

Nubbins Quintet Meets York B; 1st Week End Foe

Nebraska university's B-team cagers will open their 1948 campaign Friday night when they tangle with the York College B quintet. Tipoff is slated for 6:30.

The Husker reserves return to their home maples Saturday night to entertain the Morningside B club on the coliseum hardwoods. The Saturday test will start at 7:30. A return engagement with the Souix City Iowa cagers will be played on the Morningside court Jan. 17.

Coach John Thompson will take an 11-man traveling squad to York for the Friday's test. The Nubbins will be seeking their second victory of the current season at the expense of the York five.

Own single win

In their first game, Dec. 17, the Nubbins trounced Nebraska State Trade school of Milford by a 66-31 count. Ten Huskers saw action in the contest and all registered their names in the scoring column. Thurman Wright and Kenny Anderson were the top scorers for the Nubbins with 11 points, while Fritz Simpson and Bob Allen collected 10 and nine respectively.

Coach Thompson has been putting his basketeers through their paces this week prepping for the heavy week-end schedule. The Nubbins scrimmaged Coach Tony Sharpe's frosh quintets both Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Samuelson to start

Carl Samuelson has been working in the center slot as Bob Allen moved up for part-time duty with the varsity. Samuelson is slated to open at the pivot spot in the York test.

Wright and Simpson have received Thompson's nod for starting forward berths Friday while Jack Cady and Anderson will open at the guard spots.

Others who will make the York hop are: Doyle Busskohl, Jim Van Burgh, Jack Pesek, Bob Ackerman, Allen and Winter.

Thompson's charges will get only a one-day rest following Saturday's encounter with Morningside. They are scheduled for tangle with Nebhaska freshmen in Monday's Missouri-Nebraska conference clash.

IM Cagesters In Close Tilts

Although still in the early round of play, the intramural cage race has boiled down to a bitter two and three team chase following Wednesday night's tests.

Alpha Tau Omega squeezed past the Phi Gamma Delta cagers 24-22 in a nip-and-tuck battle to remain the only unbeaten club in League I play. The loss was the first setback for the Fiji five in three starts.

Phi Delta Theta owns a 3-0 record to top League II. The Phi Deltis toppled previously unbeaten Beta Theta Pi, 25-23, Wednesday. Sigma Chi also has a 2-0 record in the same loop.

Three Teams Tied.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Phi Epsilon are deadlocked with 2-0 marks in League III of the interfraternity A loop.

Because of the conflict with the Husker wrestling meet with the Iowa State grapplers Tuesday night, the intramural department has rescheduled part of next Tuesday's contests. Five games have been scheduled for play on the Coliseum courts Saturday afternoon.

Retherford Tops Husker Scoring Parade With 126

Potting 50 field goals and converting 26 free throws, Claude Retherford, French Lick, Ind., cage star, has gained a firm hold on the Husker scoring lead.

The hustling forward's 126-point total is 43 more than his closest rival Guard Joe Brown, who has netted an 83 point total. Both have participated in 12 games.

Forward Rod Cox and Guard Neal Mosser each have collected 77. Dick Schlieger has racked up 64 tallies. Bob Cerv has netted 60 in ten games and Bus Whitehead has meshed 54 points.

Other high Husker scorers include: Paul Shields, 41; Anton Lawry, 20; Henry Cech, 16, and Dick Srb, 9.

The Huskers are idle until Monday night when they entertain the Missouri Tigers.

Missouri launches its loop campaign Saturday night by tangling with Iowa State at Ames. Kansas is host to Colorado Saturday.

Oklahoma is idle until Jan. 17, when they entertain Iowa State. Kansas State, who jumped into the title favorites role with ten straight non-conference victories, opens its conference play Monday night against the Colorado Buffs.
