WEEK END NOTES:

Include mention of the terrific corsages Nebraska coeds concocted for their dates at the Mortar Board ball. Christmas trees, lighted signs were evidence that originality really hit the high point... the clever reproduction of a camera complete with lighted flashbulb drew many compliments... the picnic during intermission and card games kept Companion's photographer running... Question of the evening "Where did she get that white rabbit?"

We'd like to be an Eligible Bachelor
Now that Leap Year is almost here
So we could gather the admiration
Of women far and near
We'd have to improve our "approach" we're sure
To differ every time
For every UN woman already knows
An Eligible Bachelor's "line"

Seventy Attend Labor Institute

Nearly 70 representatives from 14 high schools attended the high school institute on labor problems for students of social studies and debate sponsored by the speech department Saturday at the Temple.

Morning session was completed with talks by Prof. E. C. Buehler, director of Forensics at the University of Kansas; Dr. Leroy T. Laase, chairman of the university's speech department and Dr. Curtis Elliott, of the economics department.

The conference began with a lecture on the history of labor disputes and labor legislation by Dr. Elliott. Dr. Laase then made an analysis of the labor problems question for the purpose of facilitating discussion of the question in conference groups.

Prof Buehler discussed "Do Your Ideas on Labor Sound Better or Worse Than They Are?" with emphasis on the part voice and personality play in setting forth one's idea on the subject.

The afternoon session was devoted to two discussion periods with separate sessions for students and high school faculty members.

Letterip

To the Editor,
The Daily Nebraskan:

The social season is well under way on this campus, and we believe that this year it brings with it a peculiarly serious problem. A big dance means a name band, and that means a band composed of members of the American Federation of Musicians. The problem begins with the standard contract of the American Federation of Musicians, a contract which has been and will be signed by many student organizations. This contract, made between the organization, referred to in the contract as the employer, and the musicians, referred to in the contract as the employees, includes a clause that "the musicians performing services under this contract must be members of the American Federation of Musicians."

Section 1, L. B. 344, Neb. 1947 Laws. Provides: "...nor shall any individual or corporation or association of any kind enter into any contract, written or oral, to exclude persons from employment because of membership in or non-membership in a labor organization."

Section 2 of that same statute reads: "The term 'labor organization' means any organization of any kind, or any agency or employee representation committee or plan, which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work."

There should be no question that the American Federation of Musicians is a labor organization.

It should be remembered that this statute was passed to make operative the provisions of Sections 13, 14 and 15 of Article 15 of the Constitution of Nebraska. It seems to us that the Constitution and the statute prohibit an organization entering into a contract with a band which will exclude persons from employment because of non-membership in the labor organization.

The penalty for violation is contained in section 3 of the statute, which says:

"Any individual, corporation, or association that enters into a contract after the effective date of this act in violation of the provisions of section 1 of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars."

We do not know the particular provisions of the contracts that have been and will be made by the student groups. It may be that the contracts do not contain the clause in question, or one similar. However, as pointed out, that clause appears in the standard form contract.

Neither do we know the final interpretation which will be placed on this law, and our conclusions may be faulty. Nevertheless, it seems to us that a serious problem is presented. It may be that our student organizations are violating the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Sincerely,
PHI DELTA PHI

Choral Union Gives Sparkling Rendition of Handel's 'Messiah'

BY SAM WARREN.

Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," beloved the world over for more than two centuries, was given one of the most satisfying performances on this campus in recent years Cunday in the coliseum by the University Choral Union, under the baton of Dr. Arthur Westbrook. The vast audience of more than 8,000 occupying every available seat and standing in two corridors heard four soloists whose individual arias were outstanding, an orchestra whose accompaniment was the securest in many years, and a supple chorus that rose to the various demands of its dozen portion.

And it was the chorus, as usual, that was the primary performer. The chorus responded to Dr. Westbrook's studied direction with colorings that ran from tumultuous full-choir climaxes to the most ethereally soft shadings. Particularly notable was the flexible timbre of the tenor section whose contrasts of extreme pianissimo and resounding full-voice were memorable in "His yoke is easy."

Among the four soloists, tenor J. Dayton Smith and soprano Jean Thompson easily took the solo honors. Smith's rendition of the opening recitative and air, "Comfort ye my people" and "Every valley shall be exalted" set the mood of excellence that pervaded the remainder of the program. His ringing tenor was a welcome return from last year's soloists.

Soprano Solos Good.

Miss Thompson's well-placed soprano, with its focused, arid type of brilliance, wa especially effective in the four soprano recitatives which relate the story of the angels' visitation to the shepherds in the fields and which leads to the chorus "Glory to God in the highest." The familiar "Come unto Him" was handled with much polish and was a definite highlight of the program, although her "I know that my Redeemer liveth"

Union Announces Saturday Bridge Tourney Winners

The second round of the Union bridge tournament was completed Saturday with the teams of Bill Tyson and Joyce Keckley and J. A. Carey and Kay McKay, emerging as leaders.

Third and final contest in this series will be announced after Christmas vacation.

North-South teams in order of finish: Bill Tyson and Joyce Keckley, 36½; Chic Lang and Jack Dahlgren, 32½; Stan Cook and Ed Tillman, 28½; Guttenburg and Koliago, 28½; Bayard Taylor and John Huston, 25½; Ed Allen and Jack Pickett, 24½; Ken Fitch and Keith Fitch, 24; Stan Hamilton and Ed Maser, 20½; Bob Lookabaugh and Jim Kuntzleman, 19; Al Mavis and Bill Campbell, 18½; Joe Schenk and George Cory, 18.

East-West teams in order of finish: J. A. Carey and Gay McKay, 32; Phillip Jones and E. Von Frange, 31½; D. R. Irbie and R. E. Brandt, 31½; Tony Birch and Donald Nichols, 30; H. W. Potter and Bob Capple, 29; Ed Snad and W. O. McDowell, 27½; Clark Newman and Ted Deal, 21; Jim Jensen and Bruce Fletcher, 20; Richard Mattison and Bob Remillard, 18; Monroe and Harvey, 17½; Joe Sauth and George Shaw, 17.

was somewhat marred by phrasing inadequacies.

The vibrant contralto of Mrs. Pauline Anderson was heard to best advantage in "He shall feed His flock," which was considerably truer in pitch than "He was despised," an air otherwise sung with finish. Donald Ellis, lately of St. Louis and Chicago opera companies, for some reason did not choose to project his mellow baritone sufficiently to be heard throughout the coliseum, and seemed to have a predilection for dragging the tempo.

Orchestra Capable.

Prepared by Emanuel Wishnow, the University Orchestra exhibited precision in string and brass sections, as well as a general soundness. The audience, unfortunately, had to do without the tranquil "Pastoral Symphony" interlude due to a mishap which incapacitated the organ shortly before performance time. The over-all success of the traditional presentation can be credited to its conductor.

Check Lost, Found Now, or Trudge To West Stadium

What you have lost may have been found! and what was found may be in the Union office.

Fountain pens, pencils, cigarette lighters, cigarette cases, glass cases, pipes, jewelry, compacts and even a few pairs of eye glasses fill the drawers. Scarves, gloves, books, notebooks, shirts, sweaters, assorted gym clothes line the shelves.

All it takes is an inquiry, and a bit of a description, and you may traverse from rags to riches—with the Union's blessing. Students are advised that even though they may have asked for a lost article once, it may have been turned in later; try again.

Any articles not called for at the Union office by Christmas vacation will be taken to the West Stadium for further storage. It's a long walk to West Stadium!
