

Nebraska B Wins Over Iowa Quintet

By Cub Clem.

Coming back after a 14-10 first quarter deficit, the "B" cagers of the university caught the Western Union College Eagles just before halftime, pulled ahead, 46-40, at the beginning of the fourth quarter, and went on to beat the Iowans, 65-52, on the coliseum boards Saturday night.

The Eagles started off fast, after Fred Simpson had scored Nebraska's first field goal, and at one time led by seven points. When the starting UN five left the court, they gave the second group a 14-10 disadvantage to work with. The second bunch only made it worse for by the time the third team, the best of the evening, could arrive on the scene, Nebraska was trailing 10-20.

This outfit closed the score rather quickly with Sammy Vacanti doing the bulk of the scoring. "Slingin Sam" of football fame made the most of his opportunities, hitting a nice figure of five field goals out of seven attempts. Two quick baskets by him just before the halftime gun tied the score and then sent the Nubbins out in front to stay. The halftime score was 32-30.

The third group, consisting of Bill Saler, Thurman, Wright, Al Bergquist, Don Bauer, and Vacanti, put a lot of pep into the sagging UN offensive and swept the opposition off their feet for just long enough to claim the lead. After that, it was smooth sailing for the Cornhuskers.

Boost Lead.

The Nubbins, with the third team still in, increased their lead quickly with the resumption of hostilities after the halftime intermission. Anton Lawry and Vacanti put in the first baskets, and then the number three group left the floor, to be replaced by a combination of first, second, and fourth stringers. Mel Williams and Fred Simpson burned the nets, giving the next bunch a comfortable working margin.

This group gave the Western Union squad a chance to pull within seven points at one time midway in the third quarter. Bad passing, which came in a streak, made the Nubbins look very bad a couple of times. However, with the arrival of the first five, things began to look up.

Settling down to straight, easy basketball, this group left the final combination a considerable lead. The Eagles never threatened after that, with the Nubbins in possession of the ball most of the time. Doyle Busskohl and Don Bauer potted the last baskets, and that was the game.

McLaughlin Stars.

The outstanding player for the Western Union squad, and possibly of the evening, was Russ McLaughlin, a hot shot center who emerged from the game with 16 points. Paul Colenbrander followed him for the Iowans with

Husker Matmen Drub Wichita In First Start

Coach Jerry Adams' Cornhusker bonebenders spoiled Wichita university's first fling at intercollegiate wrestling as they piled up a 28-6 advantage Saturday night at the coliseum following the Nubbins basketball game.

Chunky Jack Tamai, Husker 145 pound battler paced the Scarlet team as he pinned Wendell Rice of the Wichita squad in 2 minutes and 59 seconds of the first round for the quickest fall of the evening.

The Nebraska team capitalized on falls in five matches to build up its margin of victory after the visiting Wheatshockers had taken the lead during the early stages of the dual meet.

Mickey Kelley sent the Nebraskans off to an early lead with a fall in the 121 pound class, but in the 128 and 136 pound classes the Wichita matmen were victorious.

But mighty Mike DiBiase had no trouble with his hulking heavyweight opponent, Al Voygt, who he threw twice. The first fall came after 4 minutes and 30 seconds and Mike repeated the trick 31 seconds later while Voygt was trying for a fall.

The Boker brothers took home victories in the 165 and 175 pound divisions. Marshall Boker's win over Dan Dwyer in the 165 pound class was one of the high spots of the evening for both men were near exhaustion after Boker had employed a punishing "guillotine" hold. Boker took the decision by a 12-7 score.

Harold Boker duplicated DiBiase's trick and pinned his foe, Glenn Dody, twice.

Andy Marinkovich turned in the fifth Nebraska fall when he tossed Paul McCauley in 7:18 in the 155 pound scrap. The summary:

121 pound class: Mickey Kelly (N) threw Jack Sanger (W) in 4:00.
128 pound class: Warren Ashmore (W) defeated Howard Crom (N), 3-0.
136 pound class: Al Daniels (W) defeated Mickey Sparano (N), 10-1.
145 pound class: Jack Tamai (N) threw Wendell Rice (W) in 2:59.
155 pound class: Andy Marinkovich (N) threw Paul McCauley (W) in 7:18.
165 pound class: Marshall Boker (N) defeated Dan Dwyer (W), 12-7.
175 pound class: Harold Boker (N) threw Glenn Dody (W) in 3:43 and 4:47.
Heavyweight: Mike DiBiase (N) threw Al Voygt (W), in 4:30 and :31.

Ginn Sparkles In UN Track Squad Drills

Track Coach Ed Weir gave the public a quick look at some of his current track prospects Saturday afternoon when he held competitive time trials on the indoor oval under the east stadium. The two and a half hour program served as a "feeler" to enable Weir to get a better line on men who have been working out for the past several months.

The time trials are to become a regular Saturday afternoon affair until the opening of the indoor season on the first of February.

Mile Time 4:29.

The most pleasing event of the afternoon was the performance of diminutive Bobby Ginn in the mile run. Ginn, who recently placed third in the Sugar Bowl mile run in New Orleans, turned in a creditable time of 4:29 as he nosed out Don Morrison, who had been given a considerable handicap.

Other bright spots in the first trials of the year were the performances turned in in the high hurdles and the shot put.

Ralph King, Waterloo timber-topper, copped first place in both heats of the high hurdles with a time of 7:8 seconds. Close on his heels were Bob Berkshire, state high school record holder, and Norval Barker, Aurora veteran.

Dick Pederit, former Lincoln High school shot-putter, captured first place in that event with a heave of 45 feet 1 inch.
