

Delta Upsilon Edges ATO; Captures IM Track Title

BY FRITZ SIMPSON. (Daily Nebraskan Sports Writer)

It took the final event of the meet to recide the 1948 Indoor Track Championship Monday under Nebraska's east stadium. Delta Upsilon set a new record of 1:57.9 in the four-lap relay to nose out Alpha Tau Omega for the team championship. Delta Upsilon scored 46 T-2 points, and Alpha Tau Omega came in second with 44-13/14. Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi, and Phi Kappa Psi finished in that order to round out the first five places.

Three new records were set and one was tied during the tree-day meet. Francis Fagot, ATO, clipped off the one-lap race in :29.9 to better his own record of :30.2, set last year. Leonard Kehl, also an ATO, added a second record when he vaulted 12'6" to erase Jim Myers' mark of 11'. Three teams broke the four-lap relay record in the final event. Delta Upsilon owns the few mark of 1:57.9. Phi Delta Theta covered the route in 1:59.6 and Alpha Tau Omega finished third in 2:01.6. The former record, set last year, was 2:01.8.

Bill Moomey, Delta Upsilon, tied the old mark of :05.7 as he raced to the 50-yard dash championship. Al Ruby, Phi Delta Theta, also tied that time in the preliminaries but only managed to finish fourth in the finals.

Individual Co-champions.

Fagot and Kehl captured high point honors as each man earned 16 points. Fagot won the one-lap run, took second in the 50-yard dash, and ran on the third-place relay team. Kehl copped the pole vault, ran second in the two-lap race, and ran on the third-place relay team.

Husker Mat Squad Meets IS Teachers

Iowa State Teachers college, runner-up to Cornell (Iowa) in the NCAA wrestling tournament last year, will be the University of Nebraska's fourth opponent of the season Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the coliseum.

Coach Pat Patterson's grapplers have one win in three matches to date. The Scarlet bowed 28-0 to Cornell in the season opener. Colorado university fell to the Huskers Friday night, but Colorado State Teachers salvaged a Colorado victory by dumping the Nebraskans, 20-6, Saturday.

Last Home Match.

Tuesday's match will wind up the home activities for Patterson's pupils until the district Olympic tryouts which are to be held at the coliseum, April 1-2.

Iowa S.T.C. has outstanding grapplers in each weight class including three 1947 NCAA champions in Russell Bush, Bill Koll and Bill Nelson. A fourth star on Coach Dave McCuskey's squad is Gerald Leeman, 1946 NCAA champion and winner of 12 consecutive matches in the 128 pound class during two years of intercollegiate wrestling competition.

Roster of Champs.

Coach McCuskey's roster reads like a who's who of NCAA and AAU wrestling. In the 121 pound division is Harold Mott, Iowa state AAU title holder; 145 pounds—Koll, who is 1946 and 1947 NCAA champ and undefeated in 16 matches during three collegiate years; 155 pounds—Jerry Rohler, a freshman prospect; 165 pounds—Nelson, who won NCAA and state AAU championships last year as a freshman and dropped one match in seven starts; 175 pounds—LeRoy Alitz, who captured six of seven dual meet bouts last winter; heavyweight—Fred Stoeker, a six foot two inch, 200 pound sophomore.

The Teachers swept through seven meets in 1947, going undefeated but tied twice.

Husker Cagers Capture Initial Loop Victory

Nebraska University's Cornhuskers won their first Big Seven conference start Saturday night when they downed the Colorado Buffaloes on the Buff's court. The Huskers came from behind in the final five minutes to capture a 59-55 victory.

Both clubs were unable to hit the basket consistently. Colorado out-scored the Huskers from the field by one basket but trailed the Nebraskans in the percentage column. The Scarlet cagers dropped 26 percent of their shots while Colorado hit only 20 percent.

Claude Retherford, Nebraska's top scorer, dropped two free throws to knot the score with five minutes remaining in the ball game. A minute later Retherford hit two more charity tosses to put the Huskers in front to stay. Guard Neal Mosser and Retherford topped the scorers from both teams with 11 points each. Metzger and Beattie were the high men for Colorado with nine points. Coach Good's cagers now hold a record of one victory and two defeats in circuit competition.

Table with 4 columns: Player, Points, Rebounds, Assists. Lists Nebraska players: Shields (2), Brown (1), Cox (3), Retherford (3), Lawry (1), Srb (0), Schlegler (2), Whitehead (2), Mosser (4), Cech (1). Lists Colorado players: Hills (2), Metzger (3), Rolander (2), Besemann (3), Bell (0), Waiseth (4), Fuller (3), Beattie (2), Sweeney (1), Ley (0).

FEM FUN

Because of the lack of interest, there will be no Badminton Club second semester. A Rifle Club is being organized to take its place. Those who signed up for this club at the Activity Mart will be notified after exams and given more definite information. Anyone else who is interested may sign up on the W.A.A. bulletin board before Wednesday night. No experience in handling a rifle is necessary. The W.A.A. office will be closed during exam week.

Air Reservists.

This is mandatory for the 535th Bomb Squadron and the 210th Composite Squadron.

The school meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 20, in the 40 and 8 club in the Lincoln Hotel. The speaker will be Col. R. T. Nichols, assistant Chief of Staff, A-1, 2nd Air Force.

N.C.A.A. Names Husker Athletic Staff Members

Three members of the Nebraska University intercollegiate athletic staff have been re-elected to National Collegiate Athletic association committees. The men were re-elected at the annual N.C.A.A. meeting in New York City recently.

A. J. Lewandowski, business manager, was again named to the N.C.A.A. baseball committee, and Charles Miller, gymnastic coach, was re-elected to the gymnastic committee.

B. R. Patterson, Husker wrestling coach, was elected chairman of the N.C.A.A. wrestling rules committee. Patterson is also chairman of the Olympic wrestling committee.
