

Ragged Edges

By DANDY LION

What a weekend! Old UN has witnessed few which could compare for being dead . . . nevertheless, there was some relief at the Tau pledge picnic which found Frannie Hunt with Bette Tobin, Paul Hammerquist with Kay Blue, Harry Herhard with Ann Chamberlain and Bruce Shurtleft with Nancy Glyn from Lincoln high.

Back for the weekend was Dick Thompson to date Les Metheny . . . doubling with them were Bob Ketterer and Georgie Wythers.

A renewal notice the other evening came out when Betty Chipman appeared with Martin Pesek, not to be confused with Jack.

Coming from Pittsburgh to see Catherine Curley was Bob Diessi . . . they journeyed down to Seward with Tom Louie and Alberta Andersen so we've heard. Favoring Lincoln even before his home town . . . Bob Ackerman was reported to be celebrating his discharge with Sally Stuhlt while sister Bobby Busch gave Dean Kratz the turn Sunday evening.

Questions.

Now as a new feature, we ask the questions of the week. Who had four-eighty to see Sammy Kaye ??? And, how do the Sig Alphas get away with it???? Nice work if you can get it . . . We have nothing more to say.

Probably the most hilarious scene of the weekend was Ellie Lykke's escape from the clutches of John Bull, or were you planning to take in the Policeman's Ball, Ellie??

Cupid rang bells for Johnny Bell last weekend . . . For proof check on Mary Hinman's dates for the entire ensuing weekend. What a difference a date makes . . . Rumor has it that Jack Ca-wood is again in said vicinity . . . makes one wonder willy or wonty??? That's a pun, son.

Still Carrying On.

Easter was no excuse to abandon the Beta pinning fad . . . still carrying on, Dave Speck dropped his diamond in favor of Helen Howell to place beside her Theta Kite. The record is now eighteen for the boys this year, and who can beat that?

Following observations come with spring . . .

Girls begin working on sun-tans and throw away leg make-up.

Don Barry arouses to ask about eligible coeds on campus.

Girls begin going home regularly on weekends to avoid picnics.

The Beta house is deserted.

The tea room is out of tea.

Phi Psi gulch becomes a rousing site.

Gene Wieler swears off dating only to swear on again.

So there goes spring, and so goes Judd Ankrom down his well-beaten path to his well-beaten lodge.

Bulletins

PERSONAL RELATIONS

Marion Lowe, assistant professor in the graduate school in sociology, will speak on "Psychology in Marriage" at 4 p. m. Tuesday.

COMPARATIVE RELIGIONS

Rev. Carl Storm of the Unitarian church will speak at 4 p. m. Wednesday.

BEGINNING SOCIAL SERVICE

Group members who plan to go on the Boytown trip Saturday should contact Jo Meyer.

Twelve Week Refresher Plan Offered Vets

A twelve week refresher course for returning student veterans and lawyers who have been in the armed forces is now being offered by the university, according to Dean Frederick Beutel.

The course began yesterday and will continue until July 12. The refresher classes meet Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 4 p. m.

Lectures are being given by all members of the college faculty on the following subjects: ethics, agency, suretyship, sales, equity, personal property, insurance, contracts, negotiable instruments, trusts, unjust enrichment, wills, mortgages, partnerships, criminal law and procedure, evidence, municipal corporations, real property, constitutional law, domestic relations, torts, corporations, practice and procedure.

"There has been considerable demand among the returning vets for a refresher course in Nebraska law," Dean Beutel said, "but unfortunately there has not been sufficient demand to offer a separate course. The twelve weeks course is designed to give a complete review of the subjects."

ASME Members Make Inspections Of Omaha Plants

The mechanical engineers will go to Omaha tomorrow for an inspection of industrial plants and shops, according to Roy Gatch, committee head.

Members of ASME and non-member mechanical engineers who are interested may sign their names to a list posted in the Mechanical Engineering lab and in Bancroft if they wish to go on the trip.

The group planning the trip will meet at the Mechanical Engineering lab at 8 a. m. Wednesday, and will be luncheon guests of the Omaha Engineers club. A Westinghouse executive will speak to the group on "steam turbine locomotives."

Math Honorary Offers Awards

Pi Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary, will award $10 prizes to the winners of the first and second year college math examinations held in May.

Students completing or now registered in Math 13 or 22 are eligible for an examination in analytics. An integral calculus exam will be given to students enrolled or with credit in Math 102 or 104.

The name of the prize winners will appear on next year's honor list. Further information is obtainable in the math office, third floor, M. A. building.

Naval Reserve Training Program to be Activated

All naval reserve aviators in the Lincoln area interested in a peacetime Naval Reserve Training program are asked by Capt. Mitchell D. Matthews, USN, commanding officer of the Navy ROTC at the university, to write or get in touch with his office at Navy hall.

A training program is to be activated in this area but its location and size cannot be determined until a canvas has been made of prospective members of the unit, according to Captain Matthews.

General L. A. Pick Speaks at Convo For Engineers Day

Major General Lewis A. Pick, accredited with supervising the supposedly "impossible" task of constructing the Ledo Road in the China-Burma war theater, is to address an 11 o'clock convocation, May 3, the date of All Engineers day.

General Pick, co-ordinator of the Pick-Sloan Missouri River project, will discuss "The Development of the Missouri Basin" before this assemblage of Nebraska engineering college students.

Choral Union, Symphony To Present 'Elijah'

The university's choral union and symphony orchestra will present Mendelssohn's "The Elijah," a religious oratorio, Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. in the coliseum.

Included in the cast of 500 will be a 60-piece symphony orchestra under the direction of Emanuel Wishnow, the university singers and three university choruses.

Fanabel Tripp and Joyce Stuve, student soloists, will appear with Mary Berner, Floyd Hanson and Cleve Genzlinger, music graduates and voice coaches. Myron Roberts will be organist and Ernest Harrison, pianist.

Aquaettes Give Water Pageant In Pool Friday

"Melodies In Swimtime" will be the theme of the water ballet to be presented Friday at 8:15 p. m. in the coliseum pool by members of Aquaettes, coed swimming club.

Featured number of the program will be "Star Dust," "Moonlight Cocktail" and "Ballett." "Tico Tico," "Waltz," "Quadrill," "Shooting Stars" and "Swinging on a Star" will also be included in the pageant.

Director.

Miss Jane Mott of the department of physical education for women is director of the event. Tickets for the water ballet, which will be open to the public, are on sale in the WAA office and may be purchased from WAA house representatives.

Aquaette members in the program are Dorothy Meshier, president; Anna Aasen, Susie Alexander, Analee Aten, Janice Bechner, Rosemary Beighler, Jeanne Branch, Blanche Cain, Jackie Clement, Norma Clements, Marie Ann Collins, Joan Daley, Jane Erickmeier, Phyllis Harris, Catherine Hinrichs, Mary Margaret Loisel, Esther Lucht, Evelyn Lukovsky, Leona McClure, Beverly Secord, Mary Jean Way, Eunice Way, Anne Whitham, Florence Petrow, Jeanne Bowers, Lois Fritz.

Masquers Elect Duckworth Prexy For Second Term

Blanche Duckworth was elected president of the Nebraska Masquers at the regular meeting held last week.

Other students elected to office by members of the theater honorary were Rex Cosler, vice president; Dorothea Duxbury, secretary; Peggy Kirschman, recording secretary; Barbara Berggren, treasurer, and Delphine Ayers, historian. Gaylord Marr and Van Westover were chosen as the student representatives to the Board of Governors.

New Activities.

New students inducted into the Nebraska Masquers as actives Thursday night included Betty Russell, Ann Proper, June Gast, Rex Cosler, Gaylord Marr, Delphine Ayers, Dede Meyer, Van Westover and Larry Gilling.

Students pledged to the organization were Marilyn Miller, Shirley Sabin, Janet Johnson, Bill Fein, Dean Graunke, Barbara Hockenberger, D. Ann Richardson and Dean Wells.

Plans were made at the meeting for the annual Nebraska Masquers' banquet which will be held some time in May.

Intervarsity Re-elects Abe Ediger President

Abe Ediger, junior, has been re-elected to serve as president of the Intervarsity Christian Fellowship conference at Iowa State college May 4 and 5.

it's great-it's TRUE THE MAN'S MAGAZINE FOR MAY

Don't miss your copy - at your favorite newsstand today!

KING OF THE GAMBLERS

It's a TRUE exclusive - in book-length to give you the whole story of the amazing, unique but perfectly real character who started riding a bicycle on a tight rope, who ended as the world's most famous chance-taker and gamester. Read Nicky Arnstein's own story, told by Nicky himself in TRUE, the Man's Magazine.

"I'VE HATED MY NAME"

Paul Gallico bets that 90 per cent "of the guys I know hate the names they were stuck with!" But there's nothing to the job - and he shows you how to do it in the May TRUE, the Man's Magazine. Don't miss this famous writer's

HOW TO NAME YOUR BOY
by Paul Gallico

DELUSIONS OF LANDIS

That's the diagnosis of ex-Senator Happy Chandler's condition since he became "Czar" of the world of swat. John Lardner - columnist and sportscaster and now analyst - sends one sizzling over the home plate in this issue of TRUE, the Man's Magazine.

UNHAPPY CHANDLER
by John Lardner

21 dead - 1 clue

At 1:07 a. m., Oct. 1, 1910, the 4-story fortress-like structure that housed the Los Angeles Times was reduced to a flaming inferno by two explosions and fire. William J. Burns' tracking down of the murderers is a crime classic - and every word is true.

THE CASE OF THE DYNAMITE MURDERS
by Alan Hynd (Author of the Case of The Roundabout Vengeance, etc.)

oh-OH-OH!

Meet MISS SPRING FEVER whose matchless portrait in full color has been painted exclusively for the May issue of TRUE by George Petty - the Girl of the Season by the Petty!

true THE MAN'S MAGAZINE

25¢

Yanky Clover

★ Dusting Powder in the gay, new romantic package that is a perfect setting for this tangy, spicy, Richard Hudout fragrance. 1.00 plus tax.

PILLERS

16 TH & O STREETS

PHARMACY

DRUGS FOUNTAIN LUNCHEONETTE

A Million Men are buying TRUE, the Man's Magazine - for its adventure, sports, humor, special men's departments - and every word true!

150 Pages of the May TRUE - be sure to get this issue. It's on sale at your favorite newsstand . . . now