

Tiger Balance Gains Big 7 Track Nod

University of Missouri's superbly balanced team is generally conceded its second straight Big Seven conference outdoor track and field championship here Friday and Saturday afternoons.

But the scramble for second place promises to be more hotly contested than a South American presidential election.

The Universities of Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma can each amass sufficient points to carry away runner-up honors.

THE OTHER THREE conference schools, Colorado, Iowa State and Kansas State, altho not possessing the strength to finish second, will be a factor in determining who winds up behind Mizzou.

Except for the Tigers who will be shooting for the conference team point total of 158 1/16 they set last year, the remaining six schools will chop up the rest of the points among themselves.

A break down of the potential power of the competing teams is as follows:

MISSOURI—The Tigers are top heavy in all events except the javelin where they failed to score in 1947. Sadill "Bud" Gartiser, Elmer Klein, Gil Phillips, Dick Schmidt, Dick Ault and Bob Schuster are all top flight sprinters in the 100-, 220- and 440-yard dashes.

Schuster has clicked off the 440 in 48.3 seconds the best time in the conference to date. Phillips has run the 220 in 21.3 seconds. "Bud" Gartiser has a 23-second flight of low hurdles and was clocked in 14.5 seconds for the high which are the best times for these events in the Big Seven this spring.

In the half-mile, mile and two mile races, the Tigers have leaders in Bob Bosworth, Bill Chronister, Charles Lancaster and Jean Madden. Bosworth has done the 850 in 1:56.2 while he and Chronister have 4:29.4 timing in the mile.

Missouri's domination is not limited to the track. It has Bob Teel, a 23 foot-plus broad jumper, Mel Sheehan and Ed Quirk in the shot put and discus, and Justin Knapp who has pole vaulted 13 feet.

NEBRASKA—One of the best dash quartets in the Big Seven is the Cornhusker's Dick Hutton, Harry Meginnis, Alan Thompson and Loyal Huribert. Hutton's 9.7 second century and Meginnis' 21 second furlong are stellar performances this spring.

The Huskers might surprise in the races and field events. Bob Berkshire will carry the hurdle burden while Meginnis will defend his jump title.

Other possible field points: Monte Kinder, high jump, Ray Magsamen, javelin, Don Cooper, pole vault; Dick Piderit, shot put, and Wayne Sees, discus.

KANSAS—Astonishing second-place winners in the indoor meet at Kansas City, Mo., the Jayhawks have three blue ribbon contenders in Hal Moore and Bob Karnes, mile and two mile, and Tom Scotfield the spring limbed record holder in the high jump.

John Stites and Tom Shea will push the field in the 440 and 800 while Drum, with a 196-foot-5 inch toss, leads the conference javelin throwers.

OKLAHOMA—Altho not powerful, the Sooners are well balanced with Missouri. They have a 10 second dash man in Laddie Harp who may miss the outdoor carnival because of a pulled muscle, Landon Westbrook in the 440, Ray Burns and John Canaris in the mile and two mile, "Hobo" Gilstrap in the low hurdles and broad jump, Bill Weaver in the high jump, broad jump and discus, and Bill Carroll in the pole vault and high jump.

KANSAS STATE—The Wildcats have outstanding performers in Rollin Prather (53 feet-3 1/2 inches in the shot put and 154 feet-6 1/2 inches in the discus), Rod McClay, the busiest man on the Kansas State team, running the 100, 220, 220 low hurdles and pole vaulting, and Howard Shannon (23 feet-4 1/2 inches in the broad jump and 6 feet-2 1/2 inches in the high jump).

Art Hildenbrand and Dave VanHaverbeke should finish high in the half mile and two-mile fields respectively.

COLORADO—The Buffs are only a shadow of last year's great team. Except for a half-dozen individual standouts they have no over-all strength.

Don Campbell, one of the nation's ruling sprinters last spring, Harry Narcisian, sprinter, Fitzmorris, distance races, Jack McEwen, Broad Jump, Jack Todd, javelin, and Warren Bateman, pole vault, are Colorado's principal point hopes.

NINE TRIUMPHS
Nebraska's baseball team took another step toward the Big Seven championship Tuesday by whipping the Kansas Jayhawks for the second day in a row. The Huskers clipped the Jayhawks 9-3. They have two games remaining next week with Iowa State.

Betas, Sig Eps Meet in IM Golf Playoff

Nebraska's intramural golf specialties championship playoff will be held Friday, May 21, at 12:15 p.m. between Beta Theta Pi and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The Betas, with Bill Olson (70), John Hoslam (50), Jack Baily (45) and Lloyd Petersen (40) scoring a 205 total, captured first place in the pitching contest.

Sigma Phi Epsilon, with Craig Cole (725), Dick Folda (700), Marv Franklin (690) and Ray Biemond (675), amassed a total yardage of 2790 to take first in the driving contest.

Bill Olson had the high individual pitching score of the tournament with 70, and Craig Cole took driving honors with his 725-yard total.

Each team in the playoff will be represented by a seven or eight-man team. The championship will be determined by the six best totals in pitching added to the six best totals in driving. These may be any six scores of the seven or eight men who shoot in either event.

Official intramural medals will be given to the individual winners of each of the two events.

In a recent election Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity selected Lenard Potash as President for the coming year. Harvey Davis will serve as Treasurer and Benny Robinson will take over the duties of Secretary.

Husker Nine Deals Kansas 7-1 Defeat

Nebraska University's baseball team took another step nearer the Big Seven conference championship Monday by defeating Kansas University, 7-1, at Lawrence.

Big Jim Sandstedt of Omaha hurled eight-hit ball as Nebraska jumped on the last-place Jayhawks for 11 safeties.

The Huskers clinched the victory with a three-run surge in the second inning. Bob Cerv, Weston centerfielder, clouted a triple, followed by Bob Grogan's double and singles by Wes Maser, Buzz Powley and Sandstedt.

Kansas tallied their lone run in the seventh inning. Charles Medlock, second baseman, singled, went to second on an error and scored on another error by Short-stop Grogan.

The Huskers added single runs in the sixth and ninth stanzas and two in the seventh. They collected their 1 hits off Kansas Pitchers Lou Hammer and Karl Elbel.

Bob Grogan was the Nebraskans' top man at the plate. He collected three safeties in five trips. Dil Blatchford and Sandstedt each hit twice in five trips to the plate.

Third Baseman Day hit two-for-three for the Jayhawks, and French and Medlock each hit

Don McArthur, D. Means Meet In Tennis Final

Dick Means, Beta Theta Pi, and Don McArthur, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, will meet this week for the intramural tennis singles championship. Both have emerged the winner in five matches to date.

McArthur disposed of Rickard Agnew, Delta Upsilon, Independent, 8-6, 4-6, 6-1. McGehee will meet Agnew to settle the third and fourth place positions.
