Huskers Halter Sodak State by 66 to 56

Vol. 48-No. 73

Daily Nehraskan

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA Wednesday, February 4, 1948

BIZET'S CARMEN-Portrayed here by Dorothy Slemmons, Lincoln, prevents Robert Rouch (Don Jose) from striking Robert Anderson (Zuniga). Ray Schaumberg (Remendado), lower right, assists her. This scene, snapped at a rehearsal, is part of the forthcoming School of Fine Arts production of the opera "Carmen" which starts tomorrow.

Don Crowe Will Direct

Home Ec Group Lois Thorfinnson Starts Ducat Sale Installed to Head For Candle Ball Ag Campus YW

Tickets are now on sale for the Lois Thorfinnson was installed as president of Ag YWCA Tuesto be held Saturday evening, Feb. 7, in the Student Activities with the new Ag YMCA officers. with the new Ag YMCA officers. Other new officers installed were: Mavis Musgrave, vice president; Ruth Swanson, secretary; Helen Oshner, treasurer, and La-Verna Acker, district representa-

Jackrabbit Rally Falls Short; 17 Scarlet Cagers See Action

Coach Harry Good's Nebraska cage squad fought off a spirited challenge by a scrappy South Dakota State quintet Tuesday night to bounce back in the win column with a 66-56 decision in a ragged contest at the Coliseum. Good swept the players' bench during the evening's action and sent 17 Huskers into active duty against Coach Reuban Frost's invaders.

The visiting Jackrabbits scored on a tipoff play to draw first blood before Neal Mosser and Claude Retherford potted two-pointers to shove the Huskers into a lead they never relinquished.

The two clubs battled point for point for the first five minutes of play. Eight minutes had elapsed before the Scarlet could start pulling away and move into a 23-16 lead.

Reserves See Duty.

Coach Good's regulars were relieved after ten minutes of action. The reserves added a little fight to the cause and hiked the count to 35-22 with three minutes re-maining in the first canto. Dick Srb and Joe Brown paced the brief Nebraska splurge. The Huskers sported a 37-26 halftime margin.

Good started the second half with a fresh third string with the single exception of Bus Whitehead. The lanky pivot man, who copped high scoring honors for the Huskers with 13 tallies, poured eight straight points through the hoops within five minutes to spark an early final half Husker drive.

The South Dakotans would not quit and fought back, cutting the (See HUSKERS, Page 3)

Name Beauties At Tea Dance

". . . Where the girls are the fairest . . ."

Traditional Nebraska beauty will be promenaded at the Valentine tea dance, Friday, Feb. 13. On this unlucky date, six lucky University women will be disclosed as 1948 Beauty Queens, under the sponsorship of the Student Foundation.

dent Foundation. Powers Judge. John Robert Powers, famed model agency head, has selected the six "fairest" for the event from pictures of the present 12 semi-finalists. These girls were chosen from many original con-testants by Lorenzo Conarico. testants by Lorenzo Conarico, buyer for Brandeis' of Omaha; buyer for Brandeis' of Omaha; Ben, the Hairdresser, of Lincoln and Miss Lillian Anderson, of Lincoln's Gold and Co. The semi-finalists include: Bar-bara Bush, Kappa Alpha Theta; Bobby DeJarnette, Alpha Phi; Nancy Glyan, Delta Delta Delta Delta; Priscilla Knudsen, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Ellie Lykke, Alpha Phi; Joan McMahon, Pi Phi; Kay Weeke Delta Camma; Joann Pal-

Opens Spring Convo Series

Ezequiel Padillia, a leading Mexican statesman, has been engaged for a convocation appearance Thursday, Feb. 5 at 11 a.m. in the Union ballroom, according to Convocations Chairman Karl Arndt.

An addition to the original schedule of speakers and the first of the spring semester, Padillia has occupied four of the highest posts in the Mexican government, those of attorney-general, secretary of education, ambassador to Italy, and foreign minister.

Padillia is a persistent advo-cate of democratic ideals, and has published in this country. Among his several books is "Free Men of America." He holds an hon-orary LL.D. from Columbia uni-versity and has lived in the versity, and has lived in the United States for extended pe-riods of time, and speaks English fluently.

After graduating from the University of Mexico law school, Padillia continued his studies at the Sorbonne in Paris, and at Columbia university. In 1936 he be-came professor of law at the University of Mexico.

As chief of the Mexican dele-gation to the third Consultation of Foreign Ministers meeting at Rio de Janiero in January, 1942, he received world-wide recognition. During the 1945 proceedings of the San Francisco and Chapulte-pec conferences, Padillia distinguished himself for his diplomatic skill and, as a stalwart supporter of United States policies, con-tributed largely to hemispheric unity.

Union Plans Open House for Friday

Besides the dance, featuring the City YMCA

Donald Crowe, Lincoln, will serve as president of the city YMCA for the coming year as a result of the elections held Wed., Jan. 21.

Crowe has also held the posi-tion of YMCA vice president and has represented the group at several conferences. A junior in Arts and Science, he is a former presi-dent of Alpha Phi Omega, Boy Scout fraternity, and president of at the booth in the Ag Union. the Religious Welfare Council.

New vice president is Bill Reuter, Teachers College senior from Fremont. Reuter was formerly Social Chairman of the organization. He has also been active in University Theater.

Other newly elected officers are Karl Quisenberry, district representative; Bill Broaden, secretary, and Bob Gruber, treasurer.

The above officers, along with newly appointed cabinet members will be installed Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the YMCA lounge pastor will give a short talk.

New cabinet members or chair-men to be inducted are: Noon-hour group, Roger Crossgrove; membership, Bill Winkler; fresh-Kline; foreign movies, Ted Soren-Kline; foreign movies, Ted Soren-

Phi Upsilon Omicron Candle Ball building on Ag campus. The dance is semi-formal, according to Vir-

The music of Gene Moyer and his orchestra will be featured at the dance, sponsored by the Home tive. Economics honorary, Prior to the war, it was an annual affair,

Priced at $1.50 a couple, tickets may be purchased from any Phi

Coed Counselors Sponsor Party

Coed Counselors held their traditional freshman party Tuesday evening from 5:30 p. m. to 7:00 p. m. at Ellen Smith hall. Each semester, all incoming freshmen girls are welcomed by the university's big sister organization. The girls meet other freshmen and the Coed Counselors.

in the Temple. Dale Mesner, Niels Wodder, and Past President Ted Sorensen will direct the ceremony. Rev. Richard Nutt, new Methodist student their big sisters to the basketball game.

men, Richard Srb; worship, Don Jensen; social action commission, Charles Goolsby; Faith for Life study, Lyle Japp; social, Bill Mar-key; "N" book, George Slenker; Kline; foreign movies, Ted Soren-sen; Religious welfare council representative, Samuel Beeks and Dean Beihline; alumni chairman, Study, Lyle Japp; social, Bill Mar-key; "N" book, George Slenker;

Lois was chosen in the annual election held Jan. 21. She served last year as acting worship chairman and program chairman of Ag YW. Her other activities include: Home Ec editor of the Cornhusker Countryman, AUF Ag solicitor, and Home Ec club council. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Upsilon Omicron, and Chi Omega.

Vice President Mavis Musgrave was Magnet editor and music chairman last year. She is also a member of Home Ec club council and Phi Upsilon Omicron.

Bernice Young, Ag YW president last semester, was installing

Dairyland Cafeteria To Serve Lunches

Dairyland cafeteria will serve lunch today and tomorrow on first floor of the Dairy building to Organized Agriculture parti-

Menke, Delta Gamma; Joann Pat- nament and a bridge contest. Parton, Delta Gamma; Sherry Swan- ticipants can enter the contests son, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Caro-lyn Westervelt, Gamma Phi Beta; During the and Shirley Wyss, Kappa Delta, conducted in the ballroom.

lyn Westervelt, Gamma Phi Beta: ' During the intermission a truth Joan Wilson, Delta Delta Delta, or consequences program will be to apply for an exchange scholar- tions.

Five Nations Offer Exchange Scholarships to UN Students

ship should call at administration Hall 103 for official application forms. The forms are ready now and must be placed on file in his office on or before Feb. 15.

An announcement from the institute of International Education indicated that there would be exchange scholarships available from Czechoslovakia, Holland, Hungary, Italy and Switzerland.

Czechoslovakia offers payment demic year, October 1 to June 30, with free tuition at the University of Prague, Brno and Bratislava, the State Academy of Art, and the State Academy of Music in Prague.

Graduate Study Open. The Netherlands offers three fellowships for graduate study. Each carries a cash sum sufficient to cover the cost of room and 1. Tuition fees are waived, and application is open to ayone, preferably students under 28 years

The Hungarian government offers several tuition and mainten- Europe,

Dr. G. W. Rosenolf announced ance grants for the academic year Tuesday that any student wishing for study in government institu-

Six fellowships offering living and tuition expenses for the academic year, November thru July, have been offered by the Italian government.

The Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich, Switzerland and the school of Economics and Public Administration in St. Gallen, Switzerland offer tuition grants. It is expected that these will be supplemented by payments toward covering living costs for the aca- living costs in Basel, Bern, Geneva, Lausanne, St. Gallen or Zurich offered by the Universities and Swiss societies.

Several cash offers of $1,000 each covering living costs and some travel have been established by the American Society for Friendship with Switzerland for study at Swiss universities.

Further information concerning exchange scholarships can be obboard from September 1 to July tained from the Office of the Director of Admissions.

Y

This office also has in its possession limited information concerning other types of scholarships (non-exchange) for study in