

Husker Varsity Routs Nubbins Eleven, 38-0

Headmaster Bernie Masterson's varsity Cornhuskers romped to a six touchdown, 38-0 victory over the Nubbins in a two hour long scrimmage session at Memorial Stadium behind closed gates Saturday afternoon.

Off to a slow start the Reds got rolling after Center Robert Costello intercepted a B forward pass picked up a wall of blockers, and raced 75 yards to a touchdown. Costello missed the conversion attempt.

Coach Ray DeBolt's Nubbins threatened early in the first period after recovering Junior Collopy's fumble on the 20 yard line. A drive highlighted by a forward from Kutschow to Finstrom carried to the five yard marker before the Reds took over.

The Nubbins forward wall climaxed a brilliant goal line stand early in the second canto by smearing Bill Moomey on the 2-foot line. Scoville kicked out of danger, but on the first play from scrimmage, Bill Mueller streaked 25 yards to a touchdown. Costello's kick was good.

Kicks Dominate.

A series of quick kicks dominated play through the remainder of the period.

The Blues started the third period from their own 20. Kenny Brooker flipped to Pauley for 30 yards before the B crew was forced to punt. Myers was tossed for a ten yard loss on a naked reverse before Quarterback Del Wiegand pitched a perfect strike to Bob Ackerman which carried for 75 yards and six points. Costello's conversion attempt was blocked.

Wiegand hit Ralph Damkroger on the first play in the fourth quarter for 50 yards and another varsity TD. Again the conversion attempt failed.

The Nubbins' scrappers wilted as Myers scampered 60 yards with Devish's punt to hike the tally to 31-0.

The Reds' final drive was sparked by a Wiegand flip for 25 yards to Hutton and a jump pass to Ed Nyden. George Bostwick capped the drive with an 18-yard gallop around left end. Costello's kick was good.

Line Play Ragged

Ragged line play left much to be desired by Line Tutor Tony Blazine before the Indiana fracas a week hence.

Masterson's quarterback problem took a severe blow when little Dick Thompson, just back in action after a shoulder bruise mended, twisted a knee.

Thompson may be lost for the NUBBINS BACK SCOVILLE punts one from his own end zone after his teammates had held the varsity for four downs inside the 10 yard stripe. One play later, Bill Mueller broke loose and scored from 25 yards out.

Physical Exams
Physical examinations for freshman and varsity candidates for the basketball, wrestling and track teams will be held Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the training room in the Field House, Trainer Elwyn Dees announced. No equipment will be issued until the examinations have been taken, Dees said.

Dodgers Near Pennant

With about a week of play left in the majors, Brooklyn owns a commanding lead in the National circuit but can't seem to put on the clincher. Either a Dodger win or a St. Louis loss will give Burt Shotton's charges the pennant, the first one for Brooklyn since 1941.

Saturday night the Cardinals won their second straight from the Chicago Cubs, 5-0.

Hoosier opener next Saturday. Saturday's starting units:

Fundamentals Highlight First Frosh Tryout

The first practice for the Cornhuskers of '51 brought out 103 potentials for Pop Klein's first workout Sept. 19, and a few more are still expected to come out.

Grid fundamentals the Nebraska way were the principal schooling the boys received. Linemen were drilled on charging from their positions while the backs were run through ball handling on the "T" formation.

The freshman teams are to have no intercollegiate but only inter- and intra-squad games. A few of the boys, however, will make the trip to Manhattan for the Kansas State game.

"C'mon lucky seven." That may well be the cry of Coach Bo McMillan's Indiana Hoosiers when they invade Memorial Stadium Saturday, Sept. 27, to test Bernie Masterson's second "T" edition. The Hoosiers have pasted six successive defeats on the Huskers since 1941 for all of their wins in the 11-game series. Nebraska has won three while two ended in deadlocks.

Not like Heinz 57 Varieties, but almost so, is the assortment of jobs Masterson's Huskers held during the summer months. To mention a few: Back to the farm went Ralph Damkroger to put on deight and size. Jim Myers also toughened up with work on his father's Iowa farm. Jack Pesek, Rex Hoy and Gen Sim also turned to this type of outdoors work. Jim Thomson roughed it on his Taylor ranch.

Familiar faces around Lincoln were those of Mike DiBiase, Dale Adams and Gail Gade. All three served with the Lincoln police force.

Dick Hutton was a playground supervisor at Auburn. Cletus and Kenny Fischer worked as carpenters and played a little baseball as a sideline activity.

Bruising Tom Novak worked for an electric company in Omaha. Johnny Sedlacek worked in the same field in Lincoln. Bob Ackerman labored with a street construction gang in Sidney and Francis Mandula worked in a Youngstown, O., steel mill.

When Sam Francis' Kansas State eleven tangled with Oklahoma A & M on the Manhattan gridiron Saturday night, it marked the first time a Big Six conference team competed under lights on a home field.

It was way back in 1940 when the Cornhuskers last brought home a Big Six football crown. With a line comparable to the block busters tutored by Biff Jones during that regime, Masterson's 1947 dark horse Nebraskans bear heavy consideration in loop play this fall. A '47 grid title would give the Huskers a .500 batting average over a 20 year span of conference play.
