That's The Spirit . . .

The finest exhibition of school spirit in many a year was shown by the Jayhawk rooters in the KU stadium last Saturday. From the moment the team ran on the field to warm up till they trotted off, the students were back of the team 100%.

Every arm on the east side of that stadium waved as the band played school songs and every voice shouted the yells. Admittedly, there were times when less spirit should have been evidenced, as when the refer made an adverse decision, but the contrast to the usually silent Nebraska rooting section at the K State game was noticeable.

Tomorrow our team will be host to Indiana—the first time the Hoosiers have invaded this territory since 1942. The team will be out to revenge the licking administered last year but they can't do it alone. Their chances increase every time those 11 men on the field realize that we all want to win.

Today The Daily Nebraskan is printing words to some of the familiar songs and is also informing students how the card section during the half will operate.

Nebraska has been noted for its lack of spirit during the war. At this, our second home game, we have a chance to prove to the team and Indiana that we've got a good team and we're back of them all the way.

Clinical Test Results Defend Slow Students

That long-suffering object of your grammar school jokes, the slow, backward boy in the rear seat, may have been brighter than some of his more highly regarded classmates.

So concludes Dr. D. A. Worcester, director of the Educational Psychological Clinic, of the university, from tests of 6,000 Nebraska public school children during the past ten years.

Remedies
 "Our clinical tests show that many children are labeled as 'dumb' or 'dull' in public schools because of defects that can be remedied," Dr. Worcester declares. The most common of these are speech, hearing and sight defects and certain mental blocks, he says.

The psychological testing clinic goes anywhere in the state when subjects cannot be brought to the ter. Very young children in social campus, according to Dr. Worcester, welfare institutions are tested by the clinic to determine their desirability for adoption. Educational and vocational guidance for boys and girls of high school and university age are also given.

BY JACK HILL.

Trygve Lie, United Nations assembly Secretary-general, disrupted agenda plans when he called on the nations of the world to "find ways and means by which liberty and democratic government may be restored in Spain." Lie's address will undoubtedly cause heated debate on the floor of the assembly as the Franco regime in Spain has been the topic of much discussion since the end of the war.

Referred to as the last stronghold of Fascism in the world, Spain is proving to be a thorn in the side of the Allied powers. Since the war-ridden country faces the historical "Pillars of Hercules," and serves as a threat to British controlled Gibraltar, neither the United Kingdom nor the United States have been too anxious to antagonize Franco. Russia has never allowed the western powers to forget that they are "protecting," a Russian usage at least, this so-called Fascist power.

Now, Lie's statements will most certainly bring the question to the front of all the problems facing the United Nations and temporarily forestall debate on the veto power and other highly controversial issues. Which may have been exactly the secretary-general's purpose. . . .

John L. Lewis' presumptuous demands that Secretary of the Interior Krug come running at his beck and call is being characteristically ignored by Harry Truman. Wide spread comment has expressed disbelief that the President would allow the mine head to flaunt governmental power as he did, but the chief executive has laid the entire problem in the fledgling secretary's lap.

Krug said he did not see how he could possibly meet Lewis on Lewis' date but also commented that the miners would not walk out. The next move is up to John L. who is probably well aware of the fact that this is an election year and that neither political party will be too anxious to cross his dictatorial path.

Livestock receipts have dropped to the lowest mark since price controls were lifted, while prices accordingly rose. With only three percent of all foods consumed in the country now under OPA ceilings, the race is now on. It can only be a matter of time until labor begins to demand further wage raises to counteract the ensuing higher costs of living.
 All we can say is . . . "Have fun, boys."

Learn 'Em Sing 'Em

For the enlightenment of some of the newer students, here are some popular Cornhusker songs and yells which will be used in the remaining grid games at Memorial stadium.

Let's get 'em learned before the Indiana game Saturday.

"HAIL VARSITY"
 Hail for the mighty team who fight to win for the Scarlet and Cream;
 For Varsity and victory,
 The mighty men who wear the "N" still hold the key.
 Hail the stalwart foes;
 Keep up the fight 'til the final whistle blows.
 Huskers, cheer for the Huskers to cinch game and raise their fame the victory way.
 The stands will sway, the band will play,
 So carry on, we want to win today.
 Chorus

Hail to the team;
 The stadium rings as everyone sings the Scarlet and Cream,
 Cheers for a victory
 Echo our loyalty;
 So on, mighty men
 The eyes of the land, upon ev'ry hand,
 are looking at you,
 Fight on for victory
 Hail the men of Nebraska U.

CHANT
 (chant)
 U-Rah, N-Rah,
 U-N-I
 U-Varsity, N-Varsity,
 Ne-bras-ki
 (yell)
 U-U-U-n-I
 Ver-Ver-Ver-si-ti
 N-e-bras-ki
 Oh-h-my!

"THE CORNHUSKER"
 Come a runnin' boys,
 Don't you hear that noise
 Like the thunder in the sky,
 How it rolls along
 In the good old song,
 For the sons of Ne-bras-ki,
 Now it's coming near
 With a rising cheer
 That will sweep all foes away,
 So with all our vim
 We are bound to win
 And we're going to win today—
 Chorus

For Nebraska and the Scarlet,
 For Nebraska and the Cream,
 Tho' they go through many a battle
 Our colors still are seen,
 So in contest and in victory
 We will wave them for the team
 And 'till always stir a Cornhusker
 The old Scarlet and the Cream.

Music School Staff Offers Recital Sunday

Piano, cello and flute performances by three school of music staff members are scheduled for the second faculty recital Sunday at 4 p. m. Appearing in the Union Ballroom, the musicians are Miss Mary Louise Boehm, pianist; Miss Sara Davis, cellist; and Donald Lentz, flutist.

Miss Boehm, who presented two series of piano recitals in Chicago's Orchestra Hall last season, will play Bach's "Italian Concerto" and two Chopin etudes. Originally written for harpsichord, the Bach 'concerto' is a work for solo instrument which emulates the effect of an additional orchestral part. The etudes which Miss Boehm has programmed are of sharply contrasting nature.

Miss Davis, beginning her second year on the faculty this fall, will be heard in a four movement sonata by Corelli, the Italian master of string and organ composition.

Mr. Lentz, whose time is divided between woodwind instruction and duties as director of the Varsity Band, will offer "Sonata-Undine" by Reinecke and "Poem" by Griffes.

Two recitals remain the series following Sunday's performance.
