Kosmet Kaper Komment...

Kosmet Klub, in all its much-publicized glory, will burst forth tonight with what will probably be a good show. Fraternity men have been sweating out their acts for weeks. But as far as we're concerned, the real interest at the coliseum will be when all the lads and lassies scratch in their individual or collective choice for Nebraska Sweetheart.

The choice of a Nebraska Sweetheart, with all its fascinating complexities, has, we believe, proved to be a boon to the Kosmet brotherhood. We would be willing to wager no small sum that curiosity alone will draw an extra five hundred spectators just to find out who the lucky girl turns out to be.

It's really a shame that "A tempest in a teapot" came before our time. If there was ever a tempest at Nebraska that should have stayed in the pot, this Sweetheart routine is it. If there had been any more climbing out on limbs and burning of bridges done, the campus would need a complete landscape re-decoration.

With tomorrow morning, we expect, and hope, that the birds can once again twitter happily in the trees and the sorority girls can twitter just as happily with all their jewelry. Going even farther, we hope that the Kosmeteers will be able to twitter happily at the successful end of a successful revue. We hope Nebraska defeats Oklahoma tomorrow.

We hope a lot of things.

But most of all, we hope that everyone relaxes and shuts up—at least until spring elections. J. H.

Easterners' Club Holds Dinner-Meet

A dinner-meeting of the Easterners club, attended by 55 people, was held Wednesday night in the Union.

Bill Rundle, head of the constitution committee read the documents his group had prepared. The preamble of the constitution, which was unanimously accepted, reads:

"In order to form an organization through which all eastern students enrolled at the University of Nebraska may come to know each other; to resolve all economic problems of eastern students which arise by virtue of the fact that the student members are from eastern homes; and to provide an agency through which new students enrolled in the University of Nebraska from the east may become rapidly acquainted with said university, its rules, regulations, organizations, buildings, lands, and surroundings territories, the EASTERNERS' CLUB of the University of Nebraskais hereby established."

Transportation

In keeping with these aims, Bill Boyston, chairman of the transportation committee, presented Mr. Palm, a representative of the Burlington railroad, to outline possible transportation to the east over Christmas vacation. Plans for a special car to be sent all the way to New York were discussed and final action will be taken at a later date. However, all those people who were not present at this meeting but who would be interested in such transportation are requested to contact Art Cohen.

Candidates for the three offices that were created by the constitution, chairman, vice chairman and secretary, were nominated and will be voted on at the next meeting, which is to be held in the specified period of two weeks.

YW Coke Hour

Mrs. Ray Rice will discuss India at the YWCA coke hour, 4 to 5:30 this afternoon in Ellen Smith, according to Joanne Rapp, publicity chairman.

Sinsel Outlines Filing Methods For Candidates

Dick Sinsel, publicity director for the Veterans' Organization, announced today that all candidates for offices within the organization interested in having their names on the election ballot should file by mail addressed to 290 Nebraska Hall or by appearing at this office in person.

Filing will close Tuesday, November 26, at which time nominations will be made from the floor. Elections will be held two weeks from this date.

Offices

The positions open are: President, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. In addition to these there are the representative chairmanship positions: Public Relations, Social, Membership, Housing, Athletic, and Ag Representative. All elected chairmen have a voting seat on the Executive Council of the organization.

In addition to the positions mentioned above, there is to be elected one representative to the Lancaster County Veteran Service Center Council.

Moyer Orchestra Is Union Feature Over Week-end

Jean Moyer's band is featured at the Union orchestra dance tonight from 9 p. m. to midnight. Union director Pat Lahr announced today.

The faculty dancing club will use the ballroom Saturday night, while Sunday activities will include a showing of the Alfred Hitchcock vehicle, "Lifeboat," starring John Hodiak, Tallulah Bankhead, William Bendix and Canada Lee. The movie, scheduled at 3 o'clock, is based on a Steinbeck novel.

The traditional Sunday afternoon coffee hour, from 5 to 6 p. m., will be followed by a buffet supper in the main dining room, from 5:30 to 7:00. Bonnie Compton will play the piano at the supper.

which has been arranged by Mr. Shaw.

After rehearsing with the select orchestra group just five times, Dr. N. DeRubertis will conduct six numbers including compositions by French, Russian, Italian and German composers, Saint-Saens' "Symphony No. 1," from which the orchestra will play one movement, has been transcribed for band by Dr. DeRubertis. Gliere's "Russian Sailors' Dance" and Bach's "Little Fugue in G Minor" are among the selections.

Marches.

Closing the program with a group of marches and overtures, the 150-piece band will play under the direction of Lt. Col. Harold Bachman, now with the special services section of the Fifth army and former band director at the University of Chicago. Featured among the listed numbers are Sousa's "Gladiator" March, a prelude-and-chorus from Boito's opera "Mefistofele," and the "Minerva" Overture by Dr. DeRubertis.

Tickets for the coliseum concert which is open to university students and the general public will be on sale at the coliseum box office for 50 cents. Sinfonia fraternity members will usher and direct ticket sales. The complete program:

spirit" of the gold rush days, the play unfolds a story of romance in the pure-as-the-driven-snow life of The Girl, proprietress of the Polka saloon and beloved by every rough but tender-hearted miner on Cloudy Mountain, who meets a stranger on the Sacramento coach, falls in love with him, meets him for a second time in the Polka, and invites him to her cabin.

Spirit of '49.

Within this setting, production heads are striving to instill the true spirit of the '49s. Obtaining Western pistols, miner's boots, and beaver hats is the problem of Virginia Buckingham, head of properties, and Gertrude Cloit, head of costumes. The sounds of howling winds, snow storms, and fast action gun play are a few of the special effects to be handled by Dorothy Duxbury. Walter Davis is in charge of the intricate lighting effects.

Dick Espergren and his stage crew have the task of changing the sets between acts, and Eleanor Detweiler and her assistants have the job of making up two Indians and a Mexican as well as the other cast members.

Blanche Duckworth and Barbara Berggren are the assistant directors.

Ragged Edges

In anticipation of the coming holidays, the campus is planning one last week-end so they can go home with just cause to rest.

The biggest activity to take place Friday night is the Kosmet Klub show, which promises to be well worth-while. Joyce Johnson will take it in with the boy from home, Kent Luzinger, with whom she has been seen quite often.

The D. U.'s are planning a party at Hillcrest Saturday night, and Skip Stahl will escort Terry Lane while brother Bill Moomey will attend with Shirley Eskilsen. Buck Barger and Will Winke will import sisters Pat and Jean McCullough from Omaha for the occasion. No name bands, no big dances or special entertainment is planned for this week-end.

Bob Gillan and several Fremonters will journey to the home town for the day to watch the local football game.

Hard Time.

Bob Chaneyfeldt has been having quite a hard time lately. It seems as though his pin has been missing for quite some time which leads people to believe that it might be in the possession of Lou Rowley. His brothers wonder what the girl whose picture he has in his room would think of this... and she's a model, too. A new angle and unusual date is the plan of "Rev." J. R. Eastner and "Digger" O'Dell to double date to church Sunday.

Everyone is looking forward to a glorious Thanksgiving, particularly Betty Stanton who will journey to Topeka to be with pin-mate, Charles Searle. Babs Stenger is anticipating Christmas vacation already. She will go to South Dakota to visit at the home of Ken Damon, and then he will return with her to visit on her ranch. It's plans like these that make the school weeks drag.

The Crib has been the destination of Amy Jo Bergh and Norm Wait quite frequently of late and sister Tish Gardiner has been enjoying many cokes with Milton Mack.

Schultz Describes Rhinoceros Fino To Omaha Group

Unearthing of the largest rhinoceros ever to be found in America was described by Dr. C. B. Schultz, director of the university museum, at the Omaha Optimists club Wednesday noon.

Speaking on "A Rhinoceros Hunt in Nebraska," Dr. Schultz showed colored moving pictures of the university museum expedition of 1946 which discovered the giant rhinoceros near Harrisburg, Nebraska, in Banner county, last summer.

Roberts Ends Faculty Music Series Sunday

Closing this season's faculty recital series, Prof. Myron Roberts will be heard in a program of classic and modern organ music Sunday at First-Plymouth Congregational church. Assisting him will be tenor Marvin Wadley, whose accompanist is Miss Mary Berner.

Besides a Bach prelude and a short-Haydn suite descriptive of musical clocks, Mr. Roberts has programmed a group of four contemporaries including his own original composition, "Two Impressions." His final selection is a prelude and fugue by the French organist Marcel Dupre who appeared in recital here the first of this month.

Mr. Wadley's numbers include an aria from Haydn's oratorio, "The Creation," and three German songs by Brahms, Schubert and Franz.

Branch, Daly Leave for West Coast Meetings

Perry Branch, secretary-director of the University Foundation, and Fritz Daly, secretary of the Nebraska Alumni Association, left Lincoln Wednesday night for the west coast, where they will arrange alumni gatherings for the Nov. 30 Nebraska-UCLA game at Los Angeles.

Branch and Daly are slated to meet with alumni Saturday night, Nov. 23, at Seattle, at Portland Monday night, and a Wednesday evening conclave in San Francisco.

Alumni Celebration

Alumni celebrations will be climaxed at the Cornhusker pregame party at Earl Carroll's theater-restaurant, for which over 1,200 alumni have made reservations.

Denver alumni will meet the entire Nebraska party, football squad, coaches and officials, at a luncheon Dec. 3 en route home.
