Results of Bet.

Shaw's story is of a Cockney flower girl who, as a result of a wager made by a phonetics professor, is given enough social leaves training to be passed off at a gartraining to be passed off at a garden party as a duchess. In six months' time Henry Higgins shows he can transform the "draggle-tailed gutter-snipe" into a proper lady. After the bet is won the problem arises of what Eliza will do for a living now that she has acquired the qualities of a member of the highest social

Compton Plays Junior Piano Recital Today

Bonnie Compton will be presented in the first junior recital of the year this afternoon at 4 p. m. in the Temple, playing a piano program of Bach, Beethoven, Chopin and Scriabin. The junior recital is a requirement for all arts and science candidates for Bachelor of Music degrees. Miss Compton was this season as piano soloist with the ROTC varsity symphonic band, playing the opening movement from the Grieg piano concerto. A member of the band, she is also a member of the string bass section of the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra. She is heard regu-larly at the console of the Union's Hammond organ, and as accompanist for a number of student recitals.

Her program will feature a group of numbers by the Russian composer and pianist, Alexander Scriabin. The group includes two etudes, two mazurkas and "Album Leaf." The complete program, open to the public, includes:

Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue,
