

Five Law Teams Advance in Trials

FROSH LAWYERS ARGUE case in Moot Court proceedings. Pictured above from left to right are J. McAney, C. Starrat, J. Dahlgren (standing) and J. Druliner. The Judge is C. Russell Mattson. Druliner and Dahlgren won the case.

Five teams won their cases Wednesday and Thursday in the Freshman Moot Court proceedings to advance to the next round of competition in the present elimination series which ends March 25.

J. Drulinger and J. Dahlgren defeated J. McAney and C. Starrat, D. Peters and R. Howell won over G. Kokjer and J. Castner and J. Lyle defeated the team of Koerler and Curling in the cases argued Wednesday. Thursday K. Kratz and R. Calkins defeated B. Norton and B. Cypresen while J. Hunter and M. Johnson advanced over S. Hathaway and D. Rice.

Action Today

Action will begin again today at 1:30. Cases will also be presented at 3:30 and 7:30 today. After today, however, the court will adjourn until Monday.

The frosh courts serve to determine which teams are eligible for further competition in the Moot Courts next year. The winning freshman teams will compete in the sophomore courts next year. The system is a progressive one with two teams entering the senior Moot Court.

Junior Court

The Junior court will open March 22. Local judges will preside. The freshman courts at present have three down town lawyers as judges in each case.

This year's senior case will pit the team of Nelson and Schwartz against Wilson and Guenzel. The seniors will argue upon several questions before the Nebraska Supreme Court May 28.

Moore Named Simons Winner

... in Ad Contest

Winner of the Ben Simon and Sons merchandise ad contest and a $10 gift certificate was Kenneth Moore, Business Administration senior.

One of two advertising contests originated Feb. 18, the contest was open to all regular students of the University except employees of Ben Simon's and the Daily Nebraskan. Contestants were required to inspect Simon's merchandise to be featured in the ad, and then enter a complete layout including copy and Simon's signature cut.

Contest judges were Mr. F. C. Blood, University of Nebraska; Archie Bailey, Lincoln Chamber of Commerce; Joyce Ayres, Ayres Advertising Agency; Lyle Johnson, Lincoln Star; Dorsey McIntyre, Lincoln Journal.

Winner of the second, or institutional ad contest, will be announced in next Friday's Daily Nebraskan.

Ben Simon and Sons wish to thank all of the contestants for their interest and co-operation.

CRIME

A safe was removed with its contents from a Beatrice home Tuesday night. The $12,000 theft is "still a complete mystery" to local police.

Monroe Will Play For 'N' Club Dance

Ball in Coliseum Has Radio Show

The first "N" Club social event for the student body since the end of the war will be Saturday night's informal dance featuring Vaughn Monroe and his orchestra.

The dance promises to be quite an event, with a radio show, the Camel Caravan, to be presented from the stage over CBS at 8:30.

Besides the orchestra, the show will feature these members of Monroe's troupe; Ziggy Talent, comedy singer, Frank Fontaine, comedian, Betty Norton, vocalist, and the Moonmaids.

Doors Close.

Coliseum doors will close from 8:10 until after the stage show, so students will have to arrive early to watch it.

It was revealed Thursday that all "B" team basketball and football players will be admitted free, provided they buy one ticket for their dates. Tickets sell for $2 per person.

Monroe's history as a band leader is unique. He quite show business "forever" in 1940 to work in a railroad roundhouse, but the job wasn't as appetizing as bandleading so Monroe returned one day to accept an offer by Jack Marschard to head his own orchestra.

VAUGHN MONROE.

Tops in Nation.

Within two years, Monroe became one of the nation's top bandleaders, and his popularity has kept increasing ever since.

Some of the famous entertainer's top records include "Shrine of St. Cecilia," "There! I've Said It Again," "Let It Snow, Let It Snow," and "I Wish I Didn't Love You So." Monroe himself feels that "Ballerina" is one of his top performances on record.

14th Ag Show Opens Tonite

... at Jr. Ak-Sar-Ben Ball

The 14th annual Jr. Ak-Sar-Ben festivities begin tonight with the Ak-Sar-Ben Ball in the College Activities building and climax tomorrow night with the stock show in the 4-H building at the State Fair Grounds.

Featuring the music of Johnny Cox and his orchestra, the annual Ball will begin at 9:00 p.m. and last till midnight. Tickets are $1.50 a couple including tax. Pens of livestock will decorate the stage and trophies to be awarded at the show will be on display.

Dedicated to Dean W. W. Burr and his wife for their 40-years service to the University of Nebraska, the Jr. Ak-Sar-Ben is to provide a means whereby students may gain practical knowledge and experience in the fitting and showing of livestock. The show include: Show manager, Block and Bridle Club, is entirely student planned.

The show Saturday night begins at 8:00 p.m. Officials at the show include: show manager, Rick Wahlstrom; master of ceremonies, Berl Damkroger; ringmaster, Ned S. Raun; and trumpeter, Eugene Solomon. Judges will be Ed Janike, secretary of the Omaha Livestock Exchange; Robert G. Fosslund, J. V. Dunlap, and M. A. Alexander, all of the University of Nebraska.

The show is divided into eleven classes. Classes and their participation (See Page Four, Ag Show Opens Tonight)

White Speaks At Holy Week Convocation

The Rev. C. Vin White, pastor at First Presbyterian Church, will be the featured speaker at the Holy Week Convocation on March 24.

Rev. White, former dean of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Dubuque, Ia., received his B.D. from Hastings, Nebr., Th. M. from Princeton, N.J., and B.S.T. from the Biblical Seminary in New York City, N.Y. His subject will be "The Cross Speaks Out."

Rev. White states, "The Cross is at the heart of the Easter experience. All talk about love is futile until we see that it is overshadowed by the Cross. We must do more than look at and admire the sacrifice and courage the Cross called forth; we must look beyond the horror it entailed; we must go a step further and discover what it says to us in our lives today."

The Religious Welfare Council, sponsors of Holy Week, recommend attendance at Brahm's Requiem to be presented by the University Singers at Plymouth Congregational Church, 20th and D streets, on March 21, 5:00 p.m.

—Courtesy of The Lincoln Journal.

REV. C. VIN WHITE.

The daily early morning devotional services will begin at 7:15 a.m. on March 22. There will be groups meeting at Cotner House, and the Presby House Monday through Thursday. There will also be a group meeting in room 22A of Temple building on Wednesday and Thursday and the Methodist group will meet from 7:00 to 7:45 a.m. Monday and Tuesday of Holy Week.

Glick to Attend Regional Social Work Meeting

Dr. Frank Z. Glick, director of the school of social work, will attend a regional meeting at the University of Kansas at Lawrence Saturday.

Directors from the schools of social work at the Universities of Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, and Oklahoma and Denver University

Union Presents Flicker Shows This Sunday

BY LEE BEST

Ladies, Gentlemen and Students! Here is your opportunity for an evening of cultural improvement! The latest in "reefined" Union Entertainment will be the showing of a number of those colossal new "moom pictures." Mr. Robert Easter and his General Entertainment Committee present "Ye Olde Flicker Nite" on March 21, 7:30 p. m., in the Ballroom of the Student Union. Melodramatic music will be offered by Miss Bonnie Compton at the organ. Her exciting rhythms will accompany such famed stars as Fatty Arbuckle, Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin. For the first time in the history of the Union you will be privileged, yes, we might say honored, to witness

(See page two, UNION FLICKER SHOW)

Coeds Elect Crook, Bolyan, Wightman to Presidencies

Nebraska coeds elected Jackie Wightman president of the Coed Counselor Board, Dace Boylan president of BABW, and Marian Crook president of the AWS Board at all campus elections held yesterday.

Finalists elected for May Queen nominations were: Joanne Ackerman, Mary Dye, Priscilla Flagg, Dorothy Ichinagi, Dorothy Meshier, Marcia Mockett, Shirley Schnittker, and Bernice Young.

McElhaney Elected Vice President

Marian McElhaney will serve as vice-president of the Coed Counselor Board. Shirley Sabin and Nancy Gish were elected senior members of the Board. Dorothy Borgens, Mary Helen Mallory, Pat Nordin, Marjorie Clark, Janice Cochran, and Jean Malone were chosen junior members and Marilyn Campfield, Mary Gaines, Kathleen Burt, and Marilyn Campfield, Mary Gaines, Kathleen Burt, and Marilyn Dawson will serve as sophomore members of the Board.

BABW Officers

On the BABW board, Donna McAuley will be vice-president and Mary Ann Groff and Marian McElhaney will be senior members. Jean Howe, Jo Ann Leaming, Pat Rolfsmeier, and Wanda Buell were elected junior members. Sophomores chosen were Peggy Judd, Marjorie McElhaney, Jean Walker, and Jean Weilage.

Phyl Harris was elected vice president of AWS board.

Senior AWS board members elected were: Nadine Anderson, Verneal Lundquist, Jane MacArthur, Mary O'Connor, and Ann Whitham.

AWS Board Members

Junior AWS board members are: Nancy Glynn (secretary), Donna Lu Johnson, Mary Ellen Schroeder, Janet Stratton, and Wanda Young.

Sophomore AWS board members are: Sally Holmes (treasurer), and Virginia Guhin, Nancy Jensen, Laura Lyman, and Charlotte Richards.

The election was supervised and the ballots counted by senior board members and faculty sponsors of AWS.

BABW Prexy

Miss Boylan, new BABW prexy, is also a member of Tassels, Nu-Meds, and YWCA. Miss Wightman, Coed Counselor president, has been publicity chairman of the Coed Counselor Board, a member of the Varsity Debate squad, Tassels, and Alpha Omicron Pi.

Miss Crook is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, president of the house council of Women's residence Halls, president of the Spanish Club, a member of Phi Sigma Iota, and has been a member of the AWS Board for three years, serving this year as chairman of the Coed Follies.