

Ragged Edges

By Ellie Swanson.

I suppose all you fraternities who who aren't giving parties this weekend are beginning to be thankful as there are going to be so many parties that competition for dates is a little stiffer than usual.

The Sigma Chis seem to be getting the urge to hang their pins lately as three of the boys have taken the final step. Arlie Swanson surprised PiPhi sisters when she couldnt keep it a secret any longer and wore Bob Paterson's pin to lunch Monday. Another new Sig Chi sweetheart is Arlene Shanefelt who passed the candy making it official with Tom Downs.

Fraternity Parties

The Phi Delt party Friday night will take place at the Pike with Orrin Tucker for entertainment. Among those attending will be Jody Wolcott with Fred Schroeder, Donna Brugh and Doug Nelson and Jim Moore and Nancy Mines.

Running competition for the best party of Friday night will be the Beta Crud Party. Dick Welton will be with Nancy White and Don Duncan with Gracie Swanson. Most of the Betas are keeping their dates a secret, but Doug Peters revealed under pressure that her name might be Schmietz . . . it doesn't look French, but that's what he said.

An almost steady combination composed of Pat Warren and Al Casey have broken all dates except the Military Ball and Mortar Board, but they are very definitely still friends.

The Kappa Sigs will have a

Vets!

Any veteran who was unmarried when he applied for his G. I. educational benefits, and who has married since then, should apply immediately (if he has not already done so), for the subsistence allowance of $90 per month allowed to veterans with dependents. Since this increased subsistence is not retroactive to the date of marriage, but instead to the date of application for this increased subsistence, it is important that application be made at once. Application should be made at the Veterans Administration Office, in Room 615, Sharp Building, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Veteran's Consultation Board.

Barn dance in their traditional manner and a few to be present will be Norm Leger and Jeanne Kerrigan and Peggy Cowles with Bill Tyson. Stan Premier will be with pinmate Liz Stewart.

The Sig Alph Jag party which has finally ended up at Antelope Pavilion will find such notable couples as Norm Walt and Janie Fry. Susie Storz will be present with Lee Levan and Mary Alice Dosek with Herb Gish.

Four Kappas appeared Monday night with shining fraternity pins. Jo Fankhauser, Fran Edee, Helen Humel and Jo Gunzel passed candy . . . suckers and seeds . . . must have been borrowed as they are not longer there.
