Society Held Meeting Friday

Palladians held their weekly social meeting Friday night in their room in Temple, with the main event of the evening's festivities a game of football in which all members participated.

The game, which deviated from the more normal aspects of football, forced members to put their creative genius to work in preparing uniforms from various materials that were given to each

Cadet Capt. Bill Hammond, publicity chairman for the Ball, explained that the military department had relaxed the formal ruling for this year because so many former servicemen might not otherwise be able to go to the Ball. Hammond emphasized, however, that the ROTC had no intention of calling the Ball semiformal.

Nebraskan). Fresh on the heels of yesterday's tie with the Drake Bulldogs, Iowa State is already making plans for next Saturday's game with the University of Nebraska in Lincoln.

With a win and tie under their belts, the Cyclones will be ready to make a determined bid for third position in the Big Six conference race. The Cornhuskers will be the last foe for the Iowans this season, so the charges of Coach Mike Michalske will go all out for victory.

The present Iowa State record is two wins, five losses, and one tie, with the only victory in the conference, a 13 to 7 triumph over Kansas State. The other victory was over Iowa State Teachers and then yesterday's tie with the Bulldogs. On the other side of the column, the Cyclones have been nudged by Colorado, Northwestern, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. They have scored against every team except the Sooners.

Former Huskers.

Two other former Huskers figure prominently in the Cyclone line-up. Center Carter Kokjer and Tackle Dick Cole both earned freshmen letters at Nebraska in 1942 prior to being transferred to Iowa State by the navy. Cole was another All-Big Six performer in 1944 and has been bothered by a leg injury the past two weeks.

Other top performers for the Cyclones in next Saturday's game will be Dean Laun at end, Don Seibold at tackle and Fred Schneider at guard. Bill Chauncey, freshman halfback, who broke into the line-up against Kansas State, will also be a threat against the Cornhuskers with his rugged off-tackle

Defeats ATO Team

Delta Tau Delta defeated the ATO's 4 games to 1 in the university table tennis tournament Thursday. Jim Nevett, Jerry Dosek, Harry Breetzke and Jim Sharp were victorious for the Delts while Lee Phelps was the lone loser.

The Delta Tau Delta team will face Zeta Beta Tau this week in a semifinal match.

The all-university championship intramural football game between Phi Delta Theta and the Lilies is scheduled to be played Monday at 4:30 p. m. The game was originally scheduled for Thursday, but was postponed due to a muddy field.

This game may be just as interesting as the one between the Phi Delta and Delta Upsilon which wasn't decided until the last minute. However, the Phi Delts hold the advantage, having played stiffer competition and having superior reserve strength.

In the re-play of a protested game Friday night. Presbyterian Student House squeezed past the Vets' Organization, 2-0, having scored a safety on the second half kickoff. The Vets threatened sevnecessary scoring punch to register a touchdown. Fleet-footed Harold Volker was outstanding Presbyterian line outrushed the Vets to keep most of their opponents' plays well throttled.

Bowling and Basketball. With the end of football this week, attention in intramural sports is being turned to bowling, now in progress, and the beginning of league play in baskethall.

It is planned to have two distinct learnes in baskethall known as A and B leagues, Organizations with just one team will be entered in A league play, while those with more than one team, will enter extra teams in the B league.
