

Sooners Hand Scarlet Nine First Defeat

Nebraska's Cornhuskers dropped their first baseball game of the young season Saturday when the Oklahoma Sooners raced to a 9-1 victory on the Norman diamond.

The Sooner triumph came after a Nebraska 16-4 win Friday. It broke a three-game losing streak for the Oklahomans and a three-game winning streak for the Huskers. Oklahoma is the defending Big Seven and NCAA Fifth District champion.

Denker Scores.

Danny Burrell limited the Nebraskans to four hits and was the contest's winning hurler. Bill Denker crossed the plate in the second inning to give the Huskers their only run. He scored on an error by Shortstop Lewis Eubanks' and a single by Bob Schleiger.

Oklahoma knotted the score at 1-1 in the third on singles by Eubanks, Del Holt and Kenneth Pryor. With two out in the fourth, the Sooners landed on Jack Helmsley for three runs.

Gloystein Relieves Helmsley.

Elroy Gloystein, who defeated Oklahoma last year, took over in the fifth and retired the first eight Sooner batters. But Oklahoma collected four runs and five hits in the eighth.

Bob Schleiger, Husker first sacker who has been one of Nebraska's top hitters so far this season, collected two of the Cornhuskers' four safeties.

Husker Pair Take Thirds In Track Meet

Two Nebraska track performers gained third places in individual events at the Texas Relays Saturday.

Lanky Al Thompson, competing in a star-studded 100-yard dash field, finished third behind Texas University's Charley Parker and Maurice Fuquay of the Oklahoma Aggies, respectively. Thompson beat out another Texas dash favorite, Perry Samuels, in that event.

In the shotput, Dick Piderit heaved the ball 49 feet to place in third position behind Minnesota's Fortune Gordien. The Gopher ace tossed the shot 51 feet, 9 and 1/2 inches to cop the event.

Gordien also won the discus event with a mark of 172 feet 5 and 1/4 inches, a new Texas Relays record.

Other Big Seven performers who placed in the track and field events were Rollin Prather of Kansas State, who took second in the shot put, and Tom Scofield of Kansas, who tied for second in the high jump.

Carroll of Oklahoma finished in a second place tie in the pole vault and Crowley of KU and McConnell of Oklahoma placed in the broad jump.

The Sooner four-mile and two-mile relay teams and the Jayhawk two-mile quartet also placed.

Intramural Department Offers Three New Events

Three more athletic events in the Intramural program were announced Monday by Intramural Director L. E. Means.

Heading the list will be the softball tournament. Games will begin April 14, and all team entries are due at 207 Coliseum not later than April 9 at 5:00 p. m.

Any man in school is eligible except members of varsity baseball squads and any men specifically barred by varsity coaches of other sports. Each team must furnish one competent umpire each game. Games will be six innings unless mutual agreement preceding the game decides on a shorter contest.

Separate Leagues.

If enough teams enter the competition, separate leagues will be established in the following classifications, all eligible for the final playoffs. These classifications are: interfraternity, interdormitory, separate colleges, Ag college, independent, military, interdepartmental and interdenominational. The softball program will be under the supervision of Mr. Lepley.

The championship fraternity team will be awarded a trophy, and ten official intramural medals will be given to the winning independent team members.

Shuffleboard is a new event which is being offered this year.

Competition will be on a round-robin basis. The playoffs by teams will be single elimination.

Entries for the shuffleboard tournament are due not later than April 23. Play will start April 23. Any student in the University may enter the competition. No entry fee is required.

Horseshoe Tournament.

The third event offered by the Intramural department is the horseshoe tournament. Competition will be on a round-robin basis with the playoffs on a double elimination basis. Cumulative standings will be maintained of all individual play, and the individual champion will be declared from these standings.

Any man in the University may enter a 3-man team. Alternates may be entered and used, but to be considered for individual honors every match must be played.

Entries are due at 207 Coliseum not later than April 9. Play starts April 12. An official Intramural medal will go to the individual champion.

A year ago today, the Ag student union was completed and an open house dance was held in the gym of the activities building. John Carson highlighted the entertainment. Refreshment was served throughout the evening.

It's leap year! But a word to the wise says to look before leaping . . . meaning, the topic under discussion is the usual topic under discussion during leap year . . . M E N . . . let us consider the typical thought in most feminine minds . . .

M stands for the many, many things HE isn't . . . he isn't blond and handsome or the "Great American Boy" type . . . he isn't the son of the wealthiest man in town . . . he isn't a party boy type or a student type, just a "in-between" . . . he isn't the most polished or well-mannered boy on campus . . .

E stands for everything he is (in the feminine mind that is) . . . he's of medium height, medium build and medium mentality . . . usually dark with Tyrone Power features and a Jimmy Stewart personality . . . most important of all, he's sincere . . . he likes long enjoyable weekends of no study and plenty of play . . . he remembers manners after noon on Sunday . . .

N stands for the things he never does . . . like opening car doors, lighting cigarettes . . . ordering food without the "well, whatcha want?" question . . . calling at least two days ahead of time for a date . . . noticing how nice his date looks . . . never, never remembering to make introductions . . .
