Nebraskan Error Forces Repetition Of Union Invite

BY LEE BEST.

Last Friday the Daily Nebraskan invited the campus to attend the tenth annual birthday party of our Union, on April 24. Today that invitation is re-extended, since the party is not held until Saturday, May 1.

Date Deleted

Through a typographical error on the original copy, the date was blocked out, and when the story went to the headline writer he considered the Saturday mentioned to be that of the current week.

The staff is eager to have all students pay due tribute to the Union, our biggest student investment and greatest asset. It has housed our activities and offered services to the campus as a whole for the past decade, and we therefore wish to apologize not only to Duane Lake and his staff, but to all of you who came expecting a great party. You may still enjoy the anniversary of our favorite campus gathering place, come next Saturday.

Climax Weekend.

What could be a better climax to the weekend of Ivy Day and Engineers' Week festivities than an evening of dancing to Eddie Garner and his orchestra, eating a piece of the "little Union replica birthday cake, Art Curtis' floor show, the Flicker Follies and numerous competitive games?

The Union has devoted its first ten years to building up one of the top campus service and entertainment programs in the country, and its birthday party, under the direction of Lake and the students' committees, will provide enjoyment to the best of their abilities.

Office staff, Intercultural Relations and Comparative Religions will meet in the dining room of Ellen Smith hall today. Myra Williamson of the Des Moines office of American Friends Service committee will speak.

Candidates for the Charm School style show should report to the Coed Counselor room in Ellen Smith hall at 5 p.m. Tuesday. All organized women's groups will pick two candidates to attend the school.

Delta Omicron is a national professional music sorority.

There will be an important meeting of Alpha-Epsilon Rho at 5 p.m. Tuesday, in the Temple building.

There will be a Corn Cob meeting for all retiring Cob actives at 5 p.m. Tuesday in the Union.

SENIOR ADVICE TO THE WOMEN
(With apologies to Mr. Herrick)
Gather ye blankets while ye may,
Old Salt Creek is still a-flowing
And thither lure some lad today
Tomorrow 'twill be snowing.
If you would reap the winter fruit
Then sow your seeds today,
Dear
For gals before however cute
Were that much older next year.

The Creek will close with icy floes
And thunderstorms will hover
And when it snows each coed knows
The hunting season's over.
Then be not coy, but seek romance
While leaves are gold and ruddy
For having lost but once your chance
You may forever study.

FIRST LOVE
(By George Ade)
The cocktail is a pleasant drink
It's mild and harmless—I don't think!
When you have one you call for two
And then you don't care what you do.
Last night I hoisted twenty-three
Of those arrangements into me
My chest heaved, I swelled with pride
I was pickled, primed and ossified.

But R-E-M-O-R-S-E
The water wagon is the place for me
It is no time for mirth and laughter
The cold, dark dawn of MORNING AFTER!
