . Friday and Saturday.

Stepping out for the first time together in some interval . . . Friday night found Nancy Sodaro again with Matt Matson. Also Helen Prince with some sweet young thing minus hair.

Together, but not together at Theta formal, were Frannie Liek and Donnie Peterson. Frannie appearing with Shirley Lierk, while Donnie was escorted by Al Busch.

As a parting bit . . . digging up old memories brought Bill Lear and Billie Trombla together again Friday for the entire day. Now what?

Thanks for readin' . . .
