

Husker Cagers Host to Buffs In Loop Game

Colorado University's rapidly improving basketball team will meet the unpredictable Nebraska Cornhuskers tonight at 7:30 on the Coliseum hardwoods.

This is the second meeting of the two schools this year. The Cornhuskers took a 59-55 victory at Boulder earlier in the season.

The Buffs started the current loop campaign by dropping six in a row. Coach Frosty Cox's crew has come back in its last three circuit contests, defeating Iowa State, Oklahoma and Missouri. Colorado has a season's record of five wins and 11 losses.

Scarlet Contributes.

Nebraska contributed to the conference mixup Saturday night when the Huskers dealt the Iowa State Cyclones a 62-57 defeat. Coach Good's cagers hold a conference record of three victories and five defeats and an all-game record of 9-11. Tonight's contest will be a fight to stay out of the cellar position in the Big Seven.

Coach John Thompson's Nebraska Nubbins will play a preliminary game against Concordia College. The Nubbins previously defeated the Concordia crew, 84-41, at Seward. The preliminary contest will begin at 5:45.

Radio station KOLN will broadcast the varsity game at 7:35 p. m. Probable starting lineup:

Colorado	Nebraska
Rollander (6-5)..... f.	Retherford (6-2)
Hills (6-3)..... f.	Cox (6-3 1/2)
Besemann (6-5)..... c.	Schleiger (6-5)
Metzger (6-11)..... g.	Brown (6-4 1/2)
Waiseth (5-11)..... g.	Cerv (6-3 1/2)

Officials: Cliff Ogden, Wichita; Dick Pulliam, Grand Island.
Game time, 7:30 p. m. Preliminary game 5:45 p. m., Nebraska B vs. Concordia college of Seward.

Copple, DiBiase Take 1st Defeats

Newton Copple of Lincoln, and Mike DiBiase of Omaha, the University of Nebraska's last two unbeaten wrestlers went down to their first defeats of the season during the past week-end.

After taking three straight triumphs, Newt dropped a close 4-5 decision to the University of Oklahoma's Ken Watson. He came back the next night to gain the Cornhuskers' only points against Oklahoma A. & M.

Mike lost his initial match to the Aggies' Dick Hutton, defending N.C.A.A. champion.

Bob (Peewee) Yambor of Omaha leads the Scarlet matmen with an eight-meet total of 22 points. He has been decided twice while winning six times.

Sprague Leads Gymnasts.

Phil Sprague of Beatrice is far ahead of his University of Nebraska gymnastic teammates with 135 1/2 points. Leo Geier of Lincoln is second with 75 1/2 points.

NEBRASKA SPRINTER—Dick Hutton will be one of the Husker sprinters who will carry Nebraska's colors into the Big Seven indoor championships Saturday at Kansas City.

Colorado Drops Tigers, 56-48

Coach Frosty Cox's University of Colorado Buffalos gave further notice of their improvement when they downed Missouri's Tigers on the Boulder court, Monday night, 56-48.

The victory was the third in a row in Big Seven competition for the Buffalos.

Colorado's Carr Besemann and Bob Rolander each dropped five fielders in the last half to help turn back the Tigers. Besemann was high scorer of the game with 22 points. The Tiger's Thorton Jenkins was runner-up with 17.

Colorado held a 26-25 margin at the half after being 12 points ahead three minutes earlier.

The Buffalos now hold a record of three victories and six defeats in loop play. They will go against Nebraska university's Cornhuskers tonight in Lincoln.

Srb Moves Up In Cornhusker Cage Scoring

Substitute Center Dick Srb of Lincoln, who provided the spark that set off the University of Nebraska victory against Iowa State college last Saturday, posted the major change in the Cornhusker basketball scoring race.

Claude Retherford, who shared point making honors with Srb against the Cyclones, boosted his total to 197 points for 20 games.
