

Homecoming Sales Lively

With only six more days until the Homecoming Dance Nov. 8, ticket sales are going fast, Corn Cob and Tassel representatives reported Saturday.

The Homecoming Dance will be held in the Coliseum Saturday, Nov. 8 from 8 p. m. to midnight, and will climax a day of house display and parade floats judging, rallies, and the University of Kansas-Nebraska homecoming game Saturday afternoon.

Homecoming dance festivities will be highlighted by presentation of the 1947-48 Pep Queen, who will succeed last year's Queen, Phyl Harris. George Olson and his "Music of Tomorrow" band has been booked for the homecoming affair.

Tickets are tagged at $3 per couple, and are being sold by members of Corn Cobs and Tassels, and at booths in the Union and Social Sciences building.

Faculty to Give Music Recital

The second of four school of music faculty recitals today at 4 p. m. in the Union ballroom will present Miss Mary Louise Boehm, pianist; Miss Katherine Dean, contralto, and Mr. David Foltz, baritone. Two other instructors, Miss Charma Davies and Mr. John Blyth, will accompany.

An unusual group of songs by the outstanding American orchestral composer, Samuel Barber, will be the featured numbers of Miss Dean's portion of the recital. Preceded by a Handel air, the Barber songs vary in mood from "Rain Has Fallen" to "I Hear an Army."

Longest work of the recital is a Mozart sonata which Miss Boehm, who presented three recitals in Chicago's Orchestra Hall last season, will play. Traditional concert songs by Brahms and Beethoven comprise Mr. Foltz' group.

Police To Direct Traffic At 14 & S

L. F. Seaton, university purchasing agent, has agreed to a proposal by the Campus Improvement Committee of the Student Council which will make possible traffic direction by a campus policeman at the intersection of 14th and S streets daily between class hours.

Dale Ball, committee chairman, stated that this action will take effect the early part of November.
