Kosmet Klub,
 University of Nebraska
 Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Kosmet Klub:

Realizing no personal antagonism toward your organization, we, the thirteen sororities and Towne Club of the University of Nebraska, agree as a body not to nominate any candidates for Nebraska Sweetheart.

The reason for our action is this: Until popular elections are conducted on a fair and equal basis, and until the strongarm group, faction, is dissolved, we feel that it is a discredit to our organizations to name candidates for honorary positions when we realize that elections as they now stand are dictated by the faction.

We wish to emphasize the fact that we definitely do not consider Kosmet Klub synonymous with faction. Our decision has been made in an effort to encourage fair campus elections and to abolish any controlling group.

We feel that until the basic principles of fair play and democracy are recognized in relation to these elections we will not nominate candidates to be voted upon through an all-campus ballot.

Sincerely,

Here is a suggestion for the university's planning and improvement committee (if there is such a committee).

Due to the acute shortage of parking space available for football games and any event or activity in the coliseum, as well as daily parking space, I suggest that the "mall" in the area of the stadium, coliseum and new military building be cemented over and used for a parking area.

The mall's present condition is very unsightly and if cementing is not practical, at least it could be landscaped decently.

Catholic Retreat.

Father Edward Weisenberg will present his last retreat sermon for Catholic students today. During the retreat he has given campus discussions on the Commandments, stressing modern indifference to the Commandments in present-day life. Another of his principal discussions was concerned with marriage.

He stated that it takes three to make a successful marriage: a man, a woman, and God, because marriage of its very nature is to propagate the human race, and to do that man and woman are insufficient. He stated also that in his opinion the old slow method of courtship is better than the modern "hurry-up" method, and that divorce records are a good reason for his preference.

Dr. T. Z. Koo will address engineers at 10:00 a. m. today.

The program for Wednesday and Thursday:

De Voto . . .

has been an important worker in the effort to make Americans turn from a fatuous aping of contemporary European literary trends to an understanding and appreciation of Americanism in literature.

Discuss Noted Americans.

In his lecture, Mr. DeVoto will discuss noted American writers and how well they have represented the American way of life.

Dr. T. M. Rayson of the English department, who knows DeVoto well, says, "DeVoto isn't a dull man, and I can recommend him as a speaker. He is a writer of distinction himself, and a journalist of high quality."

Written Four Novels.

His writings include four novels, a history of American expansion called "The Year of Decision: 1846," and three books about Mark Twain. Mr. DeVoto takes a special interest in Mark Twain, and he is literary custodian of the unpublished papers of Mark Twain. He has written "The Easy Chair" for Harper's since 1935.

Mr. DeVoto was born in Ogden, Utah, and took his degree from Harvard in 1920. He was instructor of English at Northwestern from 1922 to 1927, and later taught English at Harvard. He left teaching to concentrate on writing in 1936, declining an assistantship at Northwestern. He lives at Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Glover Elected Vice-President Of Co-op Group

Lloyd Glover of Pioneer Co-Op was elected vice-president of the Central League Campus Co-op organization at a conference of six universities held in Lincoln Nov. 8-10.

Bruce Flecher was elected alternate to the national convention to be held at the University of California next fall, and Chuck Shisenholt was named alternate vice-president.

Fifty-five delegates attended the conference representing the universities of Missouri, Arkansas, Nebraska, Kansas, Baker university in Baldwin, Kas., and the National Trade School for Christian Workers in Kansas City, Mo.

The two primary resolutions adopted by delegates were that a revolving building fund be established and that more educational aids be furnished local houses to develop better members.

Chancellor Names Two New Union Board Members

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson has appointed two new members to fill vacancies on the Student Union Board of managers, director Patricia Lahr announced today.

Prof. Linus Burr Smith, chairman of the department of architecture was named to serve the unexpired term of E. W. Lantz who has retired from the faculty, Alfred Cooper, sophomore in the college of Arts and Sciences, was appointed by the chancellor to fill the unexpired term of Robert Pfeifer who did not return to school.

Phi Chi Theta
 Because of Religious Emphasis Week, there will be no Phi Chi Theta meeting tonight. June Korb, president, stated that she had cancelled the meeting so that members could attend one of the seminar groups.

Dr. Lindstrom Stresses Rural Opportunities

"There are ample opportunities for Christian service in rural areas," Dr. David E. Lindstrom, professor of rural sociology at the University of Illinois, told Gamma Sigma Delta members at a luncheon Tuesday.

A member of the honorary agriculture fraternity himself, Dr. Lindstrom addressed the group in observation of Religious Emphasis Week. He emphasized the need for college-trained farmers and homemakers with deep Christian convictions.

The quality of people in rural and farm areas, the Illinois sociologist said, will determine not only how the land is to be used but also the quality of leadership furnished to urban life, since rural areas produce the human "surplus" needed to maintain the population of cities and towns.

Kosmet Klub
 All actives of the Kosmet Klub will meet in the Union tomorrow afternoon at 5, according to Secretary Jack Buffington.

Pi Lambda Theta
 The Pi Lambda Theta Cornhusker pictures will be taken Thursday, November 14, at 12:30 in the West Stadium. All members are asked to be present and on time.

Now It's My Turn

I'm tired of the army's Attempts to alarm me— So I'll go to their ball In my cords and all.

They're going to be "normal" And call it a formal, But the cut-rate lackeys Will appear in their kohokis.

So if I condescend, And really unbend To purchase admission Charge sedition!

THE COACH
other coaches envy

They envy his prestige...his popularity...his high pay...his ability to do more with less material than anyone else in football. He's Lou Little—and even though he has coached his reluctant Columbia Lions to more defeats than victories, he's one of the highest-paid and probably the most firmly entrenched football coach in the East. In today's Post sports authority Stanley Frank writes a fascinating article about Little's unique career.
