New Addition . . .

For the past few years the Daily Nebraskan has subscribed to a slick, brown paged insert sheet containing pictures of college students in all parts of the country and their various activities in campus life. Today's edition of the paper contains our own insert which shall be a regular feature hereafter. We hope you like the idea.

The insert will reproduce pictures exceptionally well due to the slick surface, so once a week we will give our own version of campus activity here at home. Last spring it was planned that the Daily Nebraskan would become an eight-page daily but the printers changed our minds. Even though our circulation remained the same we still were forced to take a reduction in pages, one eight page a month. A wire service was another new feature but that too went out the window with the limitation of four pages a day.

Complaints of too much advertising may or may not be well founded but we have no choice. Our contracts with advertisers were made last spring and during the summer when it was thought that The Daily would be a larger paper. You, our readers don't like it but that only begins to express our real feelings about it.

Through the use of this new insert which will be made larger in the near future, we will be able to partially reduce the ad-heavy makeup of the regular editions to give you more intensive coverage of social events, intramural athletic contests and campus life in general.

If, at any time we can secure the newsprint you will get the benefit of a larger paper with a wire news service, but until then we will strive to meet your demands with any new additions to the paper that we are able to make.

Straight Stuff

Jody Wolcott pulled a quickie last Sunday night. When her date called she said she had the flu, but Jody was seen at Ashland later with another date.

Clive Ostenberg, ATO, and Mimi Loomis, DG, started their pinning last week as a big joke, and now Clive seems to think it's a pretty good idea.

From over Theta way Anne Miles is dating Phi Delt prexy Don Draeger again. While sister Billie Trombla has been dating Phi Gam Bob Nickerson.

One of the big events coming off this weekend is the Delt party which all the coeds have been clamoring to have dates to.

Big plans are being made for Thanksgiving vacation by Jacquie Merrit, Kappa, and Rus Gustavson, Delt.

Janet Loudon, Gamma Phi, sprouted up with Joe Philbrick's ATO pin after going together for one weekend. Pretty fast work, eh Joe?

Another Gamma Phi doing all right for herself is Noima Clements. She received a ring Monday night from Johnnie Lehman.

Bob Berkshire, ATO, has been debating if Joan Noble has a date for the Military Ball or not. Why not give it a try, Bob?

Carol Calder, Alpha Phi pledge, is dated up indefinitely with Rus Laird, Si gEp. Don't be discouragedw, though, fellas. This deal isn't in writing.

If there ever was anything between Myra Maupin and Phi Delt Fred Schroeder, it's now a thing of the past. There seems to have been a parting of the ways for these two.

Sig Chi pledge Harold Roselius would give his eye-teeth to know the names of the four gals who called him the other night. Besides expressing a desire to meet him, these mystery women made him an offer with possibilities plus, and Rosy wants to take up this offer.

Tom Novak was seen saluting a mailman the other day. Is he suffering from war nerves, or was he just a little punchy from a rugged Saturday afternoon?

The Sig Chi pledge sweetheart dance takes place Saturday night, and Tom Donohue still hasn't decided whom he's going to take. Don't give up hope, gals, you may be the lucky one.

Biggest plans for his weekend is the Kosmet Klub Review. We wouldn't miss seeing the fellas don their feminine curves and what-not to present an evening of tremendous entertainment. See you there!

Gals Get Leap On Leap Year At MB Ball

Nebraska coeds are getting the leap on Leap Year! First it was the Sadie Hawkins dance which gave the gals an excuse for actively going after their men, and now the forthcoming Mortar Board Ball hands them the opportunity to dial the phone instead of fervently awaiting its ring to ask the "men of the hour" for a date for one of the big dances of the year.

And the coeds are getting the break where it counts—financially, that it. Unlike the price of tickets for the Military Ball, an occasion which may be attended if the male purse can stand the strain, the amount asked per couple for the Black Masque Ball is $3.00 regardless of dress.

Mazoola.

While $3.00 may not seem like the smallest amount of mazoola to the average coed, there still is enough time left until Dec. 12, the date of the Ball, for each girl to stack away enough pennies to make the difference—when the ticket buying time comes.

Members of the Tassels will be selling tickets which means that anyone even thinking of going will be asked if she cares to purchase one. The only acceptable answer this season is "yes."

Corsages.

Then comes the fun, or call it what you will, of making your date a corsage, arranging to take him out to dinner—if he insists, of course—transporting him to the Coliseum via taxi, wheelbarrow, little red wagon, or piggy-back, depending upon where the coed classifies herself in a range from Victorian fraility to modern amazon.

Remember the facts: Mortar Board Ball, December 12, Coliseum, tickets at $3.00. To be kept well in mind is the item that the women foot the bill from start to finish. You lucky girls!

Big Six . . .

9, nearly a week in advance of the Big Six session in Kansas City.

The athletic advisory board is comprised of three faculty members, two alumni, an "N" Club member, and three ex-officio university officials.

Previous to the war the Student Council had a representative on the board. "The council failed to elect a member for the year 1944-45, subsequently the board personnel was reconstituted to include only one student," Harold Mozer, council president, said.
