

Scarlet To Face Bengals

Coach Ed Weir's Nebraska track team will test the strength of the potent Missouri Tigers Saturday afternoon in a dual track meet at Memorial Stadium which begins with field events at 1:30 and running events at 2 p. m.

Wisconsin Out.

Originally scheduled as a triangular meet involving the University of Wisconsin in addition to the Tigers and Nebraska, the meet diminished to two-team size when the Badgers sent word that examinations would interfere, forcing the Wisconsin team to bow out of the running.

A pair of distance races appear to be the highlights of the encounter which is the last appearance for the Nebraska team before the Big Six championships on May 22 and 23 at Memorial Stadium.

tender in Missouri's Bob Bosworth who paced off a blistering 4:21.8 mile as the Tigers won a five-team meet at West Point, N. Y., last Saturday. Ginn's top clocking this spring was a 4:20.5 which he turned in at the Drake Relays in his anchor leg on the NU distance medley team.

Bosworth was with the Missouri team several years ago as an 880 specialist, but has moved up to the mile.

880 Feature.

In the half-mile feature Nebraska's Harold Kopf will face Dick Killough of Missouri. The Bengal strider has a 1:56.9 time to his credit, while Kopf has been clocked in 1:57.5. Killough was out of action at the time of the Big Six indoor meet due to an attack of appendicitis.

Although Kopf finished ahead of Ginn in the 880 yard race when Colorado's Dave Bolen won the event, the tiny Madison runner should not be counted out of the half-mile picture.

Team balance is expected to bring the Tigers a victory over Nebraska. The Huskers are bereft of strength in the discus and shot with Dick Piderit sidelined by ineligibility, although Charlie Toogood is now finished with his gridiron chores and might bolster the NU weight department.

Herb Grote looks like a good bet to capture the javelin crown, but Nebraska pole vaulters Dick Miller and Don Cooper will have to be at their best to beat off the challenge of Bill Blackwell and Justin Knapp of the Missouri team.

Hurdle Power.

A trio of first-rate hurdlers give the Bengals more strength. Bob

Blakely, Floyd Gaultney and Madill Gartiser placed in the Big Six indoor meet and all have shown good form during the outdoor season.

Scant Schedule For Huskers This Weekend

SPORTS CALENDAR
FRIDAY BASEBALL.
Nebraska at Kansas State.
Concordia at Nebraska B.
SATURDAY BASEBALL.
Nebraska at Kansas State.
SATURDAY TRACK.
Missouri at Nebraska.

A slim bill of fare in comparison to recent weeks is available for university followers this week. With Coach Tony Sharpe's baseball team taking to the road over the weekend, the Nebraska-Missouri dual track meet stacks up as the home feature.

B Baseball.

In addition to the track fest, the Husker B baseball team will attempt a repeat victory over Concordia college of Seward when the Bulldogs come to town for a Friday afternoon game scheduled to begin at 3:30.

Nebraska golf and tennis teams will be idle this week.

The NU baseballers will be facing the unpredictable Kansas State Wildcats at Manhattan on Friday and Saturday.

Last Week.

Last week the Scarlet nine split a pair of games with Iowa State at Lincoln, losing 11-10 and winning 4 to 2. The Husker tennis team bowed to Kansas 6-1 and to Kansas State 5-2. Golfers were more successful, winning from Kansas State, but losing to Kansas.

Spring Basketball Drills Commence

Spring practice sessions for Coach Harry Good's Husker basketball squad got under way Monday at the coliseum. For the next three weeks the Nebraska cage candidates will be at work.

Basket shooting and drills on fundamentals will be the chief activity for the Scarlet cage candidates during the spring practices. Between 25 and 30 players have checked out equipment for the drill routine.

Iowa State Golf Team Undefeated

AMES, Ia.—Iowa State's undefeated golf team seeks its sixth straight win here Friday in its return match with Drake.

Drake was the original victim by a 13-5 count at Des Moines. Since that time the Cyclones have added Creighton, Kansas State, Kansas, and Minnesota to their list. Iowa State will face Nebraska at Ames on May 16.

Nubbins Nine Bids for Third Win on Friday

The Nebraska Nubbins baseball team will make its second home appearance Friday afternoon on the varsity diamond at 3:30 against Concordia College of Seward.

Vern Kailey's B team is unbeaten in its only two starts this year, holding a 13-3 win over Concordia and a 5-0 shutout against Omaha university.

Wally Scheef pitched for the Nubbins against the Concordia nine last week when the Husker B squad won without being pushed. In the victory over Omaha U. Sterling Van Vleck and Jack Helmsing shared the mound duties.

Both Scheef and Helmsing appeared for the varsity team against Missouri during the Huskers' fruitless attempt to halt the Tigers.
