

Theatre Group Presents One-Act Plays Tonight

From the Experimental division of the University Theatre comes word of three one-act plays, to be given at 7 p. m. in room 201 Temple Building.

First on the program will be "Fumed Oak," by Noel Coward, from his collection entitled "Tonight at 8:30." This delightfully sophisticated comedy, directed by Rex Coslor, concerns a man who took punishment meekly from the women of his family for fifteen years, and finally rebelled. Mr. Henry Gow will be played by Jay Holmes; Mrs. Dopis Gow, Gertrude Page; Elsie Gow, Betty Schultz; and Mrs. Rackett, Lorene Novotny.

Second Production.

The second production will be "The Boor," by Anton Tchekoff. Its cast includes Annette Segal as Helena Papov, Don Hall as Grigori Smirnov, Robert Scott as Luka, and Dean Graunke as Valedico. It is the story of a widow who hates the man who lives her, challenges him to a duel, and then realizes that she is in love with him. Dean Graunke is the director.

"The Doctor in Spite of Himself," by Moliere, is the third and final drama of the evening. It is a typical Moliere farce based on impersonation of members of the medical profession, translated from the French and retaining its brilliance and farcical humor. The characters are Sganarelle, played by Bill Wiseman; Martine, Lorma Bullock; M. Robert, Harold Anderson; Valere, Leroy Goldblatt; Lucas, Donald Clifton; Jacqueline, Marilyn Strong; Lucinde, Eleanor Dent; Geronte, Bill Palmer; and Leandre, Harold Anderson. It is directed by Beverly Cummins.

These three one-act plays are produced and directed by students as a workshop project. Emphasis will be on acting and characterization. Many of the students taking parts are making their first appearance on a University Theatre Stage.

Braggiotti Plays Two Concertos

When Pianist Mario Braggiotti appears in concert with the university orchestra in the Union ballroom Sunday, he will feature two modern classics of interesting origin.

Highlight of Sunday's concert will be the presentation of George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" by Mr. Braggiotti and the orchestra. This famous work was conceived by the late Gershwin in 1924, almost as the result of an accident.

Surprise

A premature announcement by the New York Herald-Tribune informed the public and a very much surprised Gershwin that he had been commissioned to write a "jazz" composition of symphonic proportions for a Paul Whiteman concert. The rhapsody was hastily composed and completed in three weeks by Gershwin.

This composition proved to be the foundation for a new concept of American music entirely divorced from the earlier European influence.

Warsaw Concerto

In addition to Gershwin's classic, Mr. Braggiotti will play the "Warsaw Concerto" by Richard Addinsell. This composition, which has won continual favor from the time it appeared, has on origin that is little known. It was composed originally as theme, or background, music for a British movie "Suicide Squadron."

The Union-sponsored concert will also include a group of original musical caricatures by Mr. Braggiotti. The university orchestra, conducted by Emanuel Wishnow, will complete the program with "An Outdoor Overture" by Aaron Copeland and "Adagio for String Orchestra" by Samuel Barber.

Gamma Delta Will Meet in Temple Tonight at 7:15

Sigma chapter of Gamma Delta, the international association of Lutheran students will hold an important business meeting Thursday evening at 7:15 in the YMCA room of the Temple building.

Gamma Delta is sponsored by the Missouri Synod and affiliated synods. Ted Rosler is the president of the local chapter and Rev. T. Erk university pastor and chapter advisor, conducts the Bible classes.

The promotion of a song writing contest and the publication of a news sheet are among the important business matters to be discussed Thursday evening.

G.I. Payments Running High On U.S. Loans

According to an announcement from the Washington Veterans Administration public relations office, a total of 3,796 veterans have repaid G. I. loans in full since the beginning of the program.

These repaid loans were for houses, business purposes, and farming purposes, representing a VA commitment of $5,518,070, which is approximately 40 per cent of the amount borrowed by the veterans.

Loan Eligibility.

Veterans who served on active duty after September 15, 1940, and prior to the end of the war, are eligible for guaranteed loans provided they were honorably discharged after at least 90 days of service, or released for service-incurred disability following a lesser period of service.

VA loans are negotiated by the veteran with any private lender; the government guaranteeing 50 percent of the total amount up to a maximum guarantee of $4,000 for real estate loans and $2,000 on non-realty loans.

College of Agriculture Students Win Organizational Scholarships

A number of scholarships have been awarded to students in the College of Agriculture for the year 1946-1947. They are awarded by various organizations, and are given on the basis of the composite average grade of the student, the actual need for the scholarship as determined by the advisory board, and the activities in which the student participates while in college. In the event of freshmen, their high school record is examined.

Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben scholarships at $100 each have been awarded to Donell D. Sylvester, Oxford; Paul J. Vican, Minowi; Paul Fishback, Orleans; Roger Otto, Phillips; Jack Baird, Archer; Richard D. Sack, Plattsmouth; Donald Meaders, Phillips; Graydon D. Farmer, Burr; Merle Lipe, Waverly; George Diedrichsen, Scribner; Morris Jennison, Ponca; and Joe Fuhr, Spencer.

Coed Recipients

Girls are Lois Bamesberger, Hampton; LaRayne Steyer, Exeter; Margaret Sue Fishwood, Dawson; Vivian Frasier, Ceresco; Ruth Peters, West Point; Leatrice Pflueger, Wayne; Ruth Swanson, Minden; Priscilla Flagg, Lincoln; Nancy Bachkora, Shelton; Sally Hartz, Mitchell; Florence Arnold, Scotia; and Marjory Moravek, Hemingford.

Dr. Koo Addresses Convocation Tonite

Dr. T. Z. Koo, Chinese religious leader, will address the closing 'Religion in Life' week convocation in the Union ballroom at 7:30 p. m. tonight.

Dr. Koo gave the opening convocation address last Sunday night, and spoke at a special meeting for engineers yesterday morning. Since he came to the United States from Japanese-occupied China he has been on a speaking tour as a secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation.

The convocation tonight will include a worship service under the direction of Warren Thomas, chairman of worship of Religion in life week.

Week Closes.

Religion in Life week will officially close tomorrow with a breakfast and evaluation meeting at the YMCA at 7 a. m. for all leaders and committee members.

Other features of today's program are an address by Dr. Gabriel Nahas of France at a faculty luncheon in Parlors XYZ of the Union at noon; a campus leaders luncheon, with an address by Dr. John O. Nelson, director of the commission on the ministry of the Federal Council of Churches; and an interracial research group conducted by Dr. Harry Richardson of Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, at 12:15 p. m. in Room 313 of the Union.

Committees.

Committee chairmen for 'Religion in Life' week include: Phillips E. Moulton, national director; Dr. C. H. Patterson, general chairman; Mary Esther Dunkin, executive secretary; The Rev. Sam B. Maier, executive advisor; Alice Rife, recording secretary; Byrl Johnson, treasurer; Nat Neely, program chairman; Warren Thomas, worship and spiritual resources; Martha Clark, seminars; Mary Dye, classroom appointments; Beverly Sievers, organized houses; Cora Petteys, personal conferences; Wilbur Blum, pub-

See DR. KOO, page 2.

Sosh Majors Eligible to Join ASWS Group

Any student registered in the school of social work is eligible for membership in the Association of Social Work Students, according to Margaret Anderson, president of the organization.

Founded in September, 1938, the association has been in continuous existence since that time. One of its objectives is to unite students of the graduate school professionally, academically and socially. The association acts as a medium for the promotion of interests of the graduate school in academic and professional matters for students and faculty members.

Purposes.

Serving as a means of affiliation and co-operation with similar student groups of other colleges, the association strives to develop constructive and critical thinking, and foster leadership and responsibility on the part of its members, Miss Anderson said.

In addition to the monthly meetings held in Room 211 Sosh, the association holds conferences with outstanding individuals in the field of social work, and sponsors various social activities throughout the year. It also has a publication, The Face Sheet, which contains news of student affairs and social work activity.

Officers for the semester are: John Burns, vice president; Newton Winc, recording secretary; Henrietta Hans, corresponding secretary; and Robert Ross, treasurer.

French War Agent Talks On Activities

Speaking in French, Dr. Gabriel Nahas will talk on his experiences during the war with the underground in occupied France at 3 p. m. this afternoon in room 101 of Sosh.

Nahas, on the campus in connection with Religion in Life week holds six military decorations from the Allies and was the originator of an underground railway which aided British pilots to escape from France over the Spanish border.

The meeting, which is free of charge, is open to all French students and townspeople interested in the language. Nahas has already delivered addresses to various French classes on campus and the Romance Language department urges anyone interested to attend the Thursday meeting since it will be the only one open to the general public.

Robert Dobson Will Address ASCE Tonight

Mr. Robert Dobson, of the Dobson Brothers Construction Company, will speak on "The Trend in Costs of Post-War Construction Materials" before the local student branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers, tonight at 7:30 p. m., in the Union.

Mr. Dobson, a well-known Lincoln contractor, graduated from the University in 1931. He was an active member of the student branch of the ASCE while in school. He obtained an additional degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, after which he joined his father in the contracting business. Mr. Dobson has since incorporated with his brother, Adna, to form the Dobson Brothers' Construction Company.

Correction

Due to a typographical error in Tuesday's Nebraskan, the signature of Helen Schroeder, Delta Gamma president, was omitted from the letter addressed to Kosmet Klub.

Cornhusker Emphasizes Accuracy

Carelessness in filling out photographic section cards for the Cornhusker is causing many needless errors, Merrill Shutt Grant, yearbook editor, announced today. The Cornhusker will not assume responsibility for mistakes in the individual picture sections and the staff urges all students to take particular care with the spelling and accuracy of information.

Mrs. Grant added that unless students fill out the proper number of cards, if their picture is to be in more than one section, the picture cannot appear.

Adding to their pleas for accuracy, the Cornhusker is also requesting all students to be more prompt in returning picture proof to the photo studio. Unless this precaution is taken, retouching will not be possible and the appearance of the picture will be greatly impaired. Mrs. Grant emphasized the Cornhusker's desire to present a complete and comprehensive yearbook to the students.

The last home game rally has been set for Friday night at 7:00 p. m. at the Union, Art Beindorff, Yell King announced today. Students will be greeted with the sound of the Victory Bell along fraternity-sorority row, and will then proceed to the steps of the Union, Beindorff said.

The $300 Borden awards go to George Newhoff, Newman Grove, and Helen Wulf, Lincoln.

Robert LeRoy Pearson, Lyons, won the Coca Cola award, and Leo L. Bedke, Ravenna, won the First Trust Company of Lincoln scholarship, each worth $100.

The Charles Stuart scholarship of $300 was won by Dale P. Nahrstedt, Madison.

W.N.A.X. Winners

Donna Rae Gorham, Aurora and Robert D. Osler, Imperial won $300 W.N.A.X. scholarships. These are to be divided equally according to the number of semesters left for graduation.

Winners of the William J. Hynes, jr. $100 scholarships are: J. Willis Ervin, McCook; Earl Patterson, Omaha; Lloyd LaMoine Brownlee, Douglas; Carl Schmadeke, Lincoln; Raymond W. Starostka, Silver Creek; Neal E. Shafer, Hastings; Donald Warner, Waverly; Dale Landgren, Schickley; Waco Albert, Adams; Merla J. Brinegar, Alexandria; Weston W. Furrer, Lincoln; Raymond L. Arthaud, Cambridge; and Francis A. Switzer, Lincoln.

Sears Roebuck and Co. scholarships have been awarded to: Elaine Arenson, Lincoln, $100; Sharlyn Boyson, Madison, $200; Nora Kreinhop, Auburn, $200; Marilyn Wilkens, DeWitt, $100;

Marilyn Johnson, Lincoln, $100; Ruth Ann Rist, Humbolt, $100; Evelyn Sperling, Burwell, $200; and Jean Stoppkotte, Grand Island, $25.

Sears Scholarships Vary

The values of the Sears Roebuck and Co. scholarships vary because some of the winners have previously received Regents or Carl Raymond Gray scholarships.

The following are each for $100: Charles Athey, Tekamah; David K. Sanders, York; Mell M. Renard, Arlington; John H. Sautter, York; Donald E. Monson, Clay Center; Donald Robert Scott, Atkinson; Clyde E. Maddocks, Pawnee City; Robert L. Wagner, Hartington; John A. Gooding, Lincoln; Dale E. Stauffer, Page; Marilyn C. Low, Fremont; and Victor E. Larson, Arapahoe.

Two $500 fellowships were to be awarded to graduate students but due to the shortage of students through the war years, no one was available to receive them. One is the Charles Stuart fellowship, the other is awarded by Ak-Sar-Ben.

Any graduate student in the college of agriculture is eligible for these fellowships. They are awarded on the same basis as the under graduate scholarships and are awarded next year.