

Cornell Wrestlers Blank Scarlet, 28-0

BY JIM MILLER.
Daily Nebraskan Sports Writer.

Nebraska's wrestling debut was spoiled Tuesday night as Cornell College of Mount Vernon, Iowa, gained an easy 28-0 win over the Scarlet at the Coliseum.

The National AAU and NCAA champs lived up to expectations as they came through with six decisions and two falls.

In the 155-pound class, Roger Snook pinned Nebraska's Dick Hill in 2 minutes even with a front grape-vine and a half nelson. Snook placed second in last year's AAU and NCAA tourneys.

Heavyweight Rex Hoy was thrown in 7:25 by Cornell's Al Partin. Partin used a half nelson to gain the win.

CALHOUN NUDGED.

Jerry Calhoun was the one bright spot in Nebraska's crew but he finally succumbed before Kent Lange's tactics in the 165 pound division by a 9-4 decision.

National AAU and NCAA 145 pound ruler Lowell Lange had things his own way as he decided Jack Tamai, 4-0.

BROWN DECISIONED.

Cornell's Dale Sherill gained a 5-2 verdict over Kenny Brown in the 121 pound curtain-raiser.

Nebraska's Andy Marinkovich Jack Barrett and Mickey Kelly proved easy victims for the Iowa grapplers in the 175, 136 and 128 pound classes respectively.

Coach Pat Patterson's grapplers play host Friday night to Colorado University and again on Saturday night when Colorado State invades the Coliseum. Matches start at 7:30 p.m. The summaries:

- 121 pounds—Dale Sherill (C) decisioned Kenneth Brown (N), 5-2.

Phi Gamma Delta Paces Marksmen

At the end of three complete rounds, the Phi Gamma Delta rifle team leads the intramural rifle tourney with two successive wins.

The Fiji marksmen notched their second win by defeating the Sigma Nu shooters 741-592 last Friday. In Friday's other match the Phi Kappa Psi squad defeated the Tau Kappa Epsilon team 717-517.

The Pershing Rifle squad posted the highest team total in competition to date Monday night when they fired a 797 total in a match with the ASME Engineers. The Engineers notched a 716 total.

Sigma Phi Epsilon defeated the Pioneer Co-op crew in Monday's second match 737-699.

Next rifle matches will be held Thursday afternoon at 4:15 at the rifle range in the basement of Andrews hall. The Univets meet the ROTC squad and the Pershing Rifle team will test the NROTC marksmen.

Sgt. J. A. Lovold of the University of Nebraska Military department is in charge of the intramural event.

ATO's Ahead In Track Meet; Kehl Sets Mark

Leonard Kehl, a freshman of ATO, made the big news in the first day's intra-mural track meet activities when he set a new record of 12'6" in the pole vault, breaking Jim Myers' old record of 11' by a foot and a half. Kehl barely missed on a try for 13'.

Three other vaulters tied Myers' old record. They were Junior Collopy, also of ATO and a halfback on the football team, Dick Capek, Phi Delta Theta, and Haffmeister of Kappa Sigma.

The ATO's jumped into an early lead in the meet by scoring 20 points in the first three events which were finished Tuesday afternoon. These events were the pole vault, 2 lap race, and shot put. Following the Taus were Phi Delta Theta with 11, Phi Kappa Psi with eight, and the Sig Alphas with six.
