

(Ed note) Again, the guessing game and today the answers!

- 1. The Vitalis Boy places cap on back of head, the better to show off curly locks in front.
- 2. The Introvert who lives in a little world all his own. 3. "I Have Returned."
- 4. Non-conformist. This campus detriment refuses to wear the symbol of Freshman standing.
- 5. Beau Bummel likes the way his cap sets off that red plaid shirt-jacket.
- 6. Once a Freshman, always a Freshman.

Student Concensus of Opinion "Sure We Like One O'Clocks!"

BY EUGENE BERMAN

The second week of one o'clock Saturday permissions for coeds having passed, this inquiring reporter took it upon himself to find how the almost revolutionary concession on the part of the AWS has been received on the campus.

The process of finding people to interview began at eleven o'clock Sunday morning with no success.

Same Difference

During the afternoon when signs of life began to appear on the campus, it was possible to take a concensus of opinion. One group of people said in unison, "Sure, the extra half hour is a fine American institution, but it seems that we have to rush just as much to get in at one as we did to get in at twelve-thirty."

A fellow who just happened to hear the conversation ventured of his own free will, "That's what the extra time is for. If the ration of men to women is four to one, we are certainly deserving of that extra half hour when we succeed in getting a date."

Approve

Innumerable people expressed approval of the new ruling, but no one gave better and more logical reason than this one given by one of the more outstanding "men" on the campus: "I wholeheartedly approve of the one o'clock permission, because it keeps my roommate, who is quite a woman's man, out an extra half hour on Saturday nights, which in turn gives me that much more time to study undisturbed."

Then there is the group of men who have banded into a club, calling themselves "The 2nd 3rd, and 4thers" who emphatically and unanimously expressed decided opposition against allowing the coeds this additional time, "For," they claim, "it just makes us feel worse about not having a date which if we had would last a half hour longer than the one we didn't have under the old system."

Ragged Edges

BY PAT TOOF.

For the morning news-drinkers who are eagerly gulping down the strong black headlines, a little of the social sewerage has been collected. A secret that has been hushed about from place to place deals with five anonymous Phi Delt pledges who dedicated last Friday night to Omaha and to "Rosey" . . . no more can be said.

Gene Edwards and Barb McKinley made the jaunt to East Hills that night to help Houtz Gillian Steenburg celebrate his birthday. Lynn Hazleton held the place of special interest for Houtz on the occasion. Speaking of Friday . . . We have now seen the eighth wonder, Elmer "A w g w a n" Sprague crashed social circles and appeared at Kings escorting Gretchen Burham. Norm Leger and Beverly Honneker made up the other half of the party.

Another couple, obviously happy in each other's company, is Walt Loomis and Barb Hunter . . . Perhaps it pays to be a bus boy.

Misunderstandings.

Understand Chuck Mulvaney experienced some confusion Saturday night with two dates on his hands for the Delt party at Antelope Pavilion. After asking the girl from Omaha down for the occasion, Mo took a quick change of heart and favored June Gable that night, fixing up a buddy with his other date.

Change Predicted.

Speaking strictly on daresay, there may be a slight change of feeling between Hedy Schultz and Bill Dolvey sometime in the near future. It might also prove interesting to watch happenings between Cap Theisen and Jean Swengle. They will be together at the Sig Ep breakfast dance next Saturday, while Curly Elword will import Gloria Benard from Kansas City for the dance.

Craig Announces Formation Plans Of Air Squadron

Plans for the formation of a campus squadron of the Air Reserve Association to promote the authorization of an Air Reserve flying unit at the Lincoln Air Base were announced by Fritz Craig this week.

Groundwork will be laid for the organization of the local unit at the first meeting of the group at 7:15 tomorrow night in the Lincoln Hotel. An invitation to attend this first meeting was extended to all former Air Corps personnel attending the university. Members of the Air Corps Reserve interested in acquiring flying time under the Army's Reserve program will especially benefit from this opening meeting and the aims of the group, according to Craig.

Col. LeBailey, officer in charge of the Air Corps Reserve program at Offutt Field, will be the featured speaker of the opening meeting.

Craig indicated that plans for the establishment of a Reserve flying unit at the Lincoln Air Base are on file in Washington.

New School Bill Will Be Discussed On Vet Forum

Participants in Wednesday evening's veteran's forum will discuss the school amendment bill which will be voted on in the November election.

The discussion, which will begin at 7:15 in the Union will be followed by a business meeting of the veteran's organization.

The weekly forums, a project of the organization, are recorded and broadcast over radio station KFAB. Any persons interested may attend the discussions.
