

Four Knock Outs Feature Opening IM Boxing Card

BY FRITZ SIMPSON
(Daily Nebraskan Sports Editor)

Thirty-two intramural sluggers squared off Tuesday night in the Coliseum to open the 1948 all-University boxing championships.

Four knock-outs featured the opening matches. Keith Lytle, 175-pounder from Gothenburg, scored the first K. O. of the evening when he dropped Marvin Franklin of Wallace in the second round. Number two knock-out was dealt to George Supp of Los Angeles, California, in the 165-pound class. Bob Edwards of Beaver City threw the K. O. punch in the first round.

Brooker Scores K. O.

Ken Brooker, 175-pounder from Gracewood, Ga., scored the third knockout when he dropped Bob Baker of Salina, Kas., for the ten count. Brooker shot a long right in the third round to finish the Kansas boy.

Gerald Ferguson of Scottsbluff, a pre-tournament favorite in the 175-pound division, furnished the evening's final K. O. when he finished off Melvin Elward of Geneva in the third round. Elward had crawled off the canvas after taking two hard lefts when Ferguson shot a long right to finish the Geneva slugger.

Last Year's Champs.

Two champions from last year's tournament won their first round matches. Don Thiel of Lewellen, 135-pounder, decided Gene Hinde of Salina, Kas., to advance to the second round.

Bob Skochdopole, 145-pounder from Ravenna, cleared the first obstacle in his title defense when he outpointed Wendell Jensen from Minden.

Wildcats Win Berth in NCAA Cage Playoffs

Kansas State's Big Seven cage champions will represent district five in the Western regional N.C.A.A. playoffs in Kansas City Friday and Saturday.

A crowd of 9,700 watched the Wildcats whip Oklahoma A.&M., Missouri Valley king, Monday night, 43-34. Kansas State became the only team to defeat the Aggies twice this season.

Guard Howard Shannon, 6-foot 1-inch junior from Munday, Texas, hit six out of seven field goals in the first half as the Wildcats set a dazzling pace with their fast break. At intermission the Manhattan boys held a 27-17 lead, and Shannon had 13 of their total.

The Kansas State ace added two gift tosses in the last half to finish the game with 15 points.

Coach Hank Iba's Aggie quintet managed only two ties, 5-5 and 6-6, during the contest but were never headed.

Centers Ward Clark and Clarence Brannon, Shannon and Rick Harman controlled over half the rebounds under both buckets.

The Wildcats' season record now stands at 21 wins and four defeats. They took the Big Seven crown with nine victories and three losses this season after finishing in a tie for last place a year ago.
