

Faculty Recital Plans Revealed By Westbrook

The program for the first faculty recital be given in the Union ballroom Sunday afternoon at 4 was revealed today by Dr. A. E. Westbrook, Director of the School of Fine Arts.

Miss Kathryn Dean, contralto; Mr. J. Dayton Smith, tenor; Miss Charma Davies, pianist; and Mr. Robert Stepp, French horn, will combine talents to present the following selections:

Allerseelen (Strauss), Schlechtes Wetter (Strauss), Noon (Robinson) and Song from the Masque (Gomer), Miss Dean and Miss Berner. Nocturno (Porsch), Villanelle (Dukas), Mr. Stepp and Mr. Harrison. Sonatine (Ravel), Modere, Mousment de menuet, Anime, Miss Davies. The Star (Gretchaninoff), To You (Gretchaninoff), Through Dark Midnight Skies (Gretchaninoff), I Hear, I See (Gretchaninoff), Mr. Smith and Mr. Harrison.

Sunday's program will be the first of a series of four fall recitals to be presented by faculty members of the School of Fine Arts. Others will be given on October 27, November 3, and November 24, according to Dr. Westbrook. All university students are invited to attend.

District YM-YW Elects Chairmen

Phil Lyness was elected regional co-chairman of the district YM-YW movement at the conference held at Doane college last week.

Lyness will serve with Betty Lou Horton, who was elected last April. At the Doane conference, Mrs. Ray Rice was named adult non-staff member of the district executive council, and Jim Seifert of Midland college was voted deputation coordinator.

Other officers elected last spring are Mary Dye, district representative, and John Aiken of Kansas State, co-chairman.

Lueth . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

"While adjustments undoubtedly will have to be made to meet the economic and social conditions of the day, nurses should be aware and proud of the fact that their social heritage is that of service," the dean pointed out, and concluded that, "The appeal to service and to professional care of the patient will be the most stimulating and motivating feature in securing the kind of women wanted for nurses in the future."

Coeds . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

Deadline will remain at 12:30 Fridays, and men must be out of houses by 12:30, as before. No late minutes will be allowed on 1 o'clocks.

The new rule is effective immediately.

Council Vacancies

Students interested in filling the two positions which are still open on the Student Council are to file by 5 p. m. Monday in the Student Activities office in the Coliseum, according to Bob Coonley, president.

Vacancies are: One junior man from the law college and one woman from the graduate college.

Classified

LOST—Gold Lady Elgin watch, possibly between Delta Gamma and Theta house. Liberal reward. Call 2-7742.

LOST—Gold Wyler wrist watch, Sat. 12 Oct. Between Sigma Phi house and state capitol. Phone Don Moore. Reward, 2-7764.

Recordings Made

of any and all occasions Reasonable Rates for Professional Recordings Estimates upon request

Call Don Cavitt at KFOR 2-6965 after 2:30 p. m.

New Students Sign At Union Activity Mart

Entering students signed for activities in which they intend to participate, at the Activities mart, held in the Union ballroom Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6.

Functions of the seventeen activities had been explained at meetings Oct. 9 and 16, and further information was given at the tables where students signed.

Activities represented were USA, BABW, Alpha Lambda Delta, YWCA, WAA, Mortar Board, AWS, Tassels, University Theater, Kosmet Klub, YMCA, Ag. Executive board, AUF, Student Foundation, Cornhusker, The Daily Nebraskan and Coed Counselors.

YWCA Schedules Penitentiary Tour For Saturday

First major activity of the beginning social service group of the YWCA will be the field trip to the penitentiary this Saturday. The group will meet Saturday morning at 8:55 in front of Ellen Smith Hall.

Joan Moyer is in charge of the discussion group which studies social problems in preparation for the study and actual participation

U.S.A. Dance

Unaffiliated Students' Association will hold a harvest dance in the Union ballroom Saturday, Oct. 19, from 9 to 12 p. m. Admission will be 25 cents each, and refreshments will be served.

Tickets may be obtained from U. S. A. representatives at the door.

in social service provided by the advanced committee.

To duplicate the jerky, jumpy movement of the silent flickers Director George Marshall speeded up the film for portions of Paramount's "The Perils of Pauline," in which Betty Hutton portrays Pearl White, early day serial queen.

Counselor Tickets

All Coed-Counselors who have not yet turned in their money for dinner tickets are to do so today noon at the booth in the Union, according to Marthella Holcolm, president.

A Series of South American Dance Classes Begin

8:00-9:00 p. m., FRIDAY, OCT. 18

Flavia Waters Champe, Instructor

Union Ballroom

FREE

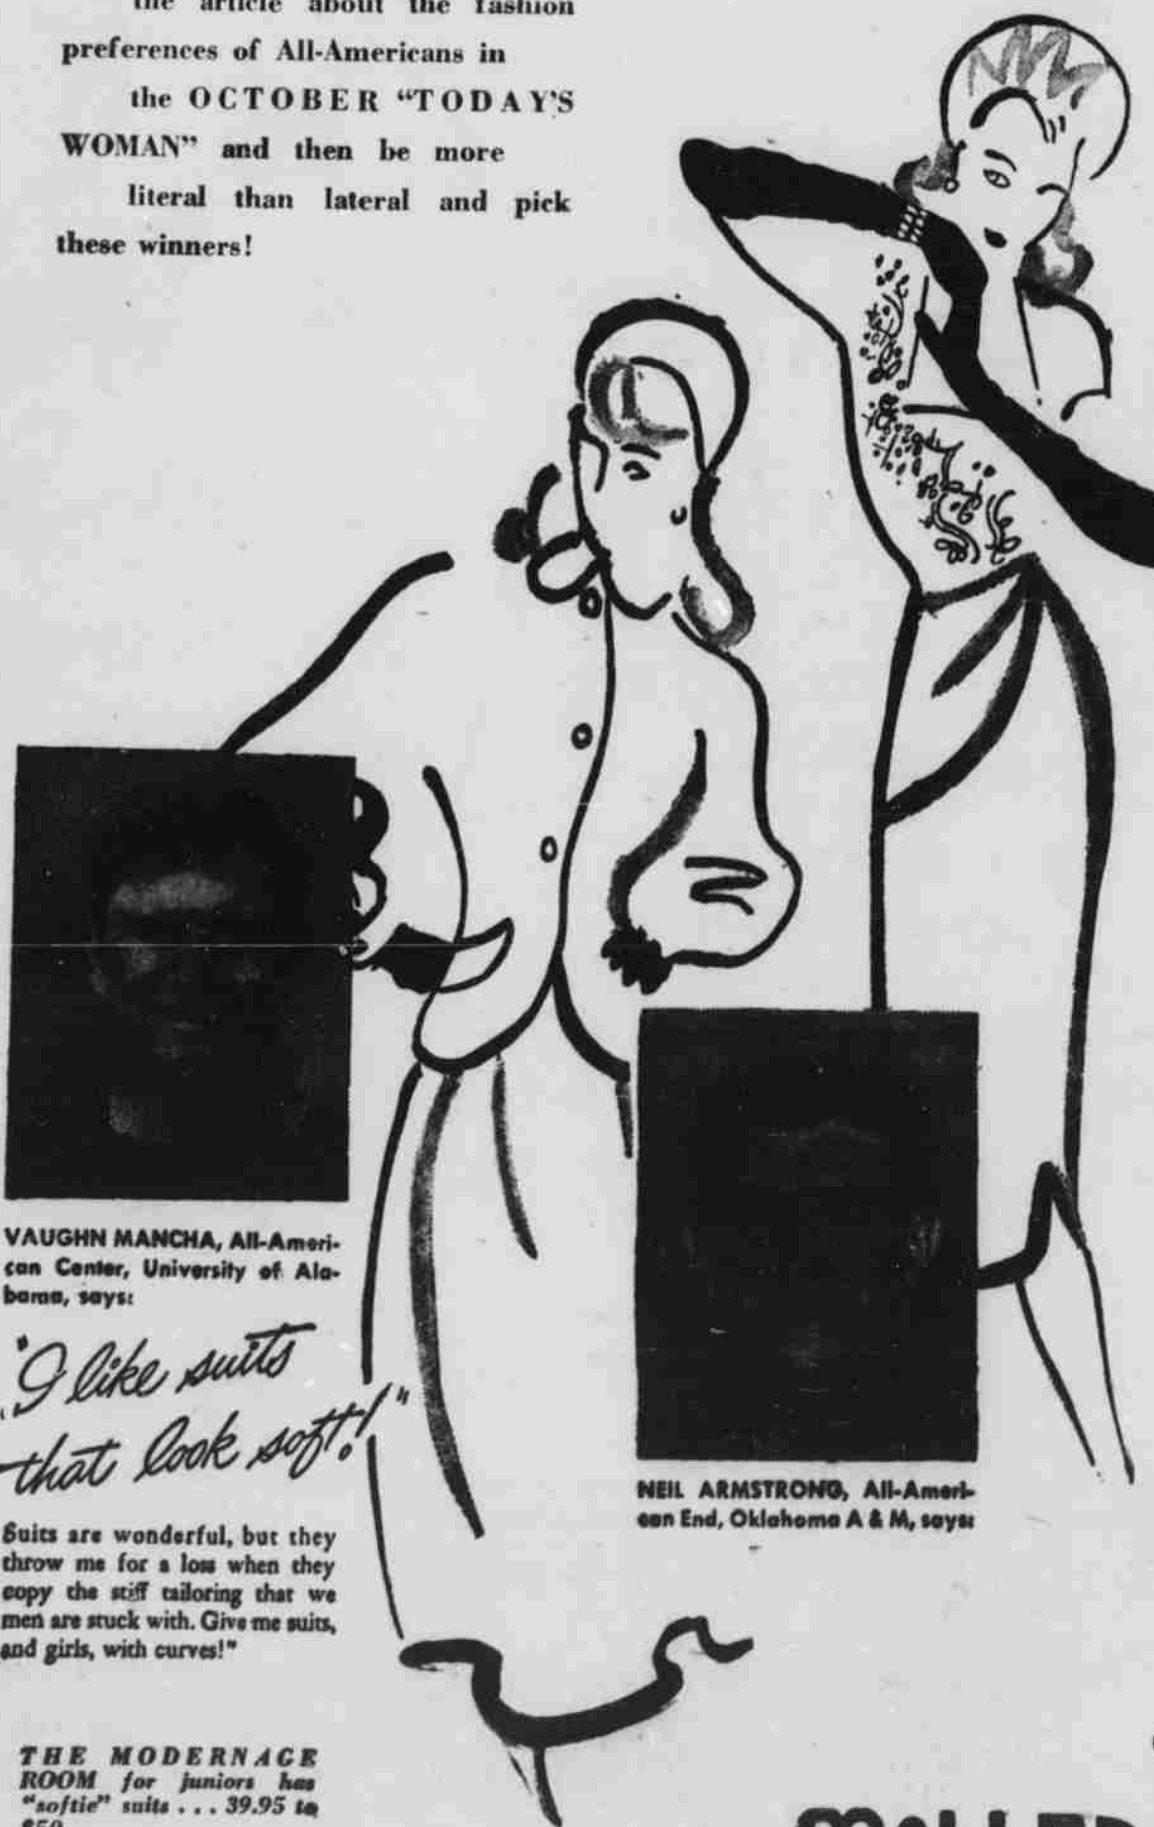

Please Come With Escort

TODAY'S WOMEN and MILLER & PAINE

GO INTO A HUDDLE

—and come out with touchdowns about fashion! Miller's has the clothes that score . . . read the article about the fashion preferences of All-Americans in the OCTOBER "TODAY'S WOMAN" and then be more literal than lateral and pick these winners!

All Americans choose your fashions!

NEIL says:

"I go for those sparkly dresses!"

Plain clothes are all right for every day, but when there's a party or a dance, I like my girl to get into the swing of things with lots of glitter and razzle-dazzle!

SPARKLE DRESSES for after-game festivities, 29.95 to 69.95.

DRESSES—SECOND FLOOR

VAUGHN MANCHA, All-American Center, University of Alabama, says:

"I like suits that look soft!"

Suits are wonderful, but they throw me for a loss when they copy the stiff tailoring that we men are stuck with. Give me suits, and girls, with curves!"

THE MODERNAGE ROOM for juniors has "softie" suits . . . 39.95 to $50.

SECOND FLOOR

NEIL ARMSTRONG, All-American End, Oklahoma A & M, says:

What the men order

on FASHION FLOOR—SECOND

MILLER & PAINE