

Huskers Rally For KU Eleven

Bucking a cold, sharp wind that swept the Memorial Stadium practice grounds Thursday night, the Nebraska Cornhuskers went about final drills in a businesslike fashion as they eyed the Kansas Jayhawk battle Saturday afternoon.

Coach Bernie Masterson drilled his Husker charges once again with stress on pass defense. The Nubbins filled the air with footballs while running from KU formations.

In spite of the fact that Nebraska has not lost a home game to the invading Jayhawks, Coach George Sauer's Mt. Oread charges are tabbed a two-touchdown favorite to snap the jinx and virtually eliminate the Huskers from further Big Six title consideration.

But the Huskers have not conceded victory. Instead they only point to last year when the high-riding Kansans were rocked 16-14 by an underdog Husker eleven on Lawrence soil.

The Huskers have placed hopes for a Homecoming win on the sturdy, hard-churning legs of Jim Myers. Myers was moved to a starting assignment Monday to add power to the Husker offensive machine.

Jacupke at Guard.

Another new face in the Nebraska starting lineup will be that of Gerald Jacupke, 201-pound guard, who replaced Gene Wilkins in the first team line. Jacupke's outstanding reserve performances earned him the starting berth.

Only other advantage in addition to the home win jinx that the Huskers hold over the Jayhawks is in the weight statistics. Tony Blazine's linemen, with an average of 214, give the Nebraskans a team average of 199 while the lighter Kansans tip the Fairbanks at a mere 186-pound average.

In spite of the weight disadvantage the Kansas eleven paces the Big Six in every defensive department while ranking fourth nationally in total defense. They also rank sixth in rushing defense.

Big Six Choices.

Five all-Big Six choices dot the Kansas roster in the persons of Capt. Ray Evans, halfback; Otto Schnellbacher and Dave Schmidt, ends; Don Fambrough, guard, and KU's place-kicking expert, and Lynne McNutt, quarterback.

Evans, a triple-threat great voted by many as Kansas' greatest athlete, sparks the Jayhawk machine that has rolled over Iowa State and Kansas State and battled Oklahoma to a deadlock.

Pair Circuit Games Slated For Week End

Two conference games are slated for this week-end with Nebraska meeting Kansas and Oklahoma going against Kansas State. Missouri and Iowa State travel outside the loop to tangle with Duke and Drake, respectively.

The second largest home crowd in Cornhusker football history, 38,000, is expected to watch undefeated, but twice-tied, Kansas meet the Nebraska Cornhuskers Saturday. Coach George Sauer's Jayhawks will try to turn a trick never before accomplished by a Kansas university team in a long time—defeat Nebraska on its home field.

In the Husker camp, Coach Bernie Masterson shifted Halfback Jim Myers and Guard Gerald Jacupke to the starting eleven. The Jayhawks ran against Nebraska plays Wednesday, and Sauer declared his squad in good shape. The Kansans will leave for Lincoln Friday noon.

Oklahoma, holder of one of the two ties with Kansas, will have Fullback Eddie Davis and Center John Rapacz in the lineup against Kansas State Saturday. The pair have been absent a week because of injuries. Kansas State Mentor Sam Francis did not hold his usual Wednesday scrimmage because of excess injuries in the past two games. Regular Fullback Jim Stehley and sub-Fullback Kenny Johnston will be sidelined Saturday by injuries.

Missouri Coach Don Faurot named 36 men who will make the trip to Durham, N. C., for the Duke contest. Ed Quirk, injured Tiger fullback, returned to duty Wednesday and was included on the traveling squad. Bus Entsminger did not suffer a fractured cheek bone in the Nebraska game as was originally feared and will be ready to go in the quarterback spot. The first game of the new Missouri-Duke series will be the Blue Devils' Homecoming battle.

JAYHAWK STARS—These four KU gridders, All Big Six selections, will be out to spoil the Huskers' Homecoming party Saturday afternoon. With another All-Big Six choice, Captain Ray Evans, the George Sauer touted eleven rates a heavy favorite over a heavier Cornhusker aggregation. Otto Schnellbacher and Dave Schmidt are ends, Don Fambrough is a guard and Lynne McNutt plays quarterback.

ENTER PROPER RAMP.

A. J. Lewandowski, athletic director, urges all students attending the game to enter the stadium through the ramp with the number that corresponds with the number on the student ticket. Also, students should have ticket number three ready to be taken at the door.

Scarlet Two-Mile Squad Host KU

Coach Ed Weir's two mile tracksters will be seeking their initial win of the campaign in their final dual test before the conference meet when they entertain the Kansas long distance squad Saturday morning at 11:00 on the Memorial Stadium track. Harold Kopf, Lexington; Don Theil, Oshkosh; Don Morrison, Lincoln; and Warren Koenig, Lincoln, are definite Scarlet starters. Stan Martin, Broken Bow, has come up with a lame foot and may not be able to run. Henry Schleuter, Schuyler, will complete the squad if Martin is unable to go.

Building new telephone lines for you takes well planned teamwork by these two »

"He's service... I'm supply"

Behind this giant plow train, burying a new transcontinental telephone cable, there's a story of typical teamwork by Western Electric in helping the Bell Telephone Companies to give you faster, even better service.

As the supply member of the Bell Telephone team, Western Electric is producing the coaxial cable which can carry 1800 telephone messages at once—can transmit television network programs, too. Complex machines—designed by Western Electric engineers—are turning out this cable mile after mile to keep the plow trains pushing forward on schedule.

Ever since 1882, Western Electric has been an integral part of Bell Telephone service—helping to make it the world's best at the lowest possible cost.
