

Campus Church Groups Plan Services, Parties for Weekend

Campus church groups have planned regular meetings, discussions, and parties as activities for this weekend.

Baptist students will hold a scavenger hunt tonight at 7:45, meeting at the Student Center for instructions. Mr. and Mrs. Duane Wilnot are in charge of the party. Bob Sorenson will conduct the regular Sunday evening fellowship for Baptist students in a Thanksgiving program. A lunch will be served at 5:30 p. m., followed by a short worship service. Members of the cabinet will meet at 4:30 p. m. to make plans for next month's activities. Ed Jordea will be in charge.

Sunday morning services at the University Episcopal church will be held at 8:30 and 11 o'clock.

Kosmet . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

said, "And my woman ain't no sorority gal neither."

Johnny Cox and his orchestra will begin playing at 7:45. Master of Ceremonies Romulo Soldevilla, university speech instructor, will introduce the skits and tie them together with a university newspaper theme.

Skitmasters.

Titles and skitmasters of the organizations' skits are: "Coon Court," Ken Damon, Alpha Tau Omega; "Showcase in Music," John Adams, Sigma Phi Epsilon; "Slick Tight Saturday Night," Dede Meyer, Phi Delta Theta; "Homecoming," Bill Ballew, Delta Tau Delta; "Sigma Nu Supper Club," Bill Lucas, Sigma Nu; "Home Sweet Home," Roy Snyder, Delta Upsilon; "She Was Only a Prairie Flower, But She Got Nipped in the Bud," Marvin Cavender, Phi Gamma Delta; and "SIGNatures in Music," Al Cline, Sigma Chi.

Phince Kosmet candidates and their affiliations are: Roland Hermann, Cornhusker Co-op; Roland Johnson, Phi Gamma Delta; Norm Leger, Kappa Sigma; Bob Martens, Alpha Tau Omega; Jim Pettis, Delta Upsilon and Gerald Wilson, Sigma Nu.

Fun Nite . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

annual show which made its first appearance in 1927.

The judges as selected by the board are: Miss Evelyn Metzger, associate professor of home economics in design; Mr. William Morgan, instructor in speech and radio; and Dr. L. B. Snyder, associate professor of rural economics.

A plaque will be awarded to the winning skit as chosen, and a $5 purse award will be made to the winning curtain act. The plaque will be in possession of the winner for the following year, during which time it will be engraved with the winning organization's name. It must be won three times by the same organization to become permanent property.

Jean Moyer's Orchestra
9 p. m. to Midnight
Friday, Nov. 22
44c per person
Union Ballroom

Confirmation class instructions will be given Tuesday at 7 p. m. Holy Communion Thursday will be at 10 a. m.

CYF Meeting

The University and Business CYF of the First Christian church will have a meeting at 5 p. m. Sunday, featuring the film, "Pilgrimage," which depicts the religious life of the Hindu people. Following the movie, Rambaran Ramdin, Hindu student at the university, will give an address. A period devoted to questions and discussions will be held after the address. At 6 p. m. a snack and fellowship hour will be held.

The Newman Club Mass will be said for Catholic students in Parlors XYZ of the Union at 11 a. m. Sunday by Msgr. George Schuster. A trip to Boys Town on December 7 has been planned for Newman Club members. Those who wish to go should register at the Newman Club office in the Temple building immediately. The discussion group meeting will be held at 7:15 p. m. Tuesday in Room 315 of the Union. Choir practice will follow the discussion. Members of the Newman Club invite all university students to attend the CYO semi-formal at the Cornhusker Hotel at 8 p. m. Saturday.

Fireside Forum

A Sunday Evening Fireside Forum will be held at the Presbyterian Student House at 5 p. m. The program will include student-led worship service and panel dis-

Anthology to Publish Poem By Wittenberg

A poem written by Mark Wittenberg has been accepted for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry, the Daily Nebraskan learned in a letter from Dennis Hartman, secretary of the National Poetry Association.

"Battle," by Wittenberg, was selected from among thousands of poems submitted by college students throughout the country.

"The Anthology is a compilation of the finest poetry written by college men and women of America," the letter read. "We heartily congratulate Mr. Wittenberg on this honor."

The Annual Anthology of College Poetry is published at Los Angeles.

ussion on "What Does Thanksgiving Involve?" Students participating are Joyce Marshall, Jim Ida, Lynn Parker, and Aubrey Petit. Lee Myhre will sing "The Lord's Prayer," as part of the worship service. Supper, singing and recreation will be the basis for fellowship during the remainder of the evening. Tonight at 8 p. m. Presbyterian students are invited to a Thanksgiving party at the house. Ed Steele, recreation co-chairman, will be in charge of arrangements. In charge of decorations are Virginia Pierce, Jim Ida, Lachlan Ohman, Joe Ishikawa and Charles Swan.

Federalist . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

ately. Since that time, he has spoken to many youth groups in the East. He is now on a tour of the western states and visiting Student Federalist chapters on the various college campuses.

Scheduled to speak twice in Omaha this Sunday, Prentice will arrive in Lincoln Tuesday for talks at Northeast High School at 8:50 a. m., at Nebraska Wesleyan at 2:00 p. m. and at the university at 4:00. Vet's views, the university veterans' radio program will feature Prentice over KFAB at 7:30. A re-broadcast over KFOR will be given of a forum of university students and Prentice Tuesday afternoon. Winding up his Lincoln activities, the Federalist president will speak at Lincoln high school and Union College Wednesday morning.

Now It's My Turn!

I would gladly trade my fangs
For just one girl who's not in bangs—
But the thing that really makes me
swear
Is girls with skunk-locks in their hair!

The lucky Alpha Xi Deltas and their dates have won the drawing and will be the guests of the Turnpike tonight.

Just present your Identification Card at the door

Each Friday night Turnpike has a dance scheduled. Some fraternity, sorority, Barb house, or some other university organization will be guests of your favorite dance spot.

TONITE AND TOMORROW NITE IT'S

MUSIC WITH A SMILE

GEORGE WINSLOW

AND HIS BAND

FEATURING JACK WILLIAMS AND LOVELY RITA JEAN CARSON

TURNPIKE

WHERE DANCING IS A PLEASURE

for the Ball and holiday festivities!

FORMALS—19.95 TO $50

FASHION FLOOR—SECOND

MILLER & PAINE