

EDITORIAL * * COMMENT

The Daily Nebraskan

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR
 Subscription rates are $1.50 per semester, $2.00 per semester mailed, or $2.00 for the college year, $3.00 mailed. Single copy 5c. Published daily during the school year except Mondays and Saturdays, vacations and examination periods, by the students of the University of Nebraska under the supervision of the Publication Board. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office in Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, act of October 2, 1917, authorized September 30, 1922.

EDITORIAL STAFF.
 Editor: Phyllis Teagarden
 Managing Editors: Shirley Jenkins, Mary Alice Cawood
 News Editors: Dale Novotny, Phyllis Morlock, Jack Hill, Mary Louise Blumel, Jeanne Kerrigan
 Sports Editor: George Miller
BUSINESS STAFF.
 Business Manager: Jim Van Landingham
 Assistant Business Managers: Dorothy Lasher, Byron Raszick
 Circulation Manager: Keith Jones

Music School Seniors Give Recitals in Temple Today

Temple theater at 4 p. m. this afternoon will provide the stage for the senior recital of Helen Laird, contralto, Marilyn Nelson, pianist and Arleen Heinz, soprano. A school of music requirement for graduation, the several senior recitals presented throughout the year are the highlights of the student recital series.

Miss Laird, who will open the program with a group of five German and English songs, has appeared as a "Messiah" soloist for two years, and has sung leading roles in past university opera productions.

Etude

Selecting a concert etude by Liszt and two lighter pieces by Debussy, Miss Nelson will also play "Prelude and Dance," by the American contemporary, Paul Creston. The number is one of Creston's newer works, having been published a year ago.

In addition to German and Italian songs, Soprano Arleen Heinz will sing "Symphony in Yellow" by the American composer Griffes and the well-known coloratura aria "The Bell Song," from Delibes' opera "Lakme."

The complete program, for which Bonnie Compton and Peg Shelley will be accompanists, is:

- PROGRAM
 Aufenthalt (My Abode)..... Schubert
 Der Nussbaum (The Nut Tree)..... Schumann
 Schmerzen (Pain)..... Wagner
 The Hills of Grizia..... Mednikoff
 White Horses of the Sea..... Warren
 Miss Laird
 Concert Etude in F Minor..... Liszt
 Prelude in F Major (Suite Bergamasque)..... Debussy
 Poisson d'or (Goldfish)..... Debussy
 Prelude and Dance..... Creston
 Miss Nelson
 Le Serenata..... Tosti
 Gretchen at the Spinning Wheel..... Schubert
 In the Wondrous Month of May..... Schumann
 Symphony in Yellow..... Griffes
 Ou Va La Jeune Indoue "Lakme"..... Delibes
 Miss Heinz

Nebraska Art...

(Continued from Page 1.)

Allen, Emma M. Baegel, Jim Blackman, Kady B. Faulkner, Alta Fieselman, W. D. Frankforter, Robert W. Hansen, Janet Haugseth, Woodrow Hull, Mina Jorgenson, Dwight Kirsch, Nathan L. Mohler, Louise Mundy, Harold

N. Read, Barbara Rose, Dorothy S. Royal, Dick Schilling, Freda N. Spaulding, Paul W. Speier, Barbara Cavender Carmel, Ronald Warren Dickson, Alice R. Edmiston, Marian Hatten Ellis, John Kirsch, Miggie Kuhlmann, Clara W. Leland, Gladys M. Lux, Lloyd McFarling, Lois Messinger, Gertrude H. Mills, L. Studevant Mills, Bess Steele, M. Elizabeth Stewart, Murray Turnbull, Dora Von Bergens. Omaha artists are—Elizabeth Ferguson Averill, Mrs. Joseph Beran, Sr., Mrs. Harold Bergquist, Elmer C. Gruenig, Eugene Kingman, Nickie Nickerson, Mabel Drake Bradner, Flo Clifton, Agustus Dunbier, Virgil C. Jr. McMahill, Ruth Jensen Miller. Auburn—Myra Biggerstaff; Crete—Zadie Cory Booth, Eileen Shearer; Grand Island—Charles Paine, Elizabeth B. Meyer; Lexington—Phyllis Campbell, Winifred Seeber Stuart; Columbus—Marjorie Hatten Corn; Cook—Lynn Trank; Fairbury—Elizabeth Turnbull; Atkinson—Ora Whipple; Red Cloud—Lynn R. Wolfe; Cozad—Mrs. M. O. Worrell.

Classified

- LOST—Ladies Longine watch between Library and Union. Jeweled, small. Reward. Phone 2-7971.
- WANTED—Man to share furnished room in private home in south Lincoln. Excellent furnishings and bus service. Call 3-2548 after 8 p. m.
- LOST—Man's gold wedding band in or near Coliseum. Inscription N.M.N. to B.M.S. 11-12-44.
- WANTED—To buy or rent a 3rd edition of Steam, Air and Gas Power by Sevens and Degler. Robert Jessup, 1430 No. 26th.
- LOST—Green wrist watch between Boyden's and Earl Wood's. Reward. Sentimental value to name engraved on back. Charleen S. Miller.
- LOST—An AOPJ sorority pin. Initials J. L. on back. Reward. Call 3-7817.
- NICE large room for rent. One man preferred. 1221 No. 37th St. Phone 6-1035.
- LOST—Dark green Eversharp pen between Morrill Hall and South. Please return to Box 218, Raymond Hall.
- LOST—Blue Eversharp fountain pen on R street. If found call 2-6413.

Easterner's Club Schedules Dinner Meeting Tonight

Easterner's club will meet tonight at 6: p.m. for dinner in Parlor C of the Union, according to Art Cohen, chairman of the club.

Those who are not able to come to the dinner may come at 6:45 to participate in the discussion of business matters and future plans for the club, he stated.

Anyone interested in attending the dinner of meeting who has not been contacted should see Art Cohen personally or call 3-7130 today.

Veteran Students May Join Naval Reserve Group

All former navy men and veterans of other services may receive training and pay as members of the Naval Reserve Battalion of Lincoln, it has been announced.

Students interested in joining the battalion are asked to attend the next regular meeting at the State Guard Armory, 24th and O streets, Friday night at 7:30 or to contact Navy Recruiting office in the postoffice building.

The battalion, one of some 80 naval reserve units in the country, is commanded by Daniel Stubbs, Captain, USNR. Advancement in rating, longevity and a full day's pay for each weekly drill period are some of the advantages offered to those joining the Lincoln battalion.

weekly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 5 p. m., at Nebraska hall, room 205. Any information will be supplied by the Pershing Rifles officers present. In preparation for the Ball, the cadets drill at 4 p. m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays in addition to their workout at Wednesday's meeting.

Pershing Rifles...

(Continued from Page 1.)

are interested in joining the organization should attend the

Formal Banquet Will Climax Panhellenic Workshop Week

With a formal banquet for all sorority women in the Union ballroom tomorrow night, the Panhellenic Workshop which began Sunday will reach its climax.

The Workshop, part of the national Panhellenic program, was planned to provide personal guidance and instruction on current problems related to the college woman. The four-day program of the Workshop has included discussions and seminars for sorority women led by campus sorority presidents and national officers of Greek letter groups.

Seminars Today.

Two final seminars will be held tonight at 5 and 7 in Ellen Smith Hall. The first will be a round-table discussion on the subject, "Interfraternity Co-operation," led by Phyllis Teagarden, Eleanor Knoll and Joy Hill. The audience will participate in the discussion.

The meeting at 7 p.m. will be divided into two groups. Active sorority members will hear Miss Madeline Girard, Alpha Phi adviser, discuss "Developing a Chapter Program of Personal Development," assisted by Helen Schroeder, chairman of the meeting. Sorority pledges will hear Mrs. Ruth Schmelkin, Panhellenic adviser, talk on the subject, "Off on the Right Foot." Jane Little will act as chairman of the latter meeting.

Banquet Theme.

Theme for the climaxing formal banquet will be "The Greeks Have a Word for It," the subject of an after-dinner address by Mrs. James Moore, guest speaker and national treasurer of Kappa Alpha Theta. Miss Marjorie Johnston, dean of women, and Miss Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean of women, will be guests at the banquet. Anna Aasen, Panhellenic president, will act as toastmistress. Other guests will include Mrs. Myren Loomis, chairman of the Panhellenic advisory board; Mrs. Ruth Schmelkin, Panhellenic adviser; and Miss Madeline Girard, past Panhellenic board chairman.

On the committee for banquet arrangements are Anna Aasen, Mary Alice Cawood, Sally Payne, Shirley Jenkins, Betty Chipman and Jane Liecele.

Dr. Webster Will Address Nu-Med Society Tonight

Dr. Fred Webster, Lincoln orthopedist, will address the Nu-Med banquet meeting tonight at 6:15 in Union parlors XYZ, according to Publicity Chairman Bill Hancock.

Dr. Webster, who was a member of one of the famed "surgical teams" on the European front, will speak at the 7:15 meeting, which will be preceded by the 6:15 banquet. All pre-medical, pre-nursing and medical technology students are invited.

Union Schedules Second Contract Bridge Tourney

The second in a series of contract bridge tournaments will be sponsored by the Union Saturday, Nov. 9, Patricia Lahr, Union director, announced today.

The tournament will again be supervised by Dale Ball, Union bridge instructor. Teams desiring to enter must register at the Union office before noon Saturday.

Players will be seated according to their ability in an effort to equalize competition for beginners and advanced bridge players as well, Miss Lahr said. Four rounds, consisting of six hands each, will be played. Prizes will be awarded.

THE BLACK MARKET IN COLLEGE PLAYERS

There are shocking new facts in today's Saturday Evening Post about the subsidization of college football players. Gridiron authority Francis Wallace reveals the details of several recent cases—including the much publicized Shorty McWilliams affair—in which players were offered (or asked for) prices that run into five figures. Names are named and prices quoted in this outspoken article. In addition, Mr. Wallace proposes a practical, realistic method of checking the "wild excesses" which, he says, are threatening to ruin college football. Get your copy of The Saturday Evening Post at your newsstand today!

FOOTBALL'S BLACK MARKET by Francis Wallace

