Iowa State	0	3	142	165

Twice beaten in the Kansas City pre-season tournament, the University of Nebraska basketball team will attempt to preserve its record of not having been beaten on the coliseum court this season against an intersectional rival tonight.

The touring St. Mary's Gaels of Moraga, Calif., will furnish the opposition tonight for the Nebraska squad which now has a record of four wins and two defeats.

Coach Harry Good's squad played a good floor game in every appearance at the Kaycee meet, but the Huskers' basket eyes were not up to par.

Long Don McArthur, six foot five inch cager, took over the scoring lead on the Nebraska team as he paced UN scorers in two games.

Faculty Members Invited to Join New Bowling Loop

The intramural department has planned a unique bowling league, to be composed of faculty members and students of the various university colleges.

Invitations have been sent by Louis E. Means, director of student physical welfare, to the various college deans urging them to get in touch with their personnel in order to form a team. Means also invites any similar groups to enter a team. Colleges he has contacted are: Teacher's College, Ag College, Engineering College, Business Organization, Dental College, Law College, Pharmacy College, and School of Social Work.

Play will start in January and continue in round-robin fashion from 4 to 6 one afternoon a week at the Lincoln Bowling Alleys.

Injuries force a change in the Nebraska lineup for the St. Mary's game. Rodney Cox, regular center, came up with a sprained ankle during action in the second half of the Iowa State tilt and was not in suit for the Oklahoma game Saturday. He will not play against the Gaels, but is expected to be ready for the Minnesota game on Dec. 23.

Good has revised the UN starting lineup, moving McArthur to center, dropping Joe Brown to guard and sending Paul Shields into the opening five at a forward. Shields led the Husker scorers in the Oklahoma game.

The St. Mary's roster shows that the visitors will have sufficient height to cause the Huskers plenty of trouble. Ron Livingstone, 6 foot 9 inch center leads the westerners and will start for the Gaels.

Other Starters.
Other members of the starting lineup will probably be Frank Kudelka, 6-2 forward, Trude Sperry 6 foot forward, Jack Rial, 6-2 guard and Captain Bill Burke, 5-10 guard.

Joe Loisel and Joe Brown turned in good performances for the Huskers in the Kansas City tournament but superior experience and reserve strength enabled the Nebraska foes to slip past the Scarlet five.

Tonight's game will be the only appearance this week for the Huskers. Nebraska's next game will be at home on Dec. 23 against Minnesota.

IM Mat Finals Set to Follow Basketball Tilt

Finals in the All-University Wrestling Championships will be held Tuesday night at the coliseum following the St. Mary's-Nebraska basketball game, Coach Jerry Adam announced.

Mike DiBiase, National AAU heavyweight champion, meets Keith Manning of David City for the title in the heavyweight division. Other finalists:
121-pounds—Dick Lee, Lincoln vs. Kenneth Brown, Lincoln.
128-pounds—Mickey Sparano, Omaha vs. Pat Mack, Scottsbluff.
