

Tri-K Announces Annual Crops Judging Winners

Winners of the annual Tri-K crops judging contest held last Saturday were announced today by Bob McDill, retiring president. The contest was held in the College Activities building Saturday morning and the awards were presented at a banquet Saturday evening at 6:30 in the food and nutrition building.

High individual, with 1,294 points out of a possible 1,400, was Don Smith.

Other winners are: Freshman division, James McDowell, first; Jerry Johnson, second, and Paul Kemling, third. Junior division, Howard Sautter, first; Edward Sautter, second, and Norm Holmberg, third. Senior division, Don Smith, first; Leonard Kokes, second, and Merle Teel, third.

New officers and initiates have also been announced. Dale Stauffer will succeed McDill as president. Donald Lehr was elected vice president, Vance Pettit was chosen secretary, and Merle Teel, treasurer.

New initiates are: Paul Fischbach, Leonard Bokes, Robert Chilvers, Dwight Kaster, Glen Lowry, Howard Sautter, Elliott Nay, Philip Skinner, Ivan Liljgren, John Lind, Leroy Zimmerman, Robert Kolar, Marvin Hollingshead, D. A. Davis, Merle Teel, Robert Voigt, Alvin Lamb, Truman Bachenberg, Gale Erlwine, Leonard Silver, Fendrew Nelson, Eugene Youngman, Duage Dunning, Arthur Swoboda, Robert Meade, Gene Terrill, Vance Pettit, Gray Kinnier, James Fricke, John McDill, Wil-

4-H to Sponsor Farewell Hour For Burr Today

All students are invited to the open house in Dean W. W. Burr's office today from 11 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 2:30 p. m. The open house, in honor of Dean Burr, is sponsored by the University 4-H club.

Those attending the open house will sign their names in the guest book as they come in. Later the guest book will be presented to Dean Burr as a memorandum of the occasion.

Dean Burr is retiring this year after 30 years of service to Ag college and to Nebraska agriculture. The open house is a "farewell" gesture in his honor.

The committee appointed by the 4-H club to sponsor the event is headed by Helen Ochsner and includes Alice Boswell, Doris Eberhart, Don Perry, Dean Eberspacher and LaRayne Wahlstrom.

Colored Movie To Highlight YMCA Meeting

The University YMCA will hold its final meeting tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Temple building. Highlighting the evening will be the presentation of three movies for the entertainment of members and friends. The main feature will be a technicolor film entitled "Shortest Way Home." This movie shows some of the natural beauty and high points of America. With this will be two short features entitled, "Muddled in Mud" and "Sports Spellbinders."

Bill Reuter, vice-president in charge of the program, has also arranged for refreshments and all members are urged to attend this final meeting of the "Y" group.

Plans for the delegates attending Estes will also be discussed and final arrangements for the summer cabinet will be revealed. Prior to the meeting at 7:30 in the Temple lounge, the YMCA cabinet will hold its final meeting of the year with Don Crowe presiding. All cabinet members are requested to be present at this very important meeting.

Theta Nu will meet Thursday at 5:00 p. m. in Bessey Hall for election of officers.

ber Meinen, Kenneth Kiester, Gerald Stahl.

Tri-K is an honorary organization on Ag campus for agronomy majors or students registered in agronomy courses.

Retiring YW Head Speaks At Vespers

Mildred Taylor, outgoing secretary of the campus YWCA, will be guest speaker at the final All-Campus Vespers service of the year, 5 to 5:30 p. m., Thursday, May 20, at the Episcopalian chapel.

Miss Taylor will speak on the topic, "The New Look," a reflection of what Vespers is and will be doing.

She received her A.B. degree from Cotner college and her Masters in sociology from the university. She has been a YWCA official in Los Angeles and Pittsburgh and participated in USO activities.

MILDRED TAYLOR

For the past four years she has been University YWCA secretary. Her plans for the future are not definite.

Miss Taylor expresses her gratification for the co-operation shown her at the university. In her own terms, "A university 'Y' group is the best place in the world to find promising young citizens."

Clark Speaks at Delta Sig Dinner

George "Potsy" Clark, Nebraska's head football coach was the honored guest at the Delta Sigma Pi congratulatory dinner Monday night. The primary purpose of the dinner was the recognition of the eleven Delta Sigs who are graduating in June.

Three members of the Beta Theta chapter of the fraternity at Creighton University were on hand to present Robert Larson, winner of the Delta Sigma Pi scholarship key at Nebraska, with their key of recognition for his outstanding scholastic performance.

A banquet will be held Saturday evening in the Fern room of the Blackstone hotel. Following the banquet will be a short ceremony installing the new national officers.

Schirmer Chosen New Editor Of Cornshucks by Pub Board

Daily Heads To Be Selected Next Saturday

The Publications Board will meet Saturday, May 22, in the Union Faculty lounge to select the editorial and business staffs for the next year's Daily Nebraskan, according to Dr. W. F. Swindler, director of the school of journalism and head of the board.

To be chosen are editor, business manager, two managing editors, five news editors, three assistant business managers, sports editor, Ag news editor and special feature editor.

Filings for these positions must be in Dr. Swindler's office by noon Friday, May 21. Application blanks and other information may be secured from Dr. Swindler's office in University hall.

Applicants should pick up their application blanks as soon as possible since they must go through the registrar's office before they are turned in.

JACK SCHIRMER

Yell Squad Tryouts

Yell squad tryouts will be held Wednesday, May 19, at 7 p. m. in the coliseum. Any sophomore, junior with an average of 75 is eligible to try out.

Business Staff To Be Headed By Slothower

Jack Schirmer was chosen editor of Cornshucks at the publications board meeting held Tuesday at 4 p. m. in the Union.

Other staff appointments made were: Managing editors, Tom Blomgren and Nadine Anderson; business manager, John Slothower; assistant business managers, Al Abramson and George Coupe.

Schirmer Past M. E.

The new editor, Jack Schirmer, has acted as managing editor of Cornshucks this semester. Schirmer is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Managing Editor Tom Blomgren is a member of Delta Upsilon. Also chosen managing editor, Nadine Anderson is a member of A.W.S., Y.W.C.A. cabinet, Alpha Phi and a Cornhusker staff member.

The new business manager, John Slothower, is a former member of Pershing Rifles, Kosmet Klub, Corn Cobs and Phi Delta Phi and former Cornhusker salesman. Slothower is a member of Delta Upsilon.

Abramson, Coupe Assist Slothower.

Al Abramson, who will assist Slothower next semester, was circulation manager for Cornshucks this semester. Abramson participates in AUF, is a member of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, and is treasurer of Zeta Beta Tau.

The other assistant business manager chosen yesterday, George Coupe, is a member of Kosmet Klub, Student Council, the American Pharmaceutical Association and Phi Gamma Delta.

Cornshucks became the campus humor magazine this fall replacing last year's magazine, the Awgwan. Joan Fankhauser was editor this year.

Members of the publications board are: Dr. W. F. Swindler, chairman, Kenneth Forward, H. E. Bradford, O. W. Burnett, Clay Kennedy, Hank Anderson and Jack Solomon. The last three are student representatives on the board.

Musicians Plan Student Recital Of Originals

Original music compositions by ten university students will be given their premiere performance at a recital to be held on the campus this afternoon.

The music was written in classes in musical theory conducted by Miss Elizabeth Tierney. Three of the compositions selected as this year's award winners are: "Rhythms" by Roma Johnson, Lincoln, and "Motet" by Janet Dalrymple, Lincoln, both winners of the Pi Kappa Lambda award; and a new arrangement by Richard Koupal, Ord, of Mozart's "Theme and Variation I from Sonata K. 331," winner of the Alpha Rho Tau award. Both organizations are honorary music groups.

Other compositions which will be performed: "Polka for Two Trumpets" by Byron Havlicek, Crete; "Aria and Minuet" by Aleta Snell, Lincoln; "Practicism" by Jeanette Dolezal, Seward; "Psalm" by Harold Bauer, Culbertson; "Whimsy" by Dorothy Taylor, Ped Oak, Ia.; "Prayer" by Frank Gorton, Lincoln; "Piece for Woodwind" by Darwin Fredrickson, Lincoln; "Brass Sextet" by Lawrence Tagg, Lincoln; and an arrangement by Elvira McCrory, Greenville, Ala., of "Aria and Suite in D Major" by Stossel.

Practical Arts Department To Hold Picnic at Pioneers

The Practical Arts department will hold a picnic Monday, May 24, at Pioneers Park. The picnic will begin at 5 p. m. and students attending must furnish their own transportation to and from the park.

All students planning to attend are to pay 50c to Prof. Easter, Teachers college, before Monday.

Corn Cobs Choose Pledge Class for 1948-49 Terms

Corn Cob pledges for next year were announced today by Bob Easter, new secretary of the men's pep group. The men, yet to be approved by the Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. T. J. Thompson, were introduced to Cob activities at a smoker, Thursday, May 13.

The pledges, two from each organized house and a number of unaffiliated men students include: Alvin Abramson, Harold Allen, Arlen Beam, Eugene Berg, Edward D. Carter, Cliff Christenson, Art Dickey, Bill Dugan, Jack Easterly, and Paul Galter.

Harold Golystein, John Goetsche, Bill Greer, Bill Hein, Burton Holthus, Ken Johnson, Bruce Kennedy, Bob Krotter, Dick Kuska, Davis Law, Gerald May, Darrell McCabe, and Paul McKie. Dick McClain, Neal McClymonde, Bill Mundell, James Nelson, Keith O'Bannon, Bill Olson, Brick Paulson, Robert Phelps, Fred Phifer, George Pinkerton, Joe Polack, Eugene Ractor, and George Reichenbach.

Robert Rogers, Pooch Roper, Harold Roselius, David Slusher, Walter Stephenson, Robert Stillinger, Don Stockholm, Allen Tully, Benjamin Wall, Jack Weiling, Joe Wilson, Dick Windrum, and Robt Yarwood.

A. The meeting, presided over by Robert Hamilton, president, officers, actives, and pledges were introduced. Col. C. J. Frankforter spoke on the spirit of the group, and outlined Corn Cob activities. New Yell King Joe Jankovitz asked for co-operation with the cheer squad, and mentioned plans for his group. Movies on Nebraska athletics were shown, and cokes and brownies were served.

Phalanx Plans Annual Dance, National Convention This Week

Phalanx, national honorary and professional military fraternity, will hold their convention in Omaha, May 21-23, 1948. Convention headquarters will be at the Omaha Elks club.

Delta Morae chapter, Creighton University, will play host to the three day convention, at which National Commander Forrest E. Wilson, University of Illinois, will preside. Highlights of the convention will be election of officers and national reports.

A banquet will be held Saturday evening in the Fern room of the Blackstone hotel. Following the banquet will be a short ceremony installing the new national officers.

He at Lincoln Dance.

The delegates will travel by bus to Lincoln, where the Epsilon Morae chapter, University of Nebraska, will be host at a semi-formal dance in the Georgian room of the Hotel Cornhusker. The dance, an annual affair prior to the war years, features the music of Johnny Cox and his orchestra.

During the dance an initiation ceremony will be held for Major Brusk and Col. Howard Johns. Both men will become honorary members of Phalanx.

Jack Meehan, president; Bernard Wolpa, and Edward Zorinsky, transfer student from Creighton and leader in reactivating the campus charter of Phalanx, will be the official delegates from the University of Nebraska.

About 300 Expected for Annual 4-H Week Here May 31-June 1

Nebraska's 32nd annual 4-H club week will be held at Ag college from May 31 to June 5, it was announced today by L. I. Frisbie, state 4-H club leader.

Some 300 4-H club members and local leaders will attend the session as a reward for outstanding 1947 club work. There will also be 1948 leaders and 4-H members attending.

Cash Awards. The state "Timely Topic" public speaking contest will be one of the highlights of the week, held Monday, May 31. The two winners, a boy and a girl, will receive a $150 Ag college scholarships, given by KFAB. Two luncheons will also be given on Monday at the Union. One will be given by WOW to 16 soil conservation trip winners. The other will be given by the World-Herald, honoring the 12 trip winners that were outstanding in news writing.

Discussions. Discussion speakers will be H. J. Gramlich, former head of animal husbandry, and Dean Carl W. Borgmann. On Thursday, General Motors will give a demonstration on progressive science, the only showing west of the Mississippi so far.

Banquets Planned.

Two banquets will be given, one by the College of Agriculture, and one by the Lincoln chamber of commerce. The group will also be guests at a picnic and play festival at the Auld pavilion.

On Friday, June 4, the group will take a special train to Omaha, where they will visit livestock interests and see downtown Omaha's points of interest. They will be entertained in the Exchange building at a luncheon, and will be guests of the Omaha chamber of commerce at a banquet in the evening.