

Broadway Star Portrays 'Joan' In Local Play

An opportunity to see a famous Broadway actress in a new different type of play will be given local drama-lovers this Thursday.

The original production of

Maxwell Anderson's "Joan of Lorraine," starring Diana Barrymore, and supported by a veteran Eastern theatrical cast, will be performed at the Lincoln high school auditorium. Curtain time is 8:30.

This will be the second version of the Anderson drama that local theatergoers have been privileged to attend. The first enactment of "Joan of Lorraine" was performed by the University Theater as their first production of the current season.

Diana Barrymore, who portrays titular and leading role in the coming version, is known for being the youngest thespian member of the famous Barrymore family. When Ingrid Bergman forced the Broadway version to close because of Hollywood commitments, Miss Barrymore was quickly selected for a successor on nationwide road tour.

Marshall Zhukov, the famous Russian army officer, says America's democratic institutions allow the people to be as "selfish as they want to be." He omits, however, that it also permits them to be as free as they want to be.

Vets' Fling Will Benefit Needy Choir Performs Here Thursday

The Univet-sponsored "Spring Fling," a benefit dance to secure clothing for the needy of Europe, will give an opportunity for students who do have sufficient covering for livelihood to enjoy themselves while helping "That man who owns none."

The Union is co-operating with the University Veterans organization to provide an evening of dancing to the music of Jean Moyer's orchestra for the price of an article of used or outmoded clothing.

These garments will be sent to Europe during the summer months, by the Univets in conjunction with CARE agency, and the Lincoln Council of Churches for distribution before another winter.

A special call is put out for misfitted army and navy uniforms, and women's woolen garments. Any wearable item for man, woman or child will be accepted.

Contributions will be received in the Union booth or at the door of the dance from 9 to 12 p. m., Friday, March 19. The regular admission charge of 44c will be made for all those wishing to attend who do not have clothing contributions to make.

If the cost of living soars any higher, grocers are likely to become the most influential social and political leaders of the nation.

Under the auspices of the Lincoln chapter of the American Guild of Organists, the famous Westminster Choir will appear tomorrow at 8:15 p. m. in St. Paul Methodist church. Dr. John Finley Williamson, founder, will conduct.

The choir college at Princeton university is fully accredited, and grants the degree of Bachelor of Music. The choir has toured America, Cuba, Canada and Europe, making 90 appearances in seven years with major symphony orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic, the Philadelphia and NBC symphonies.

The choir's repertoire extends from the standard masterworks of Bach, Beethoven and Brahms to works of contemporary composers and Negro and Indian folk melodies. Tickets are available at downtown music stores and at the door tomorrow. The complete program:

- Stabat Mater, Motet for Double Chorus, Palestrina.
- Be not Afraid, Motet for Double Chorus, Bach.
- Good Is It To Thank Jehovah, Schubert.
- Oh, Savior, Throw the Heavens Wide, Brahms.
- The Crusaders, MacDowell.
- To Be a Song of a Summer Night on the Water, Delius.
- Montezart, Nicolau.
- Haste the Nymph, Handel.
- There is a Balm in Gilead, Negro Spiritual, Dawson.
- Soldier, Soldier, Virginia Folk Song, Powell.
- Go Way from My Window, Niles.
- Saint Louis Blues, Handy.
- Lane County Bachelor, Traditional Cowboy Song, Dixon and O'Hara.
- Skip to My Lou, American Square Dance, Wilson.
- I Am a Poor Wayfaring Stranger, White Spiritual, Jackson and Gatwood.
- Deaf Woman's Courtship, Virginia Folk Song, Powell.
- Ezekiel Saw de Wheel, Negro Spiritual, Dawson.
