

Huskers . . .

was penalized for backfield in motion, and Thompson's last pass fell incomplete.

Stehley Runs 51 Yards.

Midway in the second period, fullback Jim Stehley circled his left end and broke into the clear to score from the Kansas State 49 standing up. Del Ehret's placement was perfect and the home town boys sported a seven point lead Nebraska had a hard time overcoming.

Nebraska looked no better after the intermission. A double reverse by Dick Hutton took the ball to the Kansas State 30 yard line, but he fumbled and lost possession.

The 'Cats couldn't gain either, so Bryan, Kansas State game captain, punted to Bill Moomey on the Nebraska 25. The scabbard took the ball and ran back down the sidelines all the way to the Aggie 33 yard line. Squat Myers powered around left end to the 15 at the end of the third quarter.

Salestrom Scores.

On the first play of the final period, Darwin Salestrom drove all the way to pay dirt over right tackle. Bob Costello kicked the point that tied the game, 7-7.

The Huskers soon found themselves in possession of the pigskin when Alex Cochrane intercepted a pass in the flat from Bill Church. Cochrane broke into the clear, but was overtaken by the faster Kansas State backs 31 yards from the goal.

Two ground plays and an incomplete pass forced the Huskers to punt. Tom Christophoulos fumbled the ball without a finger being laid on him, and Tom Novak recovered for Nebraska on the eleven.

Winning Touchdown.

In three plays, Salestrom plunged to the three, from where Myers circled right end for the score, putting Nebraska ahead for the first time, 13-7. Costello again supplied the extra point, having to kick two in a row, as the first was nullified by a penalty.

Bill Church and Dana Atkins, the two quarterbacks, sparked a desperate last minute comeback with some beautiful passes, but a long loss on an attempted pass set them back and Nebraska took over with less than a minute left.

Time Runs Out.

And they almost scored, too. Cletus Fischer swept around left end to the 44, and Dick Hutton carried to the Kansas State 31. Bob Ackerman reversed his field on an end run and went to the 17 before the gun sounded ending the game.

The Kansas State passing almost proved the undoing of Nebraska. The two sharpshooters, Atkins and Church, completed 13 out of 20, and kept the Huskers in hot water all afternoon.

On the bright side, Dick Hutton served notice that his demotion to the second string wouldn't last long. The Auburn flash showed plenty of the speed and power that made him an All-Big Six selection last year. The work of Jim Myers and Alex Cochrane was also worthy of note. Myers was running well with the ball all day, and Cochrane was a standout both on defense and offense.

A feature of the Homecoming festivities in Manhattan was the appearance of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower at the game. "Ike's" brother, Milton, is president of the college.

New Yell Competition Now Open

Each organized house on the campus will have an opportunity to add an original yell to the yell Squad's roster when the first rally, is held at 7 p. m. Thursday.

Martin Pesek, Yell King, has announced that the two organizations presenting winning yells, will be presented prizes. In addition presenting winning yells used at the Nebraska-Missouri game Saturday and at the Homecoming game the following week.

House members may present one yell. However, no limit has been set on the number of cheerleaders. Group leaders will be required to explain each cheer, and squads will be permitted use of megaphones.

Response of the crowd and the ability of the leaders will determine judges' decisions. Judges' names are to be announced this week.

Tassel and Corn Cobs will be on hand, and the pep band will assist with the music.

Reserved Seat Ducats

Kansas Tilt Exhausted

All reserved seat tickets for the Kansas-Nebraska football game here Nov. 8 have been sold, Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski has announced.

The tickets allotted to the Jayhawk cheering section have been exhausted. Kansas followers are now writing here for tickets.

"The Kansas-Nebraska game this year set a record," Lewandowski said, "It is the first time a football game has been sold out completely a month in advance of the contest."

Nebraska "B" Nips Soldiers By 12-7 Count

(Special to this newspaper.)

FT. RILEY, Kas.—Nebraska's Nubbins survived their 1947 grid-iron baptism Friday night as they dropped a touted Ft. Riley Cantars eleven at Ft. Riley by a 12-7 count.

The inspired Nebraska B crew rolled over the soldier stars in maintaining an unbeaten record over a two year span.

Little Russ Hale, 141-pound Hardy quarterback, paced the Nebraska reserves with his passing and running.

Hale Sneaks Over

Hale tallied the initial Nubbins' touchdown by carrying over on a quarterback sneak on the first play of the second period after his 40-yard pass to Halfback Harry Johnson put the ball on the two-yard line.

The pint-sized signal caller flipped a three yard touchdown pass to End Harry Fox for the winning tally after Fort Riley moved into a 7-6 lead. Fox recovered a Fort Riley fumble to set up the touchdown.

Block Nubbins' Punt

The soldier crew with Ug, Fuson, Sheldon Biles and Bill West, former members of West Point's powerful Cadets, Tallied as West blocked Hale's punt and recovered in the end zone. West added the extra point.

Halfback Harry Meginnis and Raymond Magsamen sparked the Nebraska B offensive parade while Fullback Dean DaMoude's line bucking was effective for Coach Ray DeBolt's charges.

DeBolt's junior Huskers meet the same Ft. Riley eleven in the only other tilt on their abbreviated schedule at Memorial Stadium Nov. 15.

IM Bowling

Following the intramural football season, the second major IM sports will begin with the opening of the bowling season.

In the year's program is the largest ever attempted. It includes five separate leagues, the Independents, Inter-college student leagues, Inter-college faculty leagues, duck pin leagues, and Interfraternity leagues. An all-university bowling tourney will follow later in the year.

Play Daily Matches.

All matches are to be played from 4.00 to 6.00 daily. The cost of the bowling fees must be paid by the organization or the individuals entering.

In the interfraternity competition each house must enter a team of five men, which must be ready to bowl around Nov. 3.

In the Independent groups the same rules have been set following those for the fraternities and medals and awards will similarly be awarded.

For information concerning the Inter-College leagues for faculty call Dr. Lapp at the coliseum.

All inter-college teams for student must file immediately if they expect to compete. The duck pin tournament for fraternities will be played later in the year at the duck pin alleys at 1117 P street.

All entries for any league must be filed in the intramural office by Tuesday, Oct. 28 at 5.00.
