HUSKER HIGHLIGHTS

By George Miller

The second ranking ball carrier in the Big Six will be in action Saturday when the Missouri team trots onto Memorial Stadium turf for the clash with Nebraska.

Lloyd Brinkman, speedy half-back has piled 239 yards in 49 trips with the pigskin to gain the second spot in the conference standings, behind the Oklahoma Sooners' phenomenal Joe Golding.

The Oklahoma ace has advanced the leather 448 yards in 58 attempts to be far out in front, by the mere margin of 109 yards. He has averaged 7.7 yards per try as compared to Brinkman's average of just a shade over four yards.

Third is Ray Evans of Kansas, while two Husker standbys, Halfback Dick Hutton and Fullback Tom Novak hold down the fourth and fifth spots. Hutton has gone 202 yards in 46 attempts. Novak has been the busiest leather-lugger in the loop with 59 carries for a total of 195 yards. Poor performances against the Indiana Hoosiers last week cost the two Scarlet ball carriers their chance to rise in the ratings.

Although he is far down the list, the Tigers' Howard Bonnet deserves recognition for his feat of amassing 146 yards in only 14 attempts. This performance is good for an average of 10.4 yards.

In the passing department the Bengals have three men in the top ten, based on yardage gained by passes. Bus Entsminger, quarterback who was injured last week, is sixth, and Darr and Austin rank ninth and tenth.

Nebraska's Sam Vacanti is placed in the fourth spot, behind Hogan of Kansas, Dave Wallace of Oklahoma and Ray Evans of KU. Sam has completed eight passes in 25 attempts for a gain of 184 yards.

Hogan has been out of the Jayhawk lineup for several weeks but still clings to the lead with a gain of 229 yards on 11 completions out of 24 attempts. Jay-hawk rivals should be thankful that Hogan is now out of action, for what an aerial threat he and Ray Evans would provide.

Ken Bounds of Missouri, who played on the Husker basketball court last winter for the Tigers, is third in the loop in the matter of pass receiving. The burly Bengal has grabbed eight tosses for 182 yards.

Nebraska's lone representative in this department is Halfback Bill Moomey who is tenth. The York speedster has taken four passes for a gain of 57 yards.

Just one more matter of statistics.

Missouri's ace punter has replaced Bob Dennis of Iowa State at the top of the heap. Don Faurot's ace booter, a lad named Teal, has punted three times and has average 49 yards on each attempt.

Once again Nebraska's best performer is far down the list. Roy Long is tenth among Big Six kickers with an average of 33 yards per try on 23 attempts.

To add to the color of the Homecoming festivities Saturday, the Missouri band and a migration of students are accompanying the football team and will attempt to take the victory bell back to Columbia for another year.

Missouri will field a couple of the heaviest linemen in the nation Saturday against the Huskers. Tackle Jim Kekeris weighs in at 284 but is forced to relinquish his title as the heaviest lineman to Norval "Tiny" Peipmeyer who tips the scales at 303 pounds.

Big Jim is something of a three-way player for the Tigers. In addition to his defensive abilities at a tackle spot, he is a valuable place kicker and has even carried the ball.

Twice this season the huge Kekeris has moved to a backfield spot and in his two trips with a football he has averaged nine yards.

Cage Coach Harry Good Reduces Nebraska Squad

Basketball Coach Harry Good has increased the tempo of the Husker cage drills as the opening game with South Dakota University on December 4 draws nearer.

Large Squad

Approximately 50 squadmen are working out daily at the coliseum under the tutelage of Good, who came to Nebraska from the University of Indiana, and assistant coach Tony Sharpe. Scrimmages have been the order during this week, after candidates had spent several weeks drilling on fundamentals and conditioning exercises.

A number of top flight ball players are included in the athletes still out for the squad. Good has reduced the squad from over 100 aspirants since the practice sessions began early in October.

Among the standouts are Joe Loisel, who performed for the Creighton Bluejays during the time that the Hilltoppers were the scourge of the Missouri Vaaley; Don Waite, first class replacement on the championship University of Wyoming quintet; Rod Cox, who sparkled at Lincoln high and later for Crete and St. Marys Pre-flight during his time in the navy; Dick Means, who played for Army last year; and Neil Mosser, who has been one of the pleasant surprises thus far this year and who formerly played for Purdue.

Lettermen returning from last year's squad are Joe Brown, Bob Korte, Gayle Lebsack, Chuck Mulvaney, Dale Livingston and Jim Sandstedt.

Phi Delta Theta Slides by Rival In IM Football

Phi Delta Theta scored a narrow 6 to 0 win over Sigma Chi in a playoff game to determine the fraternity touch football championship. The Sigma Chi team now has lost to both other league winners, so the victorious Phi Delt will meet Delta Upsilon for the championship.

Chick Thorne tallied the lone touchdown of the game which was enough to give the Phi Delta Theta outfit the victory.

In other games Wednesday night Phi Gamma Delta blanked Zeta Beta Tau 8-0, the Lilies trounced the Ag Freshmen 20 to 0 and Presbyterian Student House upset the Vets' Organization 13 to 12. This last game has been protested.

Bowling Teams Must Furnish Own Pin Boys

Bowling is in the air as intramural teams are beginning to concentrate on this favorite fall and winter sport. Already 16 organized houses and one independent team have signed up to compete and plans call for the first matches to be played November 5.

The Lincoln Bowling Alleys at 216 No. 12th street will be the scene of the competition and matches are scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday each week from 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. Each organization must finance its own team as the cost is 75c for each man per match.

A special appeal is given by the alleys management for the organizations to bring their own pin setters, because of a scarcity of pin boys. The pin setter would make at least $1 per match.

JACK HAZEN—Husker end who may not start against the Tigers because of a shoulder injury.
