Frosh Squad Lacks Centers

The shortage of centers is making things tough for L. F. "Pop" Klein and his assistant frosh coaches. There are enough backs and linemen for 18 teams, but only enough centers for ten.

At present, the lines are running through their plays and alternating backfields go through their paces. The first scrimmage takes place today.

When asked about cutting the squad, Klein said, "There won't be any cuts. This is a training program here at Nebraska. We're teaching these kids the fundamentals of football."

In addition to Mr. Klein and his regular coaching staff of "Ike" Hanscom, Harry Miller and Neal Parsons, four assistants have been added to help with the task of instructing the 200 freshmen. They are Bill "Killer" Kane, Roger Johnson, Carter "Spike" Kokjer and Fred Metheny.

YMCA Receives 20 Men Wednesday

Twenty new men received membership cards at the opening meeting of the YM Wednesday evening. This makes a total of 40 men to date. The goal set for this year is 200 men or more.

There will be a booth in the Union attended by a Y member on Friday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 3 to 6 p. m. All men wishing to join the Y may do so at these times in the Union or at the Y offices in the Temple building.

The membership drive for the YM got under way Wednesday with a program consisting of short introductory speeches by several cabinet members explaining the Y program for the coming year. Refreshments were

'Eb' Mockett Was U.N.'s First Captain

How many of the old-timers remember the first football team? Seventy-three-year-old "Eb" E. Mockett does, he organized it. In a boarding house on 15th & P streets, E. E. Mockett lives among the past—surrounded by over 100 trophies, medals and awards. He is described by Walt Dobbins, sports writer of the Evening Journal as "one of the greatest living athletes in the country."

The school has long forgotten the old man and only a few of the old timers remember him.

He is the proud owner of a silver-plated lifetime pass which entitles him to attend all university games free.

Eb won honors in la crosse, bowling, bicycling, rollerskating, iceskating and football. In the 90's bicycling seemed to be Eb's favorite sport. It was in the days of the high-wheeled bicyclers that Mr. Mockett won the state championship in a six day bicycle race. His speed was 219 3/4 miles in 12 hours; two hours every night. One of Eb's contemporaries, remembering Eb's amazing prowess says: "No man living could ride like that boy."

Eb remembers during that race how he gave the band which played there every night $5 to play his favorite, the "Arkansas Traveler" during the last ten minutes of each round. Eb says: "I used to stay in back of the bunch each time around in order to conserve energy then at the last ten minutes they'd play the song and I would come up and pass them by at least one lap. That's how I won the race, the music inspired me."

Mr. Mockett was la crosse champion, bowling champion, and captain of the champion roller skating team. Mr. Mockett has a picture in his room of the first football team. Dressed in white canvass uniforms and various hats and caps they look like a potent team. "We won most every game we played that year," said Mockett. Mockett has the distinction of being the university's first football captain.

Eb's formula for athletic success: Go to bed early every night and don't drink. "I never touched a drop and never will," says this great athlete.

Heavy Grid Slate On Tap Saturday

King football gets into high gear this Saturday all over the nation.

The day's headliners find Notre Dame, co-holder of last year's mythical title with Michigan, meeting the powerful Boilermakers from Purdue. The dopsters recognize this tilt as the toughest hurdle on the Irish schedule. At West Point, the Army plays host to Villanova. The Wildcats showed that they are to be reckoned with as they trampled Texas A. & M. last week, 34-14.

Texas University and North Carolina U meet in an inter-sectional headliner at Chapel Hill. Northwestern University and Minnesota journey to the west coast to meet UCLA and Washington U, respectively.

Lynn Waldorf's California Bears travel to Baltimore for a spirited contest against Navy and Missouri opens against Ohio State at Columbus, O.

In the Southlands, Tennessee and Mississippi State tangle in one of the top games of the day. The Crimson Tide of Alabama and the Green Wave of Tulane also clash in a Southeast Conference opener.

Tassels will meet for the rally tonight at 8:45 in front of the Student Union.
