

Daily Nehraskan

LINCOLN 8, NEERASKA

Vol. 48-No. 91

ROTC Band Presents Annual Concert Today

The 95-piece university ROTC symphonic band will present its annual concert today at 3 p. m. in the coliseum under the direction of Donald Lentz, who will cele-brate his tenth anniversary as director of the band.

Soloist for the concert is Jack Snider, first hornist. President of the band personnel, Snider is an assistant instructor in brass instruments. He is a member of both the Lincoln and University symphony orchestras. Snider has been a band member for the last five semesters at the university, having attended Peru State Teachers college for two years where he was also a band soloist. A member of the Lincoln Municipal summer band, he is president of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, professional music fraternity. He will play a concerto for French horn by Franz Strauss.

The program will contrast modern numbers such as a group of Latin American pieces stressing dance rhythms with classical numbers like a transcription of a Bach toccata and fugue and a movement from a Borodin symphony. Open to the public, the free program includes a featured trumpet sextet among the following numbers:

Toccata and Fugue in D Minor, Bach Toccata and Fugue in D Minor, Bach-Leidzen. ' Symphony-Allegro Moderato, Borodin. Suite Francaise, Hilhaud. Concerto for French Horn, Franz Strauss, Mr. Snider, Huskerland, Minor. The Trumpeters, Agostini-Bainum, Bextet, The Purple Carnival. Alford. Bolero Ritmico. Longas. Jamaican Rumba, Benjamin. Guaracha, Gould. Sabre Dance from Gayne Ballet, Khacha-turian.

A new United Press teletype machine has been installed in the journalism department news laboratory for use of news editing classes, Prof. L. Jermain of the journalism department said Saturday.

Maintenance of the teletype is $24.50 a week.

The teletype is encased in a soundproof wooden box. It is used five days a week by the news editing students. Half of the teletype news printed by the machine is for newspaper use, but it also prints news that is ready for radio broadcasting

In the future it will be used in conjunction with the speech department for radio-journalism classes, Jermain stated.

May Queen Filings Filings for this year's May

Jr. Ak-Sar-Ben

To Honor Dean

Of Ag College The 14th annual Jr. Ak-Sar-

Ben will be dedicated to Dean and Mrs. W. W. Burr of the College

Burr is retiring his position as dean of the college this year after ties, the board of regents and Gov.

Val Peterson have been invited to sit in a special section with Dean

University students will par-ticipate in the expanded fitting and showmanship contest. They will show beef and dairy cattle, hogs, sheep and horses. The par-and Mrs. Burr at the show. Students Participate.

of Agriculture.

college since 1906.

ment.

UN Speakers Take Honors In Tourney

Thirteen University of Nebraska students and teams won superior ratings in the eighth annual university sponsored Intercollegiate Debate and Discussion Confrence, Friday and Saturday. Directed by Donald O. Olson, the conference offered ratings in debate, discussion, newscasting, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking, to the participating 175 speakers.

Debate and Discussion. In debate, two N. U. teams, composed of Jack Solomon-Ted Sorensen and Rod Lindwall-Dick Schluesener, received superior ratings from the judges, 74 teams from 40 schools vied for the honors on the question, "Rehonors on the question, "Re-solved that a federal world gov-ernment should be established:" In dividuals acheiving a superior status were Sorensen, Lindwall, Schluesener, and Mary Dye.

Receiving superior ratings in discussion were university stu-dents Betty Jeanne Holcomb, Ted Sorensen, Richard Schleusener, Jack Solomon, and Leonard Hammes. Question for discussion was "How can we insure peaceful relations among nations of the world." There were 177 individuals in the discussion division. Lucas Top Announcer.

U. N. student Bill Lucas was one of three participants to receive a superior rating in newshaving been connected with the casting, 23 announcers entered the event. Others meriting superior "This year's show will be in standing were, Jean Porter of onor of Dean and Mrs. Burr for South Dakota State, Mark Rouch of Baker University, and Harold Brack of Augustana College, Rock

Highest in oratory were Donald Keogh of Creighton University, John Madden of the University of Omaha, Courtland Petersen of the University of Colorado, and Wal-ter Stromer of Hastings College.

Persians, a proposed political organization, was rejected Wed-nesday by the University Senate committee on student activities. Official notification has not yet been received by the Persians but ticipants will be judged both on the grooming of their animals and their officers were told that committee action had been unfavorhow well they show them. They will prepare their animals and show them as if they were their able. Dean Marjorie Johnston, secretary of the faculty senate committee, confirmed this report owners. Over 100 head of live-stock will be shown. Dean Johnston said a letter will

Ag Spring Party Scheduled Friday Typical Couple Presentation Feature of Ag Semi-Formal

8:30 to midnight in the Ag Union. according to an announcement released today by the Ag Exec Board. The dance will be semiformal.

Skippy Anderson and his or-chestra, from the Trianon Ball-room, WGN Chicago, will furnish the music for the event.

Couples Nominated.

The presentation of the Typical Kampus Kouple of Ag college will be the highlight of the evening. Each of the seven Ag social or-

Theta Epsilon Returns to Ag; Elects Officers

Theta Epsilon, entomolgy professional society, was recently reorganized on Ag campus with the aid of one of the charter members of the organization, Jack Lomax. The society has been inactive since 1941.

At the first meeting Joe Pappas was elected president; Ed Brunken, vice president; Dick Lyness, secretary; Dr. R. E. Hill, treas-urer, and O. S. Bare, also a charter member, faculty adviser.

The organization promotes the non-academic association of persons interested in entomology. A varied program of discussions, lectures and movies on entomology and related fields will be presented at meetings.

Two membership plans have been drawn up for those interested in the entomology society. The active membership is made up of those who are taking or have taken an entomology course. The associate membership is open to all those who are interested in entomology, other than those eligible for active membership, whose applications for membership are approved by the executive committee.

Meetings will be held bi-monthly. The next meeting will be Tuesday, March 3, in the Ag Union recreation room. All persons interested in supporting the organization are urged to attend this meeting, according to Pappas.

Prof's Campaign For Senate Opens

Albin T. Anderson, university history instructor who is seeking the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator, will open his cam-paign Thursday at 9 p.m. over station KFOR.

It is anticipated that Mr. An-The judges, bugler. Block and be sent the organization next week derson's initial talk to the voters four plays will be held in Rooms will lay the foundations for the 306, 201, 203 and in the auditorentire campaign which will continue for five weeks.

The annual Ag Spring Party ganizations will nominate one will be held Friday, March 5, from couple for the honor. The typical couple will then be chosen in an all-Ag college election in the Ag Union Wednesday from 12 to 5 and Thursday from 9 to 5. The names of the nominees will be announced in Wednesday's Daily Nebraskan.

Tickets are on sale for $2.00 a couple, tax included, at both the City and Ag Unions. Tickets may also be purchased from Ag Exec Board members.

Chairmen Announced.

Frank Leoffel and Marainne Srb are co-chairmen in charge of the party. Other committee chairmen are: presentation, Mavis Musgrave and Gwen Monson; publicity, Charles Brim and Marge Reynolds; decorations, Ned Raun, John Osler and Don Kellogg; tickets, Neal Baxter and Bob Hamilton, and chaperones, Lillian Lock. Jack DeWulf will be master of ceremonies.

Williams Sets Tryout Dates For May Plays

Parts for seven women and 24 men are offered in the four fulllength plays to be presented in May by the Experimental Theater. According to Dallas S. Williams, all regularly enrolled students in the university may try out. Students who are not interested in acting but would like to assist on production staffs may contact Robert Black, technical director of the Theatre, Room 153, Temple, No Night Rehearsals.

"Students who have been un-able to participate in major theater productions because of night rehearsals will find an opportunity for dramatic expression in these plays," stated Mr. Williams. "Practice periods are limited to two afternoons weekly. Evening rehearsals will be kept at an absolute minimum or eliminated entirely.'

The four plays scheduled are 'Of Mice and Men" by John Steinbeck; "As the Eagle Grows" by Elizabeth Wetzel, winner of the Nebraska Masquer--sposored national playwriting contest; "Ser-vant in the House" by Charles Rann Kennedy, and "Amphitron '38" by S. N. Behrman.

Tryouts have been scheduled from 3 to 6 p. m., Monday, March 1; 7 to 9 p. m., Tuesday, March 2; 3 to 6 p. m., Wednesday, March 3; and 3 to 6 p. m. on Friday, March 6. Simultaneous tryouts for the 306, 201, 203 and in the auditorium, Temple.

honor of Dean and Mrs. Burr for their long and faithful service to the Nebraska College of Agricul-ture," stated M. A. Alexander of Island, Ill. the Animal Husbandry depart-Light Horses Added. Since Dean Burr is an admirer of light horses a class of jumping and three-gaited horses have been added to the show's program. Chancellor R. G. Gustavson, C. W. Borgmann, dean of facul-will close Tuesday, Queen March 2, at 5 p.m. Filings should be made in the office of the Union.

All coed seniors with a 5.5 average are eligible for the award.

Only independent women are to file, as organized house members have already been con-tacted through their houses. The May Queen will be decided at the All Women's Election March 18.

AUF Fund Reaches $150;

Plan House Canvass Monday

drive.

vention courses,

horse riders will be in formal committee action. Wall Refuses Comment. dress stock will be shown.

The show will be held the evening of March 20 and is open to the public.

Beta Sigma Psi President, Norbert Tiemann. Vice president, Leo Bedke. Secretary, Robert Baumann. Corresponding Secretary, Gerald Wolters.

Treasurer, Walter Wolfert.

Red Cross Serves Vets.

2,029,007 veterans and their dependents were assisted in the past fiscal year by the ARC Home service. Financial aid for veterans from their community chapters

A summary of the Red Cross

The campus drive for the American Red Cross will end Wednes-

According to Red Cross records,

Ben Wall, Arcadia freshman who headed the proposed society, refused comment on the rejection until the committee's letter is received.

The Persians were organized in October for "the elimination of discrimination on the campus and the establishment of a representa-tive student government," accord-tive student government," accord-ing to Wall. The Student Council approved a revised Persians constitution in January. Previously the council refused to recognize the political group, following the recommenda-tions of Bob Wenke, council con-stitutions committee chairman. Charged 'Secret.'

Charged 'Secret.' At that time the group was accused of creating a secret polit-ical fraternity. The constitution was revised according to council specifications before getting its approval. "The revisions requested by the council did not substantiate charges that it (the Persians) was either secret, a fraternity, or un-democratic," Wall said.

Military Frat to Initiate tiation of the ten cadet officers pledged at the Military Ball last December will take place Monday, March 1.

Anderson will also address the Graduate Club on Wednesday, March 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the Presbyterian Student house, 14th and R, on "Issues Facing the Next Congress."

Young democrat committeemen are laying plans to hold a fundraising banquet in the near future, which is expected to at-tract Anderson-Democrats from throughout the State.

There are still a few remaining Coed Follies tickets which will be sold to first comers Monday afternoon from 12 until 6, or as long as the tickets last

All organized houses will be asked to turn in unsold tickets to Jackie Gordon Monday at 5:00 p.m. in Ellen Smith Hall.

Males Prohibited at Tuesday Night's Coed Follies Review

"In spring a young man's fancy olde fourth estate, a newspaper lightly turns to thoughts of...," office where the campus "guns" but it won't do him any good be-congregate.

cause he can't come. Yes, it's that time of year again. At 7:30 p.m. Tuesday evening, March 2, in the Nebraska Theater, the curtain goes up on the annual "Coed Follies," Nebraska U's own "girl show," sponsored by AWS. To Contend.

Nine women's organized houses Military Frat to Initiate Major Robert P. Brust, interim chairman of Co. C of the Na-tional Society of Scabbard and Blade announced today that ini-tlation of the ten cadet officers are curtain act contenders.

Everything from nautical pleas-

M.B. Secrecy Flouted.

For the only time during the school year even Mortar Board secrecy is gaily flouted in their customary skit offering.

Gold cups will be awarded as usual for first places in skit and curtain act divisions.

Satire, melody, and beauty will run rampant for two hours at 76 cents a head, feminine head, that is. Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the 1948 Typical Nebraska Co-ed, from among the contestants in the annual style show, an added attraction of the Follies.

day, March 1. These men will form the nu-cleus of the reactivated Nebras-ka company. ures to the mysteries of bubble gum will be revealed. Fantasy will stalk a candy store, a flower shop, a child's story book, and even ye For a one night stand, the Ne-braska theater will be "no man's land" to Joe College, but for the privileged co-ed "anything goes."

Approximately $150 has been solicited by the All University Fund for the American Red Cross Fund for the American Red Cross, according to a statement Saturday by AUF treasurer Peggy Lawrie.

Most of the money has come from the booths maintained in Love Library and in the city and ag campus Unions, Coed Counselors will work in the Union booths today to take further contributions.

are expected to come in Tuesday after house solicitors have asked for donations at the regular Monday night meetings. The men's house who contributes the most money to the Red Cross will have the following Monday night dinner served by members of Mortar Board, senior women's honor society

Innocents, senior men's honor- day, March 3.

amounted to $6,441,983. Ask House Donations. Organized house contributions first aid, water safety, and accident prevention program shows that 346,871 first aid certificates were issued for courses completed, 470,390 water safety certificates awarded for life saving and swimming courses completed. 31,723 persons completed accident pre-