

Ragged Edges

BY TOTTIE FIDDOCK.

"Two more days 'til vacation, then we go to the station—" and how! The big excitement over 16 whole days with no books, no classes and no 10:30 nights gets more out of hand every minute. But nobody intends to be lohesome and plans for parties and reunions get more involved every day.

New Year's Eve in Omaha will be a U. N. night. The Sig Alphas are planning a party and the Phi Gams have a big deal scheduled when they invade for the celebration. They have made reservations for 40 at Peony aPrk and intend to make it an all night affair. Traveling up to the big city for the rat race are Fritz Wolf, Bud Johnson, Howard Mengshol and Bud Ramer. (Their dates are a secret.)

New Twosome?

Jay Smith is looking forward to the hockey game with Dallas on the 28th. Gordie Petrie, former Ak-Sar-Ben player, and Jay struck up a romance last winter during the playing season which continued via the U. S. mail service all through the year. Gordie will spend a few days in Omaha, and although they're "just friends," it should be the beginning of a twosome.

Helen Ullom and Bob Engle passed the candy at the Alpha Xi house Monday night during a party for alums and their children. The younger generation was amused and impressed, it seems, to say nothing of the embarrassment of the participants in the traditional ceremonies.

At the big Phi Delt party Friday night will be Anne Robinson with Cal Olson, Jackie Wightman and Duke Derry, Pat Thompson and Finn Helberg.

Two Hands to Drive.

Bobby Joe Farner has finally had the cast taken off of his arm and now he's learning to drive with two hands again. Maybe he'll wish he still had the cast!

Helendot Newcomer and Ralph Wells are new members of Engaged Couples, Inc. They passed the candy a week ago Monday with a demand to make things definite.

Here in Lincoln, the weekend doesn't show much promise for many exciting times. Jack Reece and Jackie King and Jo Srb and Dick Kuhl will drive to Omaha and dance at Peony. Bryl Lot-speich and John Cover will be seen at King's.

Another deal in Omaha Friday will be pulled off by Joan Land- wherkamp and Scott Christian. Scotty will turn around and have a date Monday with old flame Joanie Vingers, and Pat Toof will be with Jack Clow.

Announcement has just been made that a new steady couple on campus is Marj Benson and Jake Dahlgren. It certainly was sudden!

Kenny Fletcher hung his Sig Ep pin on Jan Staley last weekend. Ken passed cigars Monday night but didn't get showered until Tuesday. It seems he sneaked out on the pledges.

One interesting new type of pinning was witnessed when Norm Leger hung his recognition pin on Jeanne Kerrigan. It is rumored that he will pass cigarettes soon. Another strange incident concerns John Beutties statement announcing his intention of falling in love with Nancy King . . . after only one date at that.

Ralph Johnson told his constant companion Buckshot Cain of his intention to spend his vacation in Oregon visiting his girl. He promises to repay her, however, by coming to Falls City some week- end to visit her.
