

Orchesis Clubs Offer Dance Festival Tonite

Tonight members of Orchesis and Pre-Orchesis groups, honorary modern dance clubs, will present their annual Christmas dance festival at 7:30 in Grant Memorial Hall.

The program, which consists of four parts, is under the direction of Dr. Aileen Lockhart and Mrs. Monty Geissinger.

To open the program, Orchesis members will perform to Mendelssohn's "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" and "Deck the Halls." This will be followed by a dance "Jingle Bells" by the Pre-Orchesis group. "We Three Kings" and "O Holy Night" will be the two final numbers of the first section of the presentation.

Intramural Winners.

Winners of the WAA sponsored dance intramurals, held for the first time this year, will give their dances in the following order: "Night Before Christmas," "Alpha Omicron Pi," "Silent Night," "Chi Omega," and "A Toy Fantasy," Kappa Alpha Theta, who placed first in the contest.

Selections from "The Nutcracker Suite" will be included in the third section. They are "Dance of the Flowers," "The Sugar Plum Fairy" and "Trepak." The featured dance, "The Juggler of Notre Dame," by Ochsner, will be

Debaters Rate Tie for First At Iowa State

Two University debate teams made good showings at the Iowa university discussion and debate conference at Ames December 6 and 7, debate coach Donald Olson reported yesterday.

In competition with universities and colleges in the midwest, the Nebraska debaters tied for first honors on the basis of wins and losses with Kansas, Iowa, Northwestern, Wisconsin State Teachers and Oklahoma.

A tie with Northwestern is considered good in debate circles, Olson indicated.

5 Rate High.

Five Nebraska debaters carried off individual superior ratings: Don Kline in debate; Kline, Ted Sorenson and Albert Johnston in discussion; and extemporaneous speaking. Ted Sorenson won one out of the four superior ratings awarded.

Affirmative teams of Don Kline and Ted Sorenson, teachers college senior from Beatrice and arts and sciences sophomore from Lincoln, won three debates, and dropped only one, to Iowa.

Nebraska's negative team, Rodney Lindwall, Omaha engineering freshman, and Richard Schuessler, engineering sophomore from Oxford, defeated Coe college and the universities of Minnesota and Wisconsin, and lost to Wheaton, Illinois College.

Awgwan

Anyone now contributing or interested in contributing art work to the AWGWAN should drop by the Awgwan office Friday afternoon, December 13, according to Editor Walt Simon.

in the final quarter of the festival. The "Recessional" will be given by the Orchesis club.

Production Staff.

Miss Jane Mott is in charge of costuming, and Mrs. H. H. Flood will be the accompanist. Lighting and staging is under the direction of Shirley Bacon, Delores Blackstone, Lois Cooper, Phyllis Freed, Adele Mulliken, Mary Jean Mulvaney, Jo Ann Rapp and Beverly Secord. Other members of the production staff are Elizabeth Lamb, program cover; the WAA council will serve as ushers and members of Orchesis are in charge of choreography.

Group Personnel.

Members of the Orchesis group are: Anna Aasen, Amy Jo Bergh, Marilyn Davis, Marilyn Duffack, Marian Falloon, Irma Lou Fisher, Jo Grasmick, Nancy Howey, Elizabeth Lamb, Jean Leinberger, Dorothy Meshier, Pat Meier, Jo Moss, Doris Olson, Winifred Peterson, Myrtis Rider, Marian Splichal, Billie Steelman, Marge Sturm, Pat Toof, Donnie Wagner, Jeanne Woodworth and Jo Votava.

The Pre-Orchesis group includes Selma Bernstein, Kathryn Copple, Arlene Fischer, Lois Fritz, Kathryn Geist, Phyllis Hoke, Ruth Alice Johnson, Shirley Klingel, Jo Kramer, Joan Landwerkamp, Donna Marsh, Velma Miller, Barbara Mohler, Margaretta O'Connell, Virginia Pester, Norma Jean Peterson, Darlene Pothast, Carolyn Prokop, Helen Rodin, Jean Shafenberg, Eldonna Swan and Marian Wolf.

Zionists Form New Chapter On UN Campus

The Intercollegiate Zionist Federation of America, an organization to promote the establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine, formed a chapter on the University of Nebraska campus last Friday.

IZFA was first conceived at a convention in Chicago in December, 1945, when a need was felt for a Zionist organization in the American colleges. There are 70 chapters of IZFA throughout the country at the present time, under the sponsorship of the American Zionist Youth Commission.

Raymond Susman, a resident of Palestine, was in Lincoln to help organize the new chapter.

Bernie Paperny is the temporary president.

A meeting will be held Thursday, Dec. 12, at 7:00 in Room 316 of the Student Union. All those interested are invited to attend.

Second Semester Advanced ROTC Courses Closed

New enrollments for the second semester advanced R. O. T. C. course at the university will not be accepted. Capt. James B. Kelly announced Wednesday.

Only students currently taking advanced R. O. T. C. training or those who completed one semester of the advanced course last spring will be permitted to enroll, according to Capt. Kelly.

'Girl of Golden West' Opens at 8, Tonight

"Girl of The Golden West," the second University Theater production of the season, will open tonight at 8 p. m. in the Temple Theater for a four night run with a Saturday matinee at 2 p. m.

Set in the days of the '49 gold rush, David Belasco's play unfolds the story of The Girl, proprietress of a saloon in a mining town, who rejects the love of the local miners and a persistent sheriff, but meets a dashing stranger who kindles a flame in her supposedly impervious heart. The local sheriff is embittered by the stranger's attraction to The Girl, and the climax of the play resolves the conflict between them.

Ann Proper Plays Lead.

Ann Proper will play the part of The Girl. Taking the role of Dick Johnson, the attractive stranger, is Dave Andrews. Bill Reese is cast as Jack Rance, the sheriff. The rest of the cast is comprised of a colorful variety of miners and two Indians who inhabit Cloudy Ridge, the mining town.

Under the supervision of Dallas Williams, the play has as its student director, Henry Lee. Max Whittaker is the technical director, and Rex Coslor is the student technical director.

University Theater patrons are reminded that the curtain goes up promptly at 8 p. m., and no one will be seated after that time until the end of the first act. Reservations for the performances may be made at the box office in the Temple Building during the remainder of the week.

Veterans Cast Votes Today For Officers

Veterans will go to the polls today at 7:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom to elect new officers for the coming year.

Candidates are: President, Bob McNannay and Carl Booton; vice president, Duncan Fraser and Erwin Hatfield; secretary, Ula Mae Schall and Helen Rulla; treasurer, Harry Fike and Bill Brown; housing committee chairman, Arch Johnston and Jerry Mulraney; athletic committee chairman, Robert T. Johnson and Raphael E. Sodergren; social committee chairman Betty Larsen, Marjorie L. Dewey, Kay Kelly and Bill Thornton; public relations secretary, Harvey J. Podoll; Ag representative, Joe Pappas, Velma Bernholz and George Schmid.

The new officers will assume their positions soon after the first of the year and will make up the executive council which directs the policies of the organization.

Grad Students Plan Outline Of New Club

Graduate students of the university will meet Thursday night at 7:30, in the Faculty Lounge of the Union, to organize a Graduate Club on the campus.

The purpose of the meeting Thursday is to plan activities which will interest all graduate students. Bill Gaines of the history department will lead an open discussion, and a temporary executive committee will be selected, representatives of the various graduate departments.

Coffee and cake will be served, and the wives and husbands of married graduates are invited to attend the meeting.

Notice To Vets

The following notice appeared in the Nov. 30 issue of Army Times:

"Income Tax Deadline: Any veteran who paid federal income taxes for either 1941 or 1942 . . . and who thinks he has a claim for refund because of overpayment . . . (no enlisted man was required to pay any Federal income tax on his service pay after Jan. 1, 1941) . . . should hurry and get his claim into the hands of the government. The deadline for such claims is Jan. 1, 1947 . . . claim should be filed with the Office of the Collector of Internal Revenue in the district where the income tax return was filed."

Further information can be obtained at the Office of the Collection of Internal Revenue, 243 Post Office Building, Lincoln, Nebraska.

J. P. Colbert, Director
Veterans Consultation Board

Carmer Traces American Lore At Union Convo

Tracing the growth of American folklore, Carl Carmer, author of "Listen for a Lonesome Drum" and "Stars Fell on Alabama," spoke at yesterday's convocation on the subject of "Cavalcade of American Legend."

Co-editor of "River of America" series, Carmer stated that only recently have we discovered the folklore of America. Pointing out that much of our folklore has a European heritage, he stated, "If a folk 'adopt' a folklore they also 'adapt' it, and it becomes uniquely theirs. The folklore that has come to us we have made peculiarly our own."

Folklore Not Apparent.

Explaining why American folklore is not apparent to the people of the nation as it once was, he said, "Civilization has stultified imaginers. In the early days, people

See CARMER, page 4.

Dr. J. Nelson Will Address Convocation

"Why Education for Marriage and Parenthood?" will be Dr. Janet Fowler Nelson's topic when she addresses an all-university convocation at 7 p. m. Thursday in the Union ballroom.

Dr. Nelson, New York marital relations counselor and graduate of Vassar college, received her PhD degree in psychology from Columbia university. She is a former member of the teaching staff of New York university and the Child Development Institute, New York.

In 1940 she became consultant on personal and family relationships of the US division of the National Board of YWCA. She is also the author of "Marriages Are Not Made in Heaven," and editor and co-author of "Boy Meets Girl in Wartime."

She is a member of the advisory board of the Association for Family Living, and is a member of the American Association of Marriage Counselors, the National Education Committee of the American Social Hygiene Association, Dr. Cannon's Medical Advisory Committee (Mass.), and is chairman of the youth committee of the National Conference on Family Relations.

Chancellor Will Speak to Crippled Children Society

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson of the University of Nebraska will be guest speaker Tuesday evening at the silver anniversary banquet of the National Society for Crippled Children in Chicago. He will discuss the uses of atomic energy for peace with emphasis upon medical uses.

About 350 people, representing educational, medical, social services and business groups from all over the nation, are expected to attend the banquet at the Palmer House.

University Theatre Presents

Opening Tonight

Four Days Only

The Girl Of The Golden West

Evenings 8 P. M. Dec. 11, 12, 13, 14

Matinee December 14—2 P. M.

General Admission 60c

Reserve Seats 75c

Box Office Hrs. 12:30-6 P. M. Daily Dec. 9 Thru Dec. 14