Ragged Edges

By Tottie Fidlock.

No football game this weekend, so all the guys and gals are making big plans and devoting lots of time to the many parties being pulled off Friday and Saturday. The list of dates for the big Phi Delt party Friday at the Pike gets longer every day. Making a night of it will be Lois Wirth and Johnny Provost, Phee Mortlock and Harry Meginnis, Nancy Glynn and Buddy Lee, Shirts McKenna and fiance Bob Heinke, Betty Fesler and Dick Zirzen, Terry Lane and Eddie Donnegan, and Betty Hubka and Jack Meehan.

The latest scoop on Keith Manning is that he is now making a steady deal of it with two different girls. It's o.k., though, according to Keith, because the two duped females live in different sorority houses. Speaking of steadies, Alice Babst and Kenny Hasenbach are now making it a strictly "together" business. Another promising twosome is Pat Meyer and George Fagerburg.

Omaha Bound.

Jo Srb and Mae Munk will travel to Omaha this weekend to go to the Marine Ball at the Fontenelle with Rich Lang and Danny Koukol.

More dates for the Beta Crud Party Saturday are Gracie Smith and Orv Glass, Barb Hunter and Walt Loomis and Bev Sutton and Dick Levine.

Norm Locke seems to have acquired a mad passion for study, but only at the library and at certain hours. Rumor has it that it isn't the result of scholastic downs, either.

Jean Anderson will go home this weekend to Pawnee City and Chick Zimmerman, as a result, will probably be pretty lonely for a couple of days.

Saturday night at the Phi Psi Bowery Party Joanie Marcell will thrill Normie Williams with a devastating costume to be unveiled that night. The curious can hardly wait to see it.
