

Ball Scheduled for Tonight

Grand March Opens Dance

Scheduled to begin at 8:30 tonight in the coliseum, the long-awaited 1946 Military Ball will herald the opening of the winter formal season on campus.

Traditionally a colorful spectacle and outstanding social affair, this year's ball has been named "the best in history" by Cadet Lt. Col. Bill Hammond, ROTC publicity chairman.

Journalism Honorary Organized

Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalistic fraternity, will be reactivated Friday, December 13, with initiation of approximately 20 undergraduates who are journalism majors, by fraternity members on campus or in town.

Prof. K. R. Marvin of Iowa State college, national vice president in charge of undergraduate affairs, will assist with initiation of the Nebraska chapter, suspended since 1941. Initiation will be followed by a dinner and a business meeting at which officers will be elected and a program for the rest of the school year put into operation.

In charge of details of reactivation is Prof. Charles T. Duncan of the school of journalism faculty. Dr. William F. Swindler, director of the school, recently attended the fraternity's national convention in Chicago and completed formalities for replacing the Nebraska group on the national office's list.

Opening with the grand march at 8:30 and a short review by the crack Pershing Rifles drill team, the honorary colonel will be presented at 8:45 by Bob Gillan, master of ceremonies for the proceedings. After the presentation, the battalion cadet colonel and the honorary colonel will have the first dance. Cadet Captain Dallas Cotton, officer in charge of the presentation, has announced that the company sponsors and the company officers will also take part in the first dance.

Company sponsors are Pat Bussey, Jane Frey, LaWanna Graham, Ruth Sargent, Elaine Budler and Jean Fogel. Each coed was chosen by the various company cadet officers and will be presented with a regimental hat during the evening. Cotton said that the honorary colonel will be presented with a complete uniform.

Perfect Detail.

Making every effort to plan a military ball that is perfect in detail, the army department has worked out a system for parking which should insure a minimum of effort on the part of couples driving to the dance. A

See BALL, Page 2

CHUCK FOSTER.

Second Semester Registration Dates Published by Registrar

The following procedure and dates for second semester registration have been announced by G. W. Rosenloff, registrar.

1. DATES:

- A. December 9 to 21, for sophomores, juniors, seniors.
- B. January 6 to 18 for students in junior division.

2. Each student must make an appointment for registration with his advisor. Schedules for appointments are conveniently posted in the offices or at the entrance to the offices of the advisors. Each student should write his name on the schedule in a free space and report to his advisor at that time.

3. Registrations are to be made out in quadruplicate.

4. Registrations must be carefully checked for time conflicts. It is requested that the daily program blank be used for this purpose.

5. When the registration forms have been completed, the advisor will retain one copy. The remaining three copies are to be taken by the student to the dean of the See REGISTRATION, Page 4

Psychotherapy Lectures Given By Dr. R. Stein

At the monthly Nu-Med meeting Wednesday night, Dr. Robert J. Stein spoke on psychiatric aspects of medicine, stressing fundamental concepts of mental illness. He reviewed the recent history of psychotherapy and particularly the insulin shock treatment of schizophrenia.

Dr. Stein also treated subjects of chemotherapy in bacterial infections of the nervous system, and electric shock treatment. He

See STEIN, Page 2

FAULTY BASKETBALL SEATS.

Reserved seats for faculty members at basketball games are located in the west balcony of the coliseum. Members of the faculty should use Ramp 13 to get to their seats.

Ben Kuroki Relates War Experiences

Speaking on the subject, "The Unfinished Fight for Democracy" at yesterday's convocation, Ben Kuroki, "The Boy From Nebraska" who is carrying on an individual fight for democracy, related his experiences in the armed forces, and told of the racial discriminations he was subjected to because of his Japanese ancestry.

Born and raised in Hershey, Nebraska, Kuroki enlisted in the army the day after the Pearl Harbor attack. In recruit training, he first encountered prejudices held toward Americans of Japanese descent, and to prove his loyalty he joined the army air forces, was sent to Europe, and made B-29 raids over Germany.

Schoolhouse.

Speaking of the B-29 as a "schoolhouse in the air," Kuroki described the true democratic comradeship of an "All-American" crew that included men of Jewish, Polish, German and Indian descent. "Here I learned the real meaning of equality and brotherhood," Kuroki said.

Upon his return to Nebraska after his European tour of duty, Kuroki was pleased to find that the University of Nebraska was one of the few schools to admit

See KUROKI, Page 2

Campus Church Groups Plan Weekend Religious Activities

Campus church groups have regular services scheduled for this week end.

Lutheran students will meet for regular worship services at 10:45 Sunday morning in Room 315 of the Union. The Rev. H. Erck, university Lutheran pastor, will conduct the worship, and he will base his sermon on the topic, "The First Gospel." Lamert Burmester will accompany the hymns, and Myra Hauge will be soloist.

Msgr. George Schuster will say mass at 11 a. m. Sunday in Parlors XYZ of the Union for all Catholic students. The Newman club will sponsor an orchestra dance in the Union ballroom Dec. 14, from 9 to 12. Admission will be 25 cents per person.

Bible Sunday.

Universal Bible Sunday will be observed at Emmanuel Methodist church this Sunday. Seventy girls, members of Kappa Phi, Methodist sorority on the campus, will present a public reading of the entire New Testament, beginning at 6 a. m., and ending at 9 p. m. Reading, to be begun by Beverly Johnston, will be from the new Revised Standard Version. A breakfast will be served at the church from 7 to 9 a. m. for those who are on the early reading periods and all others who wish to attend the early reading. A light lunch will be served in the evening between 6 and 7 p. m. An exhibit of Bible pictures from the American Bible Society, many old and interesting Bibles, and New Testaments will be on display. Special decorations will be used to carry out the ideas and symbols of World-Wide Bible Sunday, and the Christmas season.

Cornhusker Pictures

Student pictures in the Cornhusker must be taken only at Rinehardt-Marsden studios in Gold's in order to be printed in the yearbook, according to Merrill Grant, editor.

Don Stanton will lead the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

See CHURCHES, Page 4

Engineers Convo Features Speech By John Cramer

John Cramer, of Fulton and Cramer, consulting engineers, will speak on "Progress and Development of Present-Day Airplane Structure" at an engineers' convocation in the Union ballroom at 7:30 Tuesday evening.

Cramer, who obtained his degree in civil engineering from Nebraska in 1940, was fuselage design engineer with Lockheed Aircraft on the west coast during the war where he worked with plastics from 1944 until the spring of 1945.

In July, 1945, he returned to Lincoln and joined Fulton and Cramer shortly afterward.

Sponsored by the Engineers Executive board, the convocation is open to engineers and their wives.

STUDENT BASKETBALL SEATS

Student activity season tickets admit holders to all basketball games during the 1946-47 season, but do not reserve seats in the coliseum.

Students may sit any place in the coliseum at the games except in the faculty section, which is in the west balcony, and the reserved seat section, which is in the east balcony. Ramps 3 and 13 to the balcony are therefore closed to students.