

Frosh, Nubbins Play 0-0 Tie On Mud Field

Playing on the rain soaked coliseum grounds, the Nubbins and University of Nebraska Freshmen battled to scoreless deadlock Thursday afternoon.

Coach Pop Klein's Junior Huskers, running in two separate units, clicked in the early stages of the game and marched to the varsity B five yard line, but lost the ball on downs as the Nubbins' forward wall stiffened.

The muddy gridiron forced both clubs to resort to straight-away running tactics and darkness nullified any scoring opportunities via the aerial route.

Frosh Backs Romp.

Halfbacks Jerry Ferguson and Don Bloom paced the Frosh's early period drive with assistance from Fullback Walt Spellman and Quarterback Dutch Meyer.

Quarterback Russ Hale and End Harry Fox were late reporting for service with the Nubbins, but sparked the B team thru the second half of play.

Coach Ray DeBolt's reserves behind the effective running of the speedy Harry McGinnis-controlled the play thruout the third canto, but couldn't muster a scoring thrust.

Halt Late Drive.

After recovering a blocked punt late in the fourth period, Spellman's long pass carried to the Nubbins' 18 yard line. The advance was thrown in reverse, however, by a hard charging B line.

Center John Fox, Tackles Bob Harrington and Bob Farner, and Guard Bill Kimball turned in the strong line performances for the Nubbins while McGinnis, Hale and Fullback Dean Demowde sparked the backs.

End Ralph Weddle, Center Gardner Johnson, Guard Jack Heckenlively and Tackle Verne Busch lead the Frosh forwards.

The lineups:
Nubbins
Musmane..... Fletcher
Villarst..... Schrage
Hawkinsg..... Becker
John Foxc..... Johnson
Kimballf.g..... Pizinger
Harringtonf.l..... Busch
Higgf.e..... Weddle
Churchillq.b..... Meyer
McGinnish..... Ferguson
Magsmanf.h..... Bloom
Demowdef.b..... Spellman

Traveling Squad

Left ends: Alex Cochrane, Dougie Doyle, Otto Copenhagen.
Left tackles: Charlie Toogood, Fred Golan, Edgar Thompson.
Left guards: Gene Wilkins, Gerald Jakcuke, Rex Hoy.
Centers: Tom Novak, Francis Mandula, Bob Mulken.
Right guards: Fred Lorenz, Ardie Means, John Sedlacek, Robert Patton.
Right tackles: Carl Samuelson, Harold Becker, Gene Slim.
Right ends: Jack Pesek, Ed Nyden.
Quarterbacks: Dick Thompson, Del Wiegand, Joe Farrington.
Left halfbacks: Dick Hutton, Bill Mueller, Jim Myers, Kenny Fischer.
Right halfbacks: Cletus Fischer, Junior Collopy, Bob Ackerman.
Fullbacks: Dale Adams, Darwin Salestrom, George Bostwick.

Husker Two-Mile Squad Meets MU

Coach Ed Wier's two-mile squad, seeking its initial dual win of the season, will meet the Missouri five-man team Saturday morning at Columbia.

Wier has named Harold Kopf, Lexington; Don Morrison, Lincoln; Stan Martin, Broken Bow; Don Theil, Oshkosh and Warren Koenig, Lincoln to carry the Husker colors Saturday.

Kopf has been suffering with the flu this week and may not participate in Saturday's compet. Henry Schleuter will run in his place in the event he does not make the trip, Weir has announced.

Play IM Football Playoffs Monday

Wet grounds forced postponement of the intramural football playoffs Thursday night.

Lou Means, director of intramural athletics, cancelled the three Thursday night because of adverse weather conditions. Two of the three contests will be played Monday afternoon and the third contest will be played Tuesday.

Beta Theta Pi will clash with the Delta Tau Delta crew in Monday's feature game. The winner will play Alpha Tau Omega Tuesday for the fraternity league championship. Sigma Alpha Epsilon will tangle with the loser of this game for third and fourth place honors. Another Monday night game pits Kappa Sigma against the Beta Sigma Psi outfit in a play-off for fifth place. Newman club meets Ag YMCA Tuesday in an independent league playoff battle.

Big Six Grid Machines See Loop Action

Big Six grid machines get down to serious business this week-end with every loop eleven slated to tangle with conference competition.

The University of Nebraska Cornhuskers will travel to Columbia Saturday to meet the Missouri Tigers in an important game for both clubs. The Huskers and Tigers are currently tied for the loop lead with two victories and no defeats.

Coach Bernie Masterson's squad received a jolt with the loss of place-kick artist Bob Costello. Costello suffered a spinal injury in the Kansas State game and will be out for the remainder of the season.

Plot Aerial Attack.

Missouri Coach Don Faurot placed emphasis on passing in Wednesday's drill. He believes the aerals will be needed to cope with Nebraska's weight advantage in the line. The Tigers will be at virtually full strength for Saturday's contest.

Iowa State's Cyclones, who suffered their worst football defeat in history at the hands of Oklahoma last year, 63-0, hope to give those same Sooners a few uneasy moments at Norman Saturday. End Dean Laun returned to the Iowa State squad Wednesday to bring

Coliseum Open House

All recreational facilities of the Coliseum will be available for any University of Nebraska student Saturday afternoon, Nov. 1, according to an announcement from L. E. Means, director of physical education. The open house hours will be from 1:30 to 3:30.

the list of regulars to full strength for the contest.

Revised Lineup.

Coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma, disgusted by his team's 20-7 losing performance against T.C.U. last week, is working with a revised lineup that includes only three players who started the opening game of the season. Quarterback Jack Mitchell and Tackles Wade Walker and Bill Morris are on the injured list with Walker a doubtful starter against the Cyclones.

Kansas State, struggling under the nation's longest losing streak for a major football team, 22 games, will journey to Lawrence Saturday to play the Kansas Jayhawks. It was against the Jayhawks that Kansas State won its last Big Six football game in November of 1944.

However, Coach George Sauer's Jayhawks aren't taking the pending battle too lightly. But by virtue of its undefeated but twice tied record and the presence of Halfback Ray Evans, Kansas is favored to win by three or more touchdowns.

Scarfs are Versatile

Scarfs are showpieces this fall in soft-to-the touch PURE SILK by Glentex. Smart to underline a collar, highlight a coat, tie Gibson Style, swoop over a low neckline, or drape around a hat. They come in glowing colors... are 2.95 and 3.95.

Neckwear First Floor
MILLER & PAINE