

Husker Swim Squad Loses; 5 Marks Fall

The vaunted University of Iowa swimming team swamped Nebraska tankmen 62-22 Monday afternoon at the Coliseum pool. The Hawkeyes broke four pool records during the meet, the 300 yard medley relay, the 200 yard free style, the 150 yard back stroke, and the 400 yard free style relay.

Lone bright spot for the Husker coach Hollie Lepley was sprinter Marvin Grimm's work. Grimm, who flirted with pool records all afternoon, broke the five year mark of Billy Edwards in the 100 yard free style event. He swam the distance in 54 seconds, clipping one full second off Edwards' mark. Aside from Grimm, no Nebraska man could place higher than third.

The Iowans got off to a fast lead, winning the opening medley relay event by one and a half laps and following with first and second places in the 200 yard free style match.

Grimm then enlivened Nebraska's hopes with a close victory in the 50 yard free style. He nearly broke that record too, finishing in 24.8 seconds, one tenth of a second off the pool mark. The four contestants completed the race within three yards of each other.

Iowa Takes Diving

The Hawkeyes came back to cop the top two spots in the diving competition as Pete Latona and Bill McDonald, both of whom placed in the GI Olympics, finished 1-2.

Husker Gymnasts Win First Place

University of Nebraska gymnasts won first place in Class B at the northwestern championships held Saturday at the University of Minnesota.

Husker point winners were Nickie Kallos, first in flying rings; Phil Sprague, first in side horse and third in tumbling, and Leo Geier, second in side horse. Sprague won first place in the all-around performance class while Geier finished third in the same competition.

ished 1-2. Roger Moore of Nebraska was third.

The Nebraskans collected their last victory in the 100 yard free style event. Grimm had to come from behind to win, and he broke the pool record in doing it. The Wilbur ace trailed at the second and third turns but turned on a last lap spurt that carried him to victory.

The team from Iowa City again finished 1-2 as Duane Draves clipped five seconds off the existing 150 yard back stroke pool record with a mark of 1:40.6. Nebraska was never in the race. The same was true for the 200 yard breast stroke as All-American Dick Lake easily outdistanced his opponents to win in 2:36.2.

Iowa scored another sweep in the last individual affair, the 400 yard free style match. Paul Hutinger finished almost two laps ahead of the nearest Nebraska man.

Mike DiBiase Wins But Scarlet Defeated

The Nebraska wrestling squad waited until late in the evening to unleash its scoring power, but bowed to Iowa State 20 to 6 in a dual meet at the coliseum Monday night.

Although the Huskers lost six of the eight bouts, the feature match of the evening went to the Scarlet bone benders when Heavyweight Mike DiBiase put on a late flurry to edge the Cyclone ace Glen Brand 5 to 4. The defeat was the first in two years for the Iowa State star who placed third in the NCAA meet last winter.

At the close of the first round between the two big boys there was no score, but in the second round DiBiase collected three points on an escape and a reversal while keeping Brand scoreless.

The lightning-fast Cyclone heavy gave Big Mike a hard time in the final period, picking up one point on a rules infraction by DiBiase and two more on a reversal. Late in the bout the Husker scored a take-down which offset the Cyclone's one point time advantage.

Harold Boker scored Nebraska's other win in the 175 pound match when he outpointed Jim Clagett 5 to 1. Boker had been out of earlier matches with infection resulting from a mat burn and was almost completely exhausted at the close of his tussle with Clagett.

The fall scored by Gene Ewoldsen over Peewee Yambor in the 121 pound class was the only pin of the evening, but the Cyclone grapplers dominated the lighter divisions, winning by sizable margins in every match.

Jack Tamai put up the best battle among the beaten UN matmen as he bowed to Dick Ditsworth by a 4-0 count.

121 pounds—Gene Ewoldsen (IS) pinned Bob Yambor (N) in 8:50 with double arm lock.

128 pounds—Charles Nelson (IS) decided Mickey Kelly (N) 10-3.

136 pounds—Lewis Larson (IS) decided Jack Barrett (N) 10-3.

145 pounds—Dick Ditsworth (IS) decided Jack Tamai (N) 4-0.

155 pounds—Norman Sponheim (IS) decided Andy Marinkovich (N) 6-0.

165 pounds—Pat Bush (IS) decided Fred Turner (N) 10-3.

175 pounds—Harold Boker (N) decided Jim Clagett (IS) 5-1.

Heavyweight—Mike DiBiase (N) decided Glen Brand (IS) 5-4.
