

Palladians Test Oratory Tonite

Seven members of Nebraska's Palladian Literary Society will compete in the 21st annual James H. Hopper oratorical contest to be held at 8:30 p. m. Friday in the Temple.

The contestants are Kathryn Ellingson, Donald Kroger, Robert McKenzie, John Davis, Charles Grimes, John Luebs, and James Welch.

The contest is sponsored by the Gavel club, alumni organization of the Palladian Society. Victor Seymour, Gavel club president, will be in charge of presentations; and Alice Pierce, vice president of the society, will be contest chairman. The contest will be open to the public.

AAUW Offers $100 Awards

University students applying for one of the two scholarships of $100 each, offered by the Lincoln branch of the American Association of University Women, should have applications in the mail not later than March 15.

Applications should be mailed along with two letters of recommendation to Miss Leva B. Walker, 1328 No. 38.

Vets' Views . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

the utter poverty which curses Japan wiped out.

Roger Shumate, professor of political science, concurred with Greenwood, but modified the latter's stand in stating that giving Japan democratic political processes would be "exceedingly difficult." "There has long existed a strong anti-democratic tradition in Japan," he stated, "and a democratic one cannot be erected by fiat." He said that the Japanese had copied European and Western ideas for a hundred years, and that eventually they could set up workable democratic government.

All 23 of the Vet's Views panels have been transcribed on the spot by radio station KFAB, and broadcast on that station's 50,000 watt channel. Gratitude for the cooperation and assistance KFAB has shown the Veterans' organization in connection with the Vet's Views series was expressed by Bud Levinson, announcer.

Ak-Sar-Ben . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

cially open the livestock show with a brief address.

Other special features will include a student harnessing contest, a faculty "race of intelligence," and presentation of medals to members of the senior livestock judging team.

First event of the week end festivities, according to Merle Binegar, manager, is the ball from 9 to 12 p. m. tonight. Tickets are priced at $2 a couple for the dance which will feature the music of Johnny Cox and his orchestra.

Saturday's show, to be held in the pavillion of the horse barn, will begin at 8 p. m., with the ringing of an alarm clock, according to Willard Visek, president of Block and Bridle, sponsoring organization. The alarm clock is traditional in the opening of Junior Ak-Sar-Ben shows, and will be the signal for the first class to come into the arena as the show opens. Tickets for the show are priced at 30 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

Student Foundation
Student Foundation workers interested in writing for the Student Foundation Bulletin, a magazine sent to all state high schools, are asked to attend a meeting Friday afternoon at 4 in the Student Foundation office, according to Jack Hill, Bulletin editor.

Contest Will Find 'Typical Irishman'

A contest to determine the typical Irishman on the campus is being sponsored this week by the Chesterfield cigarette company, to coincide with St. Patrick's day. The winner will be awarded a carton of Chesterfields, according to Jack Hill, publicity director.

Entries must state the name, age, class and college of the candidate and also three reasons why the individual should be considered the "typical Irishman." Entries must be turned in to the Nebraska office by noon Saturday. Winner will be chosen on Monday, St. Patrick's day and will be announced Tuesday.

Three husky fellows' exertion-reddened faces falling in dismay as fragile-looking coed calmly unscrews stubborn inkbottle cap with three fingers.

Veterans Administration to date has approved for guarantee about $3.5 billion in business, farm and home loans for World War II veterans.

Rev. R. W. Hahn To Be Lutheran Banquet Speaker

Rev. R. W. Hahn of Chicago, executive secretary of the student service commission for the Missouri synod, will be the guest speaker at the Lutheran student and alumni banquet to be held at 6:30 p. m. Saturday in the Union.

Regular Lutheran chapel services have been scheduled for 10:45 a. m. Sunday in Room 315 of the Union. Rev. Hahn will deliver the sermon, and Elaine Putensen will be the accompanist for the hymns.

The Unitarian youth discussion will meet at 10 a. m. Sunday in the Unitarian church, 12th and H streets. At 5 p. m. Sunday a skit, "The Villain Still Pursued Her," will be presented at the First Lutheran church before members

Attention Pre dental Students

The Admissions Committee of the College of Dentistry will meet on Saturday, March 22 and again on Saturday, March 29, to review credentials of applicants for the September, 1947, class.

Pre dental students who have applied for that class are requested to submit to Dean Hooper's office, their past past semester class grade cards as early as possible before those dates.

Lahr Schedules Dance Tonight

A juke box dance will be held at the Union ballroom this Friday evening from 9:30 until 11:30 p. m. Due to a previous engagement, Johnny Cox and his orchestra will be unable to play as was previously announced, ac-ording to Pat Lahr, Union director. Saturday night, the Veteran's organization will sponsor a dance. Festivities will begin at 9 p. m. There will be an admission charge for non-members.

A coffee hour will be held at both unions at 5 p. m. Sunday. Sunday, the variety show will feature "Lillian Russell," starring Alice Faye. The program will begin at 3 p. m.

Bulletin . . .

There will be a Coke Hour at Ellen Smith Hall today from 4-5, Nadine Anderson, YW social chairman, announced.

Welcome Tournament Fans

KINGS BALLROOM

"The Gay Nitespot"

Presents

MAL DUNN

for dancing

Friday

College night
Couples only

and

Saturday

Everybody
Welcome

Ties and Suit Coats Required

Hialeah

Brown calfskin

BLUE-GRASS CASUALS

by Reinhart

Introducing... CASUALS that fit!

From Kentucky's famed Blue Grass country comes a series of thoroughbred casual shoes . . . shoes that are true to size, that fit the narrow foot as well as normal types. Sizes to 10 in Slim, Narrow and Medium widths.

7⁹⁵ pair

Lucille

Brown suede
Black suede
Red calfskin

Judy

Russet calfskin and
Green with Red
platform

EXCLUSIVE with the SHOE SECTION . . . SECOND FLOOR

MILLER & PAINE

25¢ SHAVES YOU for 3 months!

Marlin HIGH SPEED BLADES

GUARANTEED BY THE MARLIN FIREARMS COMPANY
Five Cents Since 1870.