

Coll-Agri-Fun Revue Entries Deadline Today

Today is the deadline for entering skits and curtain acts in Coll-Agri-Fun, the annual Ag college follies. An outline of the skit or curtain act, accompanied by the names and telephone numbers of two persons qualified to represent the act, should be in Dean Burr's office by 5 p. m., today, according to Eleanor Johnson, assistant manager of the Coll-Agri-Fun Board.

Skits are limited to ten minutes and curtain acts to five minutes and will be judged largely on quality of performance and interest of action, rather than originality. The winning skit will be awarded the Coll-Agri-Fun trophy. Prizes will also be awarded to the winning curtain acts.

All Organizations.

Returning Nov. 23 for the first time since 1942, Coll-Agri-Fun gives all organizations of Ag college a chance to put on a bigger and better show, Miss Johnson said. Individuals who have any talent suitable for a curtain act are especially urged to enter.

Rules for eligibility for prizes are as follows:

1. Students or organizations of Ag college can enter a 5-minute curtain act and organizations can enter 10-minute skits.
2. Plans must be entered before 5 p. m., Nov. 7, in Dean Burr's office.
3. Skits and curtain acts will be presented privately in completed form to the Board on Nov. 20 at a time specified by the board.
4. Presentation will be on Nov. 23 at 8 p. m. in College Activities building.

Veteran's Organization Plans Thanksgiving Fete

A veterans' Thanksgiving dinner will be held in the Union XYZ room Saturday, Nov. 23, at 6:30 p. m., according to Richard Sinsel, public relations chairman.

Tickets may be purchased for one dollar at the Veterans' organization office, room 209, Nebraska Hall, or from Bill Thornton or Iona Sherman, social chairman. Program plans are being formed.

Grad Party

There will be a Grad party in the Union Faculty Lounge from 8 to 11 a. m. Friday. The party previously scheduled in the Ag Union will be held downtown Friday evening, according to party committee chairman Mary Rose Gram.
