K-State Rallies To Hand NU 56-49 Setback

Kansas State's conference-leading Wildcats had to come from behind in the last half Friday night to defeat Nebraska's basketball quintet, 56-49.

Nebraska put a tight zone defense on the Kansas State boys during the first half. Not until ten minutes of the opening stanza had elapsed did the Wildcats score. Howard Shannon hit the initial Wildcat bucket, and Coach Jack Gardner's cagers had to wait until 3 1/2 minutes remained in the first half before they could hit from the field a second time.

Nebraska held a 28-18 margin at half-time, and were ahead, 28-13, at one time in the first half.

Wildcats Change Tactics.

Kansas State changed its strategy after intermission and pulled the Husker zone out by shooting long shots. Then the Wildcats went back into their fast break and won going away.

Forward Rick Harman of Kansas State led in the scoring column with 14 points. Neal Mosser topped the Cornhuskers with 11 counters, and Forward Claude Retherford hit for ten.

The victory was number eight in ten conference games for the Wildcats. Nebraska has won four and lost six.
