

Daily Nebraskan

Vol. 48-No. 92

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Tuesday, March 2, 1948

Sooners Win, 81-74; FiveRecordsBroken

Corhuskers braska's five Big Seven scoring records last night as the Sooners defeated the Huskers, 81-74.

The Sooners broke two records. They scored the most points by one team (81), and they hit the most field goals by one team (34). Nebraska and Oklahoma com-bined to break two marks: Total points scored by both teams (155), and most field goals scored by booth teams (63). Nebraska broke the total points scored by a losing team record with 74.

Sooners Lead

Oklahoma's quintet had things its own way until the first half was nearly over. With seven min-utes and 30 seconds remaining in the opening stanza, the Sooners held a 29-18 advantage. But the Huskers put on a scoring drive that knotted the score at 35-all at half-time.

Both teams turned on torrid second-half scoring barrages on their way to the record-breaking totals. With 50 seconds to go, Oklahoma was leading, 80-67. In that last wild minute, Retherford, Whitehead, Cerv and Mosser hit Whitehead, Cerv and Mosser hit to give the Huskers their 74 point total.

Nebraska's high-scoring for-ward, Claude Retherford, took scoring honors for the evening as he dropped nine field goals and two gift tosses for 20 points. Big Bus Whitehead took runner-up honors for the Huskers with 12 points, and Bob Cerv finished third with ten.

Waters Leads Oklahoma.

Bill Waters, 6'5", 230-pound Sooner center, topped the Oklahoma scoring list with 17 points. The big pivot man scored them all in the last half. Paul Corty, the conference's leading scorer, finished second for the Sooners with 15 points. and Harly Day

Band Concert Sunday Merits Two Encores

A lusty and vigorous performance of a widely varied program rewarded the more than 3,000 spectators that attended the annual ROTC symphonic band concert in the coliseum Sunday. In his tenth year of conducting the varsity band, Donald Lentz led his 95 men and women through a pate in this year's Home Ec Style fast-moving concert that merited show to be held in the Food and two encorse demanded by the au- Nutrition building Wednesday

Oklahoma University and Ne-| tock third with 13. The Oklashattered homans hit 45% of their shots. Coach Good's cagers will close their 1947-48 session in the Coliseum Saturday night when they entertain the Kansas University Jayhawks.

Jaynawks.
Öklahoma fg	ft	pf.
Couty f	3- 6	3
Leake f 0 Jones f 1 Speegle f 1	0-0	1
Jones f1	0-1	3
Speegle f1	0-0	0
Day f	5-8	- 4
Waters c	1-2	4
Lynn c	0-0	1
Merchant g4	1-1	5
Terrell e	0-0	0
Hughes g	1-1	1
Pryor g (GC)5	1-1	2
Jacobs g0	1- 2	0
	-	-
Totals	13-22	24
Nebraska fg	ft	pf.
Retherford f	2-2	3
Nebraska fg Retherford f9 Shields f1	2-3	2
Cox I	2-2	2
Schleiger c	2-7
Schleiger c2 Whitehead c5	2. 2	•3
Cerv g	2-6	3
Mosser g (GC)3	2-3	2
Cech g2	0-1	9
terms in the second sec
Brown g	16-28	21
rechnical foul: Waters,	Oklahoma.

1502221374907111 111181s20467 120467

74

Works.'

Score at half: Nebraska 35, Oklahoma

35. Officials: Ted O'Sullivan, Missouri; Dick Pulliam, Grand Island college.

For Senate Race

Albin Theodore Anderson, member of the university history faculty, officially filed for the Democratic nomination to the office of the United State Senate on Monday, March 1, by petition, with the Nebraska Secretary of State Frank Marsh.

Anderson will become a candidate for the nomination in the April 13 primary at which time the Democrats of the state will make their choice as to the man the Virginia boxing team in 1944. that they will support to oppose the incumbent Senator Kenneth S. Wherry, Pawnee City. Republican from Professor Anderson, celebrating his thirty-seventh birthday today, said that his primary purpose of filing for the Democratic ticket was to defeat Sen. Kenneth Wherry who "is too much of an isolationist".

ROBERT FINLEY

Virginia Boxer

Speaks Today

Robert Finley, former boxing champion and honor student at the University of Virginia, appears this week in a series of lectures entitled "A Christianity That

Sponsored by the Inter-Varsity

Christian fellowship, Finley will give four lectures, March 2-5. He will speak at 7:30 p.m. each day.

speak in the Union ballroom on "What is Christianity?" and "Christianity and Philosophy." Thursday night he will speak on

'Christianity and Other Religions"

in Union 315. Friday he will discuss "Christianity is Practical' in Finley was on the honor roll at the University of Virginia for four the Library Auditorium.

Tuesday and Wednesday he will

6:30 for the annual Coed Follies and presentation of the Typical Nebraska Coed. The AWS-sponsored show, under the direction of Marian Crook, will admit women only. Featured in the '48 Follies is Mistress of Ceremonies Mrs. Joan L. Norsk, Chicago, first Director Black Announces Cast

'48 Coed Follies

Scheduled Tonite

Men Banned at Annual Show;

The doors of the Nebraska theatre will open tonight at

TNC, Best Skits Announced

For 'Playboy' Casting for the fourth University theater production of the year, J. M. Synge's "Playboy of the Western World," has been completed, according to Director Robert Black.

In the lead role, that of Christopher Mahon, a gay young man known for his dubious state-ments, is Rex Coslor. Pat King portrays Pegeen Mike, young daughter of Michael James Flaherty, a publican, played by Abe Katz.

Enacting the part of Christo-pher's cruel father is Dean Graunke. Mildred Hodtwalker Quin. Her cousin, Shawn Keogh is portrayed by Dick French. Donald Nichols and Dale Wisser take the parts of Philly Cullen and Jimmy Farrell, small farm-ers, while three village girls are enacted by Mary Lou Thompson, Shirlee Wallace and M a r y Graunke,

The action of "Playboy of the Western World" take place near a small Irish village on a wild coast of Mayo. "Even though it is very poetic," states Mr. Black, "'Playboy of the Western World'

Simon's Ad Contest Entries Now Due

Students are asked to turn in ad entries for Simon's advertising contest as soon as possible. The contest is open to all regular university students except employes of Ben Simons and the Daily Nebraskan.

The first contest ends March 4; the second closes March 11. Winning ads will be published in The Daily Nebraskan. Contest judges include Forrest C. Blood, mittee chairmen from the AWS last year's professor of advertising and Board of skits: Janet Stratton; ch netted sales management, Archie Bailey style show, Jane McArthur; TNC, of the chamber of commerce, Mims Weeth; stage manager, Joyce Ayres of the Ayres Ad- Anne Witham; dressing rooms has shrunk, human needs have not. Besides its emer-McIntyre of the Lincoln Journal. Besides its emerof the "Typical Coeds" on the Nebraska campus. Beginning at 7:30, the skits and curtain acts will be followed by the style show featuring the "New Look" at N. U.

Skit directors are requested to come to the theater sometime between 9 and 12 a. m. for a final check of props. Props may be brought through the back door of the theater during those hours.

Order of Program.

The order of the program and directors are as follows: "Belle of directors are as follows: "Belle of N. U.", Alpha Omicron Pi, Pat Nordin, director; "Chew Chew Choo Choo," Towne Club, Grace E d l i n g, director; "Beautiful Dreamer," Alpha Phi, Zanny Bockes, director; "Cocktail Fan-tasy," Dorm, Barbara Faw, direc-tor; "Seen by the Sea," Delta Del-ta Delta Pat Boyd director; ta Delta, Pat Boyd, director; "Chi O Candy Shop," Chi Omega, Lynn Nordgren and Dot Chapin, directors; "Rag Time," Alpha Xi Delta, Marilyn Byers, director; "Storybrook," Pi Beta Phi, Pris Bailey, director; "Heaven Scent Flower Shop," Sigma Delta Tau, Annette Jacobs, director.

Winning skits will be selected by five judges: Miss Jane Avery, Dr. Jeanne Lockhart, Miss Gertrude Knie, Miss Mary Mielenze, and Mrs. Pat Cahr Smith.

TNC Finalists.

The style show, following the skits, will feature the 15 TNC finalists: Betty Aasen, Laverna Acker, Pat Black, Dorothy Bor-gans, Pat Boyd, Pat Hickey, Mary Sue Holland, Peggy Lawrie, Lillian Lock, Beryle Lotspiech, Mary Helen Mallory, Marilyn Miller, Helen Mallory, Marilyn Doralea Niedenthal, Peggy O'Don-nell, Kathryn Rapp, Marbara Rowland, Shirley Sabin, Eugenie Sampson, Myrna Samuelson, Ruth Stewart, Cherie Viele, Jackie Wightman.

Jean Compton: Sawyer; flowers

56 Girls Model Spring Styles For Ag Show Fifty-six models will partici-

evening

AUF's Drive For Red Cross Ends March 3

of Chicago Divinity school.

This year's AUF Red Cross drive closes at 5 p. m. Wednes-day, March 3. Although no goal has yet been officially announced, it is hoped that this drive will top which netted $1800. Altho the dollar gency loans are also providedross maintains such educational services as First Aid and Water Safety Training, and information on Accident Prevention.

years. He was also student body president and was an Eastern Intercollegiate boxing champion in the 155-pound class, He captained is just good fun." He has studied at the University

The highly rhythmic group that closed the program was well received by the audience, includ-ing the boisterous "Sabre Dance" from the ballet suite "Gayne" by and gaiety characterized the South American-styled composi tions "Jamaican Rumba" and "Guaracha" by Arthur Benjamin and Morton Gould, respectively.

Receiving enthusiastic rounds of applause for their specialty numbers were the trumpet sextet for their precise "The Trumpeters" and band president Jack Snider for his Franz Strauss French horn concerto, UN graduate and former quarterback Harry Miner who wrote the "Huskerland march performed by the band, took a bow from the audience, sharing applause with the band.

Orchestral coloring was given by the band to Bach's solemn "Toccata and Fugue in D minor" and to the nationalistic symphony movement of the Russian composer, Borodin. The modern "Suite Francaise" by Milhaud, popular among orchestras, was performed in its original band setting.

Nielsen, Simmons Elected To Law Advisory Board

Jess Nielsen and Ray Simmons have been elected freshman members of the Law College Board of Advisors, according to a release by Simmons, publicity chairman of

The design 211 class selected the models from the various clothing classes. Jean Secord is in charge of arrangements for the design 211 class and Bernice the Armenian Soviet composer Khachaturian. The same drive and gaiety characterized the sign deperatment is supervising the show sponsored by the Home Ec club.

Models will wear dresses that they have made themselves during this year, while Sally Hartz and Lynn Nordgren will comment on each garment. Some of the dresses are of original design.

dresses are of original design. The following girls will model in the show: Annete Carnahan, Rhoda Jessen, Jean Howe, Joan Graham, Joyce Geddes, Annette Stoppkotte, Jean Stoppkotte, Elaine Otto, Joan Titus, Lillian Lock, Nancy King, Lucy Masning, Pat Gaddis. Marjorie Johnson, Mary Lou Hasseloh, Barbara Keith, Jo Kellenbargar, Paula Pendiey, Janet Pierce, Marjorie Reynolds, Maude Coggs, Rodola Nelson, Lois Barnes-berger, Jeanne Secord, Bernice Young, Bounle Stewart. Phillis Taylor, Dorothy Bowman, Shirley Scheidt, Iris Wells, Patricia Ragan, Har-riet Moline, Marilyn Lyness, Barbara Zemer, Phylis Ross, Donna Rudisfi, Irene Wellenseit, Shirley Anderson, Barbara Turk.

Weighneid, Ballrey Alastria, Turk, *Arlay Olson, Lois Thorfinnson, Lucille Stryson, Ruth Swanson, Virgina Baskin, Kay Wolfe, Helen Cuplin, Beverly Reed, Gloria High, LaVerna Acker, Sharon Murphy, Erma Grace Fuller, Phyllis Schinzel, Donga Runty, Sue Bjorkland, and Jane Hokamp.

Teachers' College Mixer Announced

Teachers' college will hold a "Fun Night" in the Union ball-room March 16 from 8-10 p. m., according to Peg Lawry, publicity chairman of the group. Dean F. E. Henzlik of Teach-The board is a student group ers' college and Dr. William E. ister, by teams, in the advising on activities in the school. Hall are co-sponsors of the event. fice before March 13.

The war is over, but Red Cross service for the soldier continues. Red Cross field directors maintain counseling services for the soldier, and, in many cases, liaison with his family. Emergensy loans are also provided-$3,778,000 was loaned to servicemen within the past fiscal year. The Red Cross also continues its services in Army and Navy hospitals.

All of us have come into contact with Red Cross services in one way or another. So, let's all give to support these services.

Union Opens New Bridge Lessons

The first of a series of seven bridge lessons will be given March 4 from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Stu-dent Union. The classes, designed for beginners in contract bridge, will be under the guidance of Dale Ball, bridge professional.

For the fourth time this year the union will offer this instruction for all those who are interested. The classes, held in the Union game room, are free of charge.

Another feature of the Union's bridge program is a duplicate bridge tournament to be played March 13, Those who are interested in matching their skill with other UN bridge teams must register, by teams, in the union of-

Hemphill Case Settlement Announced by Chancellor

A satisfactory solution of the tion and request the Board of resignation of Benjamin F. Hemp-hill, associate professor of archi-the acceptance thereof and that tecture, was announced Saturday any implications of a dismissal be by Chancellor R. G. Gustavson.

Chancellor Gustavson said the Jution was reached at a confer-"In the light of Prof. Hemphill's solution was reached at a conference in his office Friday of the university committee on academic priviledge which investigated the matter.

Committee Report.

The committee's report and recommendations, endorsed by the Chancellor and the Board of Regents, is as follows:

"The committee finds that there was a deep-seated antagonism existing between Prof. B. F. Hemp-hill and the chairman of the department of architecture which apparently had existed over a considerable period of time. The committee regrets that these antagonisms resulting in mutual distrust were not resolved by frank discussions

"The committee finds that the action taken by the administration was precipitous and not justified by the circumstances which im-mediately preceded the purported dismissal.

Missapprehension of Rights.

"The evidence shows that Prof. preciation and will make the Hemphill resigned his position as report the official action of the associate professor under a mis-apprehension of his rights. We the monbers of the committee for therefore recommend that Prof. their help in resolving a very Hemphill withdraw his resigna- difficult situation."

expunged from any record of the expressed desire that he does not wish to continue to be associated with the university, the committee recommends that the Board of Regents pay Hemphill's salary to September 1, 1948, and that the record show that his withdrawal was entirely voluntary as of that date.'

Report Signed.

The report was signed by the following university professors who are members of the commit-tee: Professors J. M. Reinhardt, chairman, J. F. Colbert, Charles H. Patterson, E. F. Schramm and Oscar H. Werner, Prof. G. M. Darlington, the other member of the committee, was absent because of illness. The report was also signed by Hemphill as "entirely acceptable."

Chancellor Gustavson said, "As Chancellor of the university I wish to state that the Board of Regents accepts the report of the commiton academic privilege in the case of Prof. Hemphill with high ap-