Seein' Double

BY DON AND AL AMSDEN.
OPEN LETTER TO THE POWERS THAT BE:

This idea is not our baby. A group of Grand Island fans brought it to our attention but we think it has some merit.

The gentlemen from G. I. were enthusing about their unbeaten high school squad. Among them was the father of one player who happens to be one of the state's outstanding backs.

"This only happens to a town once in a blue moon," somebody said, half apologizing for their enthusiasm. "But we think the Lincoln high-Grand Island game will be the best prep game of the year. All of us want to see our boy play. Nebraska has an open date the week-end of this game. Why couldn't it be played in Memorial stadium? It would draw at least 20 thousand people."

Perhaps that estimate was overly optimistic but we're inclined to think not. Why couldn't the prep game of the year be played where everyone, both Lincolnites and Grand Islanders, could be sure of a seat and a decent view of their boys? This seems to us a worthwhile opportunity for Nebraska to build a tremendous amount of good will. More than that, it would mean a lot to those high school players to play on stadium sod, use stadium dressing rooms, and perhaps to personally meet Nebraska coaches who should act as hosts. (Remember, the Huskers have an open date.)

We are even so radical as to suggest that it might be developed into an annual affair with a Lincoln team playing host to the outstanding outstate team each year. San Antonio city prep champions are played in Alamo stadium before crowds as high as 25 or 30 thousand. Why not the year's outstanding prep game in Nebraska's Memorial stadium?

For one thing an annual prep game would be a memorable day for each player. Personal contact with the coaches and an insight into university facilities might even help most of these boys to decide to continue their education here in their home state.

Proselyting? Not at all! This is an age-old device for public relations. The same theory is behind the music convention, the high school journalism convention and others now sponsored by various university departments. We would simply be showing prospective students that Nebraska is interested in them.

A high school classic could become a great fall event for the state. Certainly it seems a chance to improve statewide public relations. As the Grand Island fans wistfully asked, isn't it something to consider? And now!

Straight Stuff

Herb Gish was issuing invitations to Sig Alph brothers and their dates for an open house at the home of his grandparents in Manhattan. Incidentally, his relatives are vacationing in Minnesota.

DU Stable Stomp

Partying at the DU house Friday night were Marilyn Stebbins and Joan Fankhauser with Skip Stahl and Al Lawson, Bonnie Washington with Bob Meyer, Jo Ackerman and "Lover Boy" Goodwin, Elsie Clapp with Jack Hays and Sheila Curran escorted by John Bumstead.

Flash!!

As fraternity brothers dropped dead from shock, Bob Berkshire, ATO calmly stated that he spent an enjoyable evening with his second date of the year. . . Jo Noble, Theta pledge. Congratulations, Bob, keep up the good work.

Omaha Bound

Taking in the AK-SAR-BEN ball Saturday night were Ginny Purdham with fiancé Louie Hanish, Nancy Watkins and pinnate Curt Hasselbalch and Joyce Nebergall with Bob Mochga. Socialite Milton Mack is also taking in the big ball this week end. His booking agent recently announced Milt is attending not one, but two cocktail parties and dinner with his more aggressive friends in Omaha.

The Phi Delt house party went over with a bang Friday night. Couples attending were Windy Corkin, and Dug "Snowball" Nelson, Ann Chamberlin with Jack Meehan, Nancy Glynn and Tom Brownlee, "Zanny" Bachus with Jim Lyle, Ruth Stewart and Bob McGeehee, Terry Lane with Ed Donegan and Chuck Brighton with his girl, Mary Vieg, down from Grand Island.

Things are Hard All Over

Parker Tracy IKE has had his brothers get blind dates for him since the first of the year. Are there still such bashful boys on the campus?

It seems Bill Poe has a new angle on getting dates, hanging around the Cornhusker office watching appointment cards proves successful, eh Bill? The lucky girl is L Marie Tegtmer.

The Eternal Triangle

Joan Bergman, Alpha Phi pledge, was seen with Bill Eythe at the ball Saturday night, while Friday night was reserved for Al Potter.

Missou Bound

Traveling to Missouri by train are Sig Alphas Bill LeRoy, Roy Linwall and Chuck Dugan. Could it be more than the game that is attracting these three stags? Also making the trip are Gene Deeter and Sally Johnson, Theta pledge, Mary Kuppinger and Bill Foshier, Beanie Gallup with Jackie Oschner and Fig Flagg with Ellie Lykke. The highlight of this trip will be a Saturday night party in Kansas City. Have fun, kids. I'll see you. . .

Winner of Coll-Agri-Fun Skit Night Performances

Crack Squad Points Toward Military Ball

With the appointment of Cadet 2nd Lt. A. F. Farber as commanding officer, this year's edition of the ROTC crack squad began to take shape.

This famous precision drill unit is composed of elementary ROTC cadets who are members of the Pershing Rifles fraternity and have proved their proficiency in marching and manual of arms.

Performs at Military Ball

The unit will meet five times a week to practice their formations under the supervision of Lt. Farber. The crack squad will make its initial performance at the Military Ball Dec. 5.

Twelve Man Squad

Twelve men will be used on the squad, and four alternates will be trained to take their place in an emergency. In the two meetings this week, fourteen men have reported for tryouts. They are: Robert Baker, Dave Ballanger, Milton Belzer, Jim Dinsmore, Dick Gibson, Chester Keyes, Stanford Levy, Ken Johnson, Herm Oelrich, Lawrence Russel, Don Smith, Don Christianson, John Wescott and Don Fletcher.

New Yell Rally!

A "NEW YELL" rally will be held in the Union ballroom Thursday at 7 p.m. in which all organized houses will compete by introducing new yells to the assembled students.

Each house may present one yell which may be led by any number of designated cheerleaders from the competing house. Prizes will be awarded to the two houses whose yells are judged to be the best. The new yells will be used by the yell squad at the Homecoming game, Nov. 8.

Awgwan Copy Finds Jungle Island Reader

The banished and blasphemous name of "Awgwan" has come into its own at last. Former Editor Walt Simon is exonerated. "Corn-shucks" now has a tradition to live up to.

Maybe it wasn't too successful as a humor magazine, but evidence which has just been unearthed establishes it as a sheet with a tremendous and far-reaching circulation.

Fred Gardner, of Gardner Jewelry Co., has given the "Corn-shucks" staff a postal card which he received from a certain H. Abdulmalik Soe'oad, of Sambas, West Borneo, dated August 7, 1947, requesting information and price lists referred to by the Gardner ad in the "last issue of the Awgwan."

How Abdulmalik came upon this particular issue of the now dead and gone publication must remain a mystery, and what use he has for jewelry is unexplained, also. Perhaps he was a subscriber, converted by an UN student who visited him during the war.

But anyhow, he can read and write. As we said before, "Corn-shucks" has a tradition to live up to.

Undergrad TC Wives Plan Hallowe'en Party

The wives of undergraduate students of Teachers' college plan to entertain their husbands and children at a Hallowe'en hard-times party Wednesday, Oct. 29, at 7:45 p.m. The party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Varney, 2834 Orchard.

The refreshment charge will be 40c per couple and special arrangements will be made for children. Those who have not been contacted are asked to call Mrs. Vernon Arnold, 2-1451; Mrs. Charles Jennings, 6-3506, or Mrs. James H. Varney, 5-6650, by Monday.

Those on the planning committee include Mrs. James Allison, Mrs. Raymond Holmberg, Mrs. Jack Tilton, Mrs. Dwight Wilmoth, Mrs. Robert Towell, Mrs. Robert Slevak, and Mrs. Wendell Hunt.

All Teachers' college undergraduate couples are invited to attend.

Conversation After Six Week Exams:

Frosh—How did you get along in your exams?

Vet—I got 100.

Frosh—What did you get 100 in?

Vet—I got 50 in zoo and 50 in English.

Frosh—Did you pass any other exams?

Vet—Well, it was like this . . . you see . . .

Frosh—Shake! Neither did I!

Vet—Well you see I got pretty discouraged. I failed in everything but botany.

Frosh—How was that?

Vet—I didn't take botany.

Frosh—You are a student here, aren't you?

Vet—No, I just go to school here.

Frosh—What are you going to be when you get out?

Vet—An octogenarian, I think.

Frosh—Was your dad a college man?

Vet—Yes, but we never mention it. The college he went to had a rotten football team.

Frosh—Don't you like athletics?

Vet—Sure, I'm a four letter man myself.

Frosh—Really! A four letter man!

Vet—Yeah. D-u-m-b.

Frosh—I see you joined a fraternity?

Vet—No, I just sat on a stove by mistake.
